NOTICE OF OBJECTION

(Pursuant to The Fuel Tax / Hotel Room Tax / Tourism Levy/Tobacco Tax Acts)

This notice is for use by individuals or businesses that wish to make a formal objection to an assessment, reassessment, refusal, suspension or cancellation pursuant to Section 26 of The Fuel Tax Act, Section 16 of The Hotel Room Tax Act or Section 11 of The Tobacco Tax Act.

Every assessment, reassessment, or refusal to which an objection is taken will require a separate Notice of Objection. Where the facts and reasons set out in one Notice duplicate the facts and reasons of another, this may be indicated, and the provision of one statement of facts and reasons will suffice.

For each Notice of Objection one completed copy (signed by the person who objects or, in the case of a business, by an authorized officer of the business) must be sent by registered or certified mail or by courier to TAX SERVICES, TAX AND REVENUE ADMINISTRATION, 9811 109 ST, EDMONTON AB T5K 2L5, within ninety (90) days, from the date shown on the Notice of Assessment or Reassessment or Notice of Refusal, Suspension or Cancellation as the case may be, to which objection is being taken.

It is recommended that initially, an attempt be made to resolve any disagreements with Tax and Revenue Administration prior to filing a formal Notice of Objection. You may write Tax and Revenue Administration at the above address or phone (780)427-9425. If calling long distance within Alberta, call 310-0000 then enter (780)427-9425. Fax (780)427-5074. Should it not be possible to resolve the disagreement by this means, please ensure that the required Notice of Objection is properly filed within the ninety (90) day period mentioned above.
