A BREATHTAKING ROUTE

The *Skeena*TM is a 1,160 km two-day daylight land cruise through Yellowhead Pass, across British Columbia's interior plateau and down the Skeena River valley to the Pacific Coast, offering views of stunning and varied landscapes that simply cannot be seen any other way:

- Peaks in the Rockies between Jasper and Prince George, including the highest, Mount Robson
- Waterfalls, rivers, lakes and great stretches of wilderness, home to salmon, seals, bears, mooses, elks, deers, wolves and eagles
- Totem poles and traces of pioneer history alongside the tracks
- The Coastal Mountains and the mighty Skeena, or "river of mists" in the native Gitskan language, between Prince George and Prince Rupert

Convenient connections

- BC Ferries between Prince Rupert and Port Hardy
- BC Ferries and Alaska Ferries connections available at Prince Rupert
- Rail connections to the Canadian at Jasper
- Amtrak connections available between Vancouver and Seattle

Venture into mountain magic for an unforgettable two-day journey

YEAR-ROUND DEPARTURES

The Skeena departs three times weekly from either the Rocky Mountain resort town of Jasper, where it connects with the Canadian[®], or Prince Rupert on the north Pacific Coast. During the peak season, from mid-May to mid-October, the Skeena departs four times weekly.

Eastbound or westbound, the train stops for the night at Prince George.

(Please note that overnight accommodation and transfers are not included in your train fare)
