

DIA LIBRARY COLLECTION

Where is it?

Institution	Resources
Battye Library	Items that relate to Indigenous issues in WA, particularly those written by WA Indigenous authors, or material including Department Native Welfare records, old annual reports, Seaman Inquiry public submissions and information from WA Royal Commissions. Mostly historical books and reports – this collection will be accessed most by external researchers and government departments (especially for Native Title).
State Reference Library	Items that relate to Indigenous issues, both National and International, which are absent from their collection including journals and pamphlets.
UWA Indigenous History Unit and Reid Library	Items that relate specifically to Indigenous History and culture – particularly Noongar history - which are suitable for tertiary level student Studies.
Murdoch University Indigenous Unit and Main Library	Indigenous history/culture/contemporary issues. Collection of media clippings covering last 20 years.
Curtin Indigenous Studies Unit and Main Library	Indigenous history/culture/contemporary issues Complete Indigenous language collection – to be held in the Linguistics Dept.
ECU Kurongkuri Katitjin and Main Library	Indigenous history/culture/contemporary issues
Premier's Library (14 th floor)	Material relating to Native Title, Essential Services, Policy, Infrastructure and Remote Communities. Also Reference material and duplicates. To be accessed by DIA staff.

Department of Education	500 items regarding Indigenous education policy and programmes to be returned and held in the Education Library or dispersed to schools.
DIA Kimberley office	Material that relates to the Kimberley – to be managed by Kimberley Regional Manager.
DIA Albany office	Material that relates to the South West (Noongar), to be handed to the Albany Shire Library for management and access.
Local Public/Shire Libraries	Selection of general material covering history, culture, heritage, literature, contemporary issues, children's stories, videos – suitable for general use and school projects.

