Jim Edwards Sittichinli Scholarship

What is the Jim Edwards Sittichinli Scholarship?

This scholarship was named after the Reverend Jim Edwards Sittichinli, a respected elder who committed much of his life to the land and wildlife. Depending on available funds and the number of applicants, the Gwich'in Renewable Resource Board usually awards two scholarships each year to students pursuing studies in renewable resources or related studies. Priority will be given to students of Gwich'in heritage.

How Much is the Scholarship Worth?

Usually the scholarships have been $1000 each but the Board of Directors may change the amount of the scholarships based on available funds, the number of applicants, the quality of applications etc.

What are the Qualifications?

- Having a commitment to a career in renewable resources or related studies.
- Being accepted to a renewable resource or related studies diploma or degree program.
- Presenting 2 letters of reference (if already in ongoing program, one should be from the teacher).
- Being a resident of the Gwich'in Settlement Area.

How Can I Apply?

Application forms can be printed from the GRRB website or you can pick the form from the Gwich'in Renewable Resource Board. The deadline for applying for the scholarship is December 31 of each year.
