AN ENVIRONMENT FOR LIVING

aboriginal housing

living on campus

Starting September 2005, Canadore will be dedicating space in our upper residence townhouse units for aboriginal students. Townhouses, featuring six single rooms per unit, will be available to new and returning aboriginal students.

Our townhouse style residence, also referred to as Upper Residence, is located directly beside the College Drive Campus, where classrooms, the Library, the cafeteria, and The Student Centre are a short walk away.

Your Room

- Single bed
- Closet with storage
- Desk with chair
- Telephone
- Dresser

Your Townhouse

Each two-storey townhouse features three single bedrooms upstairs and three single bedrooms downstairs. A shared kitchen is located on the lower level in addition to a common room that features cable television, however, you must supply the television.

In the Residence

Living in residence is convenient, safe and affordable. A City of North Bay bus pass is included within your residence fee, as well as cable television and local telephone service. In the Upper Residence office you will find friendly staff including an after hours security guard, a laundry room, a common area with a television, and mailboxes. If you enjoy the outdoors, 12 kilometers of trails are located behind the residence.

Student Quote

“This is a great opportunity for students to live in a supportive environment while transitioning to college and city life. The rent is very affordable and having the bus pass included is a great bonus.”

ALU Facts

Over 350 aboriginal students attended Canadore this past year, which is over 10% of the total student population. 2/3 of Canadore's Aboriginal students are from aboriginal and urban communities located in Ontario and 1/3 from aboriginal and urban communities in Quebec.

Support Services

Canadore College's Aboriginal Learning Unit is located within the Education Centre in room D344. There is also an office at our Commerce Court campus in room W13. The ALU offers culturally supportive student services including counselling, advocacy, elders' programs, career planning, tutoring, referrals, testing and social events.
