

A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO IMPLEMENTING ABORIGINAL
EMPLOYMENT PARTNERSHIPS

ABORIGINAL WORKFORCE PARTICIPATION INITIATIVE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

Why the Guide was developed
An Innovative Resource
Who should use the Guide
How to use the Guide

SECTION I: THE FRAMEWORK FOR PARTNERSHIP

1. AWPI Partnership Strategy

- 1.1 AWPI Mandate
- 1.2 The Need for an Employment Partnership Approach
 - 1.21 Opportunities
 - 1.22 Challenges
- 1.3 AWPI's Employment Partnership Strategy
- 1.4 Benefits of a Partnership Strategy

2. The Partnership Process

- 2.1 Overview of the Partnership Process
- 2.2 Stages in the Partnership Process
- 2.3 Types of Employment Partnerships

3. Getting Started

- 3.1 Finding Partners
- 3.2 Qualities of a Good Partner
- 3.3 The Partnership Agreement

4. Managing the Partnership

- 4.1 Allocating Resources
- 4.2 Establishing a Steering Committee
- 4.3 Developing a Communications Strategy

SECTION II: IMPLEMENTING A PARTNERSHIP

1. Assessment, Planning and Goal Setting

- 1.1 Workplace Review
- 1.2 Occupational Survey
- 1.3 Review of Contracting Policies and Practices
- 1.4 Setting Goals

2. Taking Action on Employment

- 2.1 Creating a Supportive Workplace
- 2.2 Pre-Employment Training
- 2.3 Recruitment
- 2.4 Selection
- 2.5 Advancement
- 2.6 Retention
- 2.7 Workplace Training and Career Development

3. Taking Action on Procurement, Contracting and Purchasing

- 3.1 Aboriginal Purchasing Initiatives
- 3.2 Aboriginal Supplier Development
- 3.3 Resources and Tools

4. Working with Unions

- 4.1 Understanding the Barriers
- 4.2 Union Initiatives to Create Jobs for Aboriginal People
- 4.3 The Union Role in Partnership Agreements

5. Monitoring and Evaluation

- 5.1 Determine Data Needs
- 5.2 Information Gathering
- 5.3 Annual Review
- 5.4 Periodic Evaluation

SECTION III: RESOURCES

- 1. AWPI Specialists and Coordinators
- 2. Provincial Partnership Programs
- 3. Toolkits, Guides and Workbooks