The OSB's e-filing system

E-filing, a service from the Office of the Superintendent of Bankruptcy, offers trustees and proposal administrators a quick, easy and secure alternative to paper filing.

- Quick. Each transaction can take as little as 15 to 20 seconds once you get to know the system.
- Easy. The Web screens are intuitive and easy to follow.
- Secure. The system uses industry-standard 128-bit secure-socket layer, or SSL, technology—the dominant security protocol for Internet monetary transactions and communications.

E-filing brings many other benefits:

- You'll know immediately if a submission doesn't meet the requirements (business rules) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (BIA).
- For both Summary Administrations and Division II Proposals, you'll receive certificates of appointment or certificates of filing 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. These certificates are generally issued automatically.
- Reference numbers will help you track every electronic submission.
- You'll receive responses to submissions more quickly.

How to use this manual

This guide follows the steps you'll take as you use the e-filing system. Start with the "Getting Started" section to find out how to register to use the e-filing system, log in, and set up a list of people authorized to use the system on your behalf. Then move to the section specific to the type of filing you want to do.

You may want to follow each step in the manual until you're comfortable with e-filing. Once you've mastered the basics, use the quick reference guide to refresh your memory and the table of contents to find answers to specific questions. You may also want to refer to the glossary of technical terms used throughout this manual.

The next section tells you how to get started with e-filing.

What you'll need

In addition to an email account and access to the Internet (as a minimum, Internet Explorer 5 or Netscape Communicator 4.7), to use the e-filing system you'll need:

- off-the-shelf or proprietary insolvency software with an e-filing module;
- Windows 98 (or a more recent version);
- the latest version of Adobe Acrobat Reader® (free from the Adobe Web site at www.adobe.com) to view and print certificates of appointment and certificates of filing;
- a Strategis username and password; and
- for trustees/proposal administrators only, a valid licence and OSB confirmation that you are registered to use the e-filing system.

Trustees/proposal administrators also need to register staff members who will use the e-filing system (see "Creating and managing your user list," page 1.7).

Registering for a Strategis username and password

To register for a Strategis username and password (or to change your password):

1.

Launch an Internet browser (e.g., Netscape, Internet Explorer) and go to the Strategis Web site at www.strategis.gc.ca.

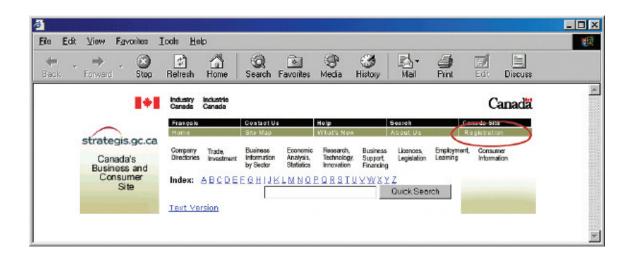

Click "English" to enter the site.

Click the "Registration" button on the menu bar at the top of the screen and follow the directions provided.

You'll use your Strategis username and password to log in to the e-filing system.

Registering to use the e-filing system

(trustees/proposal administrators only)

Registering is easy—simply print out the user agreement on the OSB Web site at www.osb-bsf.gc.ca (click "Trustees in Bankruptcy" and then "E-Filing"), fill it out, and mail or fax it to your Division Assistant Superintendent (DAS). You'll need to provide such information as your Strategis username, your email address and your licence number. The OSB will contact you to confirm that you can access the e-filing system.

The user agreement may change as the e-filing system evolves. Once you are a registered user, each new agreement will appear when you log in to the system; you can either click "Accept" on the screen or print out the document and mail or fax it to your DAS.

The next section tells you how to log in to the e-filing system.

TIP

A company with a corporate licence can't use that licence number to register to use the e-filing system. Each trustee/proposal administrator working for the company must register using his or her individual licence number.

Logging in to the e-filing system

You've got the right software and a Strategis username and password, and you have been authorized by the OSB to use the e-filing system (if you haven't, see "What you'll need" on page 1.1).

Now you're ready to log in to the system. Simply follow these steps:

Launch an Internet browser (e.g., Netscape, Internet Explorer) and go to http://osb-bsf.ic.gc.ca/e-filing.

7,

Click "English" to enter the site.

For easy access to the e-filing system, use your browser functions to add its Web address to your bookmarks or favourites.

Notice the menu bar at the top of the screen. You'll use this bar to navigate through the e-filing system.

The first thing you may want to do after logging in is to create a list of staff members who can e-file on your behalf. The next section takes you through this process.

If you're ready to start e-filing, check the table of contents of this manual to find the appropriate section for the type of filing you'd like to do.

TROUBLESHOOTING

Crashes

If the system crashes in the middle of an e-filing (i.e., before you get a reference number) you'll have to start again from the beginning.

Going back

Don't use the "Back" button of your Internet browser to go back to a previous screen—you could unknowingly create a corrupted transaction. If you need to change something on a previous screen, it's safer to start again from the beginning by clicking "New Filing" (if you're trying to submit a new filing) or "Update" (if you're updating an estate) on the menu bar.

Creating and managing your user list

(trustees/proposal administrators only)

Your "user list" is a list of people ("users") you have authorized to use the e-filing system on your behalf. To create a user list, or make changes to your user list, follow these steps:

Make sure you are logged in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3).

Click "Preferences" on the menu bar at the top of the screen.

3. You'll see your name and email address near the top of the page.

There is also space to enter a second email address. You may want this second email address to be that of one of your employees, for example, so that both you and the employee have copies of all messages generated by the e-filing system. TIP

Keep all email addresses up to date so the system knows where to send important documents or messages.

You can change either address by typing a different address in the text field and clicking "Update."

You can also subscribe and unsubscribe to OSB email broadcasts. These will include notices of both planned outages and, when possible, of unscheduled shutdowns of the e-filing system. The system can accommodate one email address. While it may be your email address, it could also be a designated employee's email address.

To remove a user, click the box to the right of the user's name and Strategis username (a checkmark will appear). Click this box for all of the users you would like to remove. To finish, click the "Remove Checked Users" button.

To add an existing user of the e-filing system (i.e., someone who is already e-filing on behalf of another trustee/proposal administrator) to your list, type the user's Strategis username in the text field, click the box to the left of the licence(s) to which the user should have access, and then click "Associate Existing User."

Submitting a new filing

This section describes how to submit a new summary administration—both single bankruptcies and joint filings.

The basics

- 1. Log in to the e-filing system and click "New Filing" on the menu bar.
- 2. Click "Name Search" (if you haven't done one already).
- 3. For trustee staff, select the responsible trustee.
- 4. Click "Browse" to select the file you want to e-file.
- 5. Answer a few questions about the filing.
- 6. Verify which OSB Division Office will receive the filing. Verify in which court the trustee would open an estate file.
- 7. Click "Submit this new filing."
- 8. If your filing is accepted, record the reference number and print and/or save the certificate of appointment.

If your filing needs to be manually reviewed, record the reference number and the temporary ID number.

To reach the help desk, click "Help" on the menu bar or call 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday. 1 Log in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3) and click the "New Filing" button on the menu bar at the top of the screen.

A new screen will open. Near the top of this screen you'll see a reminder of new filings the system will not accept.

Prevention of the system will accept summary administrations for: individuals joint estates deceased debtors (court order obtained) repeat debtors debtors residing outside of Canada The e-filing system will not accept summary administrations: for partnerships In addition, in rare cases the system is not able to process summary administrations for estates with previous proceedings and will ask you to file those administrations in paper.

TIP

When you are filing a change of administration type (bankruptcy to proposal, for example), you should use the "New filing" button to file the initial document package.

2. Click "Name Search" (if you haven't done one already).

This will bring you to the OSB Web site, where you can search a database containing information about bankruptcies, proposals and petitions registered in Canada since 1978. You need to search this database to find out whether the debtor you are filing on behalf of has previously been bankrupt, filed a proposal or is subject to a petition. If the debtor has, include this information in the Statement of Affairs and in the Estate Information Summary.

Clicking "Name Search" will open a new window on your screen. To return to the e-filing system, simply close this window.

JOINT FILING

Be sure to do a name search for all debtors involved in a joint filing.

TIP

You can also get to the name search function by going to www.strategis.gc.ca, clicking "English" to enter the site and clicking "Bankruptcy Search" or by going to the OSB Web site at www.osb-bsf.gc.ca, clicking "English" to enter the site and clicking "Insolvency Name Search."

3. For trustee staff, select the responsible trustee from the drop-down list.

Only trustee staff who e-file on behalf of more than one trustee, or on behalf of a trustee with multiple licences, need to do this.

Simply click the arrow to the right of the drop-down list to see a list of the trustees you can e-file on behalf of, and click on the appropriate trustee.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the appropriate trustee isn't on the list ...

... it's likely that the trustee hasn't added you to his or her user list. The trustee will need to do this by following the directions on page 1.7 ("Creating and managing your user list").

Click "Browse" to select the file you want to e-file.

Once you've chosen the file, click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

5. Answer a few questions about the filing.

You'll see the name of the debtor and a few questions, which you can answer by clicking the "Yes" and "No" buttons and, if required, entering information in the text field.

For joint filings, the e-filing system automatically asks these questions for each debtor. Simply click on the hyperlink at the bottom of each screen to move to the next debtor.

6. Verify which OSB Division Office will receive the filing. Verify in which court the trustee would open an estate file.

The system automatically chooses a Division Office and court based on the debtor's postal code. If both are correct, move on to step 7.

If the system displays an incorrect Division Office or court, select the appropriate one(s) from the drop-down list(s).

TIP

The Division Office and court must be in the locality of the debtor. If you're in doubt about which Division Office or court to select, contact your local OSB office.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the appropriate Division Office or court isn't on the list, and you're not a trustee you may have selected the wrong responsible trustee on the first screen. You'll have to redo the process from the beginning by clicking "New Filing" on the menu bar. Don't use the "Back" button of your Internet browser—you could unknowingly create a corrupted transaction.

Click "Submit this new filing" to send the file to the OSB.

Don't forget to include an alert (see box) if necessary before you submit the file.

ALERT

Add an alert in exceptional circumstances. You may want to alert the OSB about a debtor's history of violence, for example, or that a debtor's address should not be added to the name search database for security reasons.

If your insolvency software allows it, you may be able to upload an alert as an XML document, instead of using the link "Click here."

8. If your filing is accepted, record the reference number and print and/or save the certificate of appointment.

If your filing needs to be manually reviewed, record the reference number and the temporary ID number.

Unless there are errors in the filing (see "Troubleshooting," page 2.10), you will see one of two screens.

If your filing is accepted, you'll see the screen below. Simply record the reference number and click on the hyperlink to view the certificate of appointment (if the language of the estate differs from the language of the trustee, the certificate will be provided in both languages). The certificate of appointment will appear on a new screen in PDF format. Print the certificate and/or save an electronic copy to your computer (to print later).

REMINDER
Don't forget to save and/or print the certificate of appointment—the system won't save it for you.

Last Updated: 2005-05-17 A Important Notices

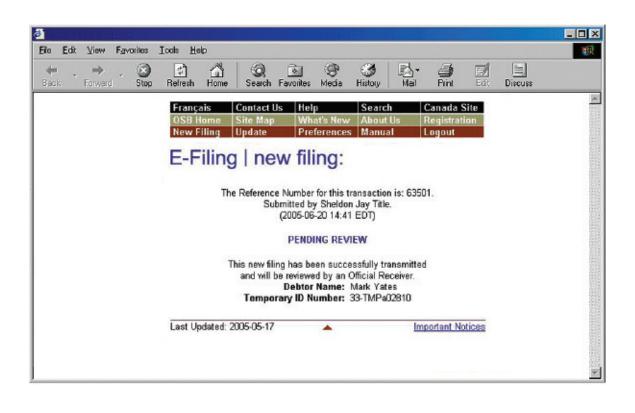

If your filing needs to be manually reviewed by an Official Receiver to determine whether it can be accepted, you'll see the screen below. Be sure to record the reference number for the transaction, as well as the temporary ID number(s). You can use the temporary ID number(s) to update the estate(s) while you're waiting to find out whether the filing has been accepted.

The most common reasons why a filing may need to be manually reviewed are:

- you selected a new Division Office;
- the debtor resides outside of Canada; or
- there is a previous proceeding that makes it necessary for the Official Receiver to manually check some information (e.g., the date of the initial bankruptcy event).

The OSB may also decide to manually review the filings of certain trustees (e.g., where it has been determined that a trustee has not been obtaining approval from the OSB to conduct assessments by telephone).

Within two business days, you'll receive an email from the OSB telling you whether the filing has been accepted or rejected. If the filing is accepted, the certificate of appointment will be attached to the email. If the filing is rejected, you can find out why by contacting your Division Office.

Keep your email addresses up to date so that the system knows where to send certificates of appointment and other important documents. For help updating email addresses, see page 1.8.

REMINDER

Don't forget to log out once you've finished using the e-filing system. Just close your browser or click "Logout" on the menu bar and follow the instructions.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If there is a problem with the filing...

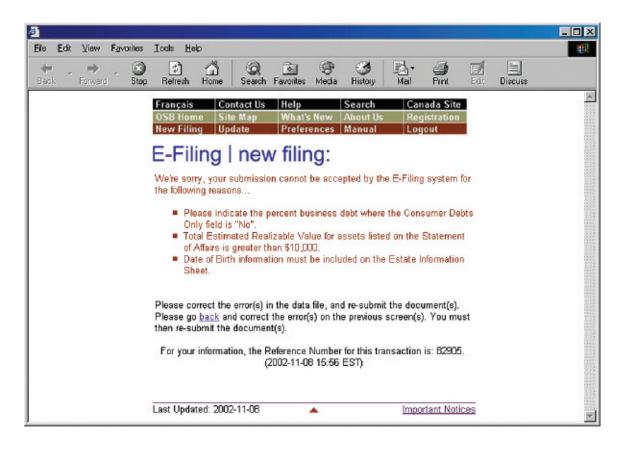

...the e-filing system will let you know. The problem may be with the file(s) you submitted and/or with the information you provided on the previous screens. In either case, you'll have to start over from the beginning. You may see a "back" hyperlink that you can click to return to the first screen, or you can simply click "New Filing" from the menu bar.

If the problem is more technical, the e-filing system will suggest that you contact your software vendor. The error message will be very clear about what the problems are and what to do about them.

For additional help, contact the help desk by clicking "Help" on the menu bar or calling 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

Clicking "Help" on the menu bar will also give you access to the e-filing tips page on the OSB Web site.

Clicking "Manual" on the menu bar will give you access to the online version of this manual.

In the next section, you'll learn how to update estates that are already in the OSB's e-filing system.

Updating an estate

This section describes how to e-file new or updated documents related to an estate already in the e-filing system. To e-file to an estate currently in paper format, you first need to change the estate from paper to electronic format (see page 2.21).

The basics

- 1. Log in to the e-filing system and click "Update" on the menu bar.
- 2. Enter the estate number.
- 3. Verify that the estate name and number are correct.
- 4. Indicate whether you want to e-file a prescribed form or a softcopy document.
- 5. Upload the form or document.
- 6. Record the reference number.
- Log in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3) and click the "Update" button on the menu bar at the top of the screen.

To reach the help desk, click "Help" on the menu bar or call 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

Prescribed Forms

There are a few points to keep in mind when submitting certain prescribed forms.

Statement of Receipts and Disbursements (form 13)

If there are dividends, you need to submit a dividend sheet with the SRD. You can do this in one of two ways: (1) if your software allows, you can submit the dividend sheet and the SRD together in one XML file; or (2) you can submit the SRD by itself and then upload the dividend sheet as a separate file.

In both cases, you will be asked to indicate whether inspectors were appointed and whether they approved the SRD.

170 Report (form 82)

You'll see a list of possible causes of bankruptcy, each with a box beside it. Click in the box(es) beside the cause(s) that apply in this case (a checkmark will appear). If a cause isn't listed, you can type it in the text field.

Notice of Bankruptcy and First Meeting of Creditors (form 67) Notice of Impending Automatic Discharge of First-time Bankrupt (form 68) Notice of Bankruptcy and of Impending Automatic Discharge of First-time Bankrupt, and Request of a First Meeting of Creditors (form 69) Notice of Bankruptcy and Request of a First Meeting of Creditors (form 70) Certificate of Discharge (form 84) Certificate of Discharge (Conditions Met) (form 85) These forms must be submitted as softcopy documents in a joint filing if one of the debtors has been bankrupt on a previous occasion.

To upload a softcopy document, select a document title from the first drop-down list. If the title is not on the list, select "Other," type the document title (as descriptive as possible) in the text field and select a document category (i.e., initial filing, estate administration, bankrupt discharge or trustee discharge) from the second drop-down list.

Then click "Browse" to select the file you want to e-file. Add an alert (see box) if necessary and click "Continue." You'll see a screen with the estate name and number and the form(s) or document(s) to be submitted. You will also see a note stating that by submitting the file, you are confirming that you have collected all necessary signatures. If everything is correct, complete the submission by clicking the "Submit" button.

JOINT FILING

In a joint filing, the system will also automatically add the document to the electronic files of the other estates, as shown by a checkmark in the box to the left of the estate number. If you do not want to add the document to these estates, you must remove the checkmark(s) by clicking in the box(es).

ALERT

Add an alert in exceptional circumstances. You may want to alert the OSB about a debtor's history of violence, for example, or that a debtor's address should be removed from the name search database for security reasons.

If your insolvency software allows it, you may be able to upload an alert as an XML document, instead of using the link "Click here."

6. Record the reference number.

You'll see a new screen with a reference number for your records, as well as the number and name of the estate(s) that were updated. There is also a hyperlink to follow if you would like to submit additional forms or documents to these estate(s).

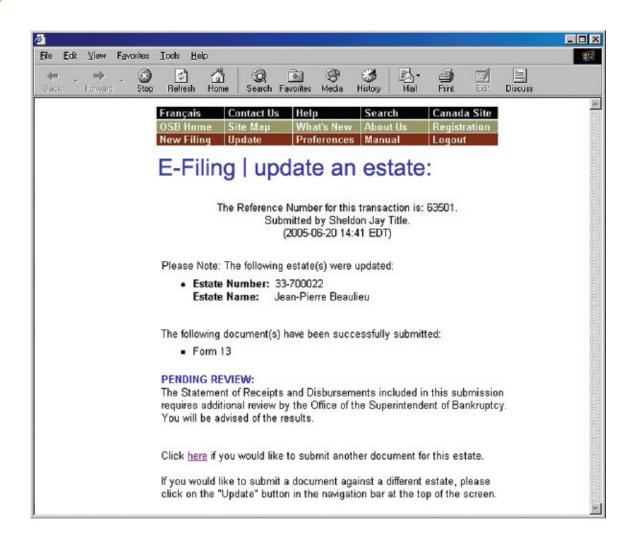

TIP

Keep your email addresses up to date so that the system knows where to send automatic letters of comment and other important documents. For help updating email addresses, see page 1.8.

Letter of Comment

If you've submitted an SRD, the system will tell you whether it is eligible for an automatic letter of comment (see screen below). If it is, the letter will follow by email. If the SRD is not eligible, it will be reviewed by the OSB and you will be notified of the results (see screen on page 2.18).

REMINDER

Don't forget to log out once you've finished using the e-filing system. Click "Logout" on the menu bar and follow the instructions or just close your browser.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the document or form isn't accepted ...

... the e-filing system will list the reasons why. There may be errors in the file you tried to submit, for example, in which case you'll need to correct the errors and redo the updating process from the beginning. If the problem is more technical, the e-filing system will suggest that you contact your software vendor. The error message will be very clear about what the problems are and what to do about them.

If you submit a document or form to the wrong estate ...

... immediately phone the OSB Division Office that holds the electronic estate file and report the error. Because documents and forms can't be moved from one estate file to another, you'll have to resubmit the document or form to the correct estate. The OSB will remove the incorrectly filed form or document from its database.

For additional help, contact the help desk by clicking "Help" on the menu bar or calling 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

Clicking "Help" on the menu bar will also give you access to the e-filing tips page on the OSB Web site.

Clicking "Manual" on the menu bar will give you access to the online version of this manual.

Switching from paper to e-filing

This section describes how to switch an estate file from paper to e-filing. You need to follow this process only once for the estate to be recognized by the e-filing system. To update an estate already in the system, go to page 2.11.

Log in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3) and click "Update" on the menu bar at the top of the screen.

Enter the estate number (as it appears on the certificate of appointment) in the text field.

Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

Once an estate has been switched from paper to electronic format, all filings to the estate must be done through the e-filing system.

3. Verify that the estate name and number are correct.

The system will realize that the number isn't in the e-filing system and assume that you're changing a paper-based estate file to electronic format.

If the estate name and number are correct, click "Continue" to move to the next screen.

If the estate name and number are incorrect, simply click "Go Back" to return to the previous screen and enter the correct estate number.

4. Upload a prescribed form.

The first electronic submission to a previously paperbased estate file must be a prescribed form. Prescribed forms contain information required to register the estate in the e-filing system. TIP

Don't e-file anything that you've already filed in paper format.

Click "Browse" to select the XML file. Add an alert (see box) if necessary and click "Submit File."

When you are filing a change of administration type (bankruptcy to proposal, for example), you should use the "New filing" button to file the initial document package.

Click "Name Search" (if you haven't done one already).

This will bring you to the OSB Web site, where you can search a database containing information about bankruptcies, proposals and petitions registered in Canada since 1978. You need to search this database to find out whether the debtor you are filing on behalf of has previously been bankrupt, filed a proposal or is subject to a petition. If the debtor has, include this information in the Statement of Affairs and in the Estate Information Summary.

JOINT FILING

Clicking "Name Search" will open a new window on your screen. To return to the e-filing system, simply close this window. Be sure to do a name search for all debtors involved in a joint filing.

TIP

You can also get to the name search function by going to www.strategis.gc.ca, clicking "English" to enter the site and clicking "Bankruptcy Search" or by going to the OSB Web site at www.osb-bsf.gc.ca, clicking "English" to enter the site and clicking "Insolvency Name Search."

$\mathbf{3}_{\mathbf{k}}$ If necessary, select the responsible proposal administrator from the drop-down list.

Only staff who e-file on behalf of more than one administrator, or on behalf of an administrator with multiple licences, need to do this.

Simply click the arrow to the right of the drop-down list to see a list of the administrators you can e-file on behalf of, and click on the appropriate name.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the appropriate proposal administrator isn't on the list...

... it's likely that the administrator hasn't added you to his or her user list. The administrator will need to do this by following the directions on page 1.7 ("Creating and managing your user list").

4. Click "Browse" to select the file you want to e-file.

Once you've chosen the file, click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

5. Submit any additional documents the system asks for.

If you can't submit all of the initial filing documents in XML format, the e-filing system will ask you to upload the missing documents. The e-filing system will tell you which documents must be uploaded immediately in softcopy format and which documents may be either uploaded in softcopy format or mailed or faxed to the Division Office at a later date.

If the debtor has a previous proceeding, you may also need to submit additional documents (see box on page 3.6).

Previous Proceedings

If the debtor has a previous proceeding, the e-filing system will ask you some additional questions, and you may need to upload some additional documents:

- you will need to confirm that the estate number, estate name and debtor's date of birth for the previous proceeding(s) are correct
- if any debtor in the filing has a previous proposal that was annulled or deemed annulled, and all debts have not been paid off, you'll need to submit a court order (electronically or by mail or fax)
- if any debtor in the filing is an undischarged bankrupt, and inspectors were appointed during the bankruptcy and approved of the filing of the proposal, you'll need to submit the Inspectors' Resolution if you have it (this can be done electronically or by mail or fax)

6. Answer some questions about the filing.

You'll see the name of the debtor and a few questions which you can answer by clicking the "Yes" and "No" buttons and, if required, entering information in the text field. JOINT FILING

For joint filings, the e-filing system automatically asks these questions for each debtor. Simply click on the button at the bottom of each screen to move to the next debtor.

7. Verify which OSB Division Office will receive the filing. Verify in which court the proposal administrator would open an estate file.

The system automatically chooses a Division Office and court based on the debtor's postal code. If both are correct, move on to step 8.

If the system displays an incorrect Division Office or court, select the appropriate one(s) from the drop-down list(s).

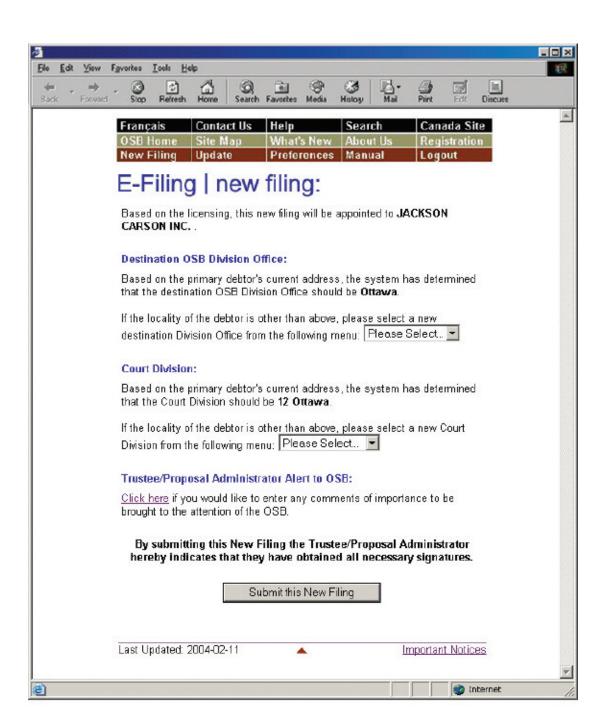

TIP

The Division Office and court must be in the locality of the debtor. If you're in doubt about which Division Office or court to select, contact your local OSB office.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the appropriate Division Office or court isn't on the list, and you're not a proposal administrator ...

... you may have selected the wrong responsible administrator, or the wrong licence number, on the first screen. You'll have to redo the process from the beginning by clicking "New Filing" on the menu bar. Don't use the "Back" button of your Internet browser—you could unknowingly create a corrupted transaction.

8. Click "Submit this new filing" to send the file to the OSB.

Don't forget to include an alert (see box) if necessary before you submit the file.

ALERT

Add an alert in exceptional circumstances. You may want to alert the OSB about a debtor's history of violence, for example, or that a debtor's address should not be added to the name search database for security reasons.

If your insolvency software allows it, you may be able to upload an alert as an XML document, instead of using the link "Click here."

9. If your filing is accepted, record the reference number and print and/or save the certificate of filing.

If your filing needs to be manually reviewed, record the reference number and the temporary ID number.

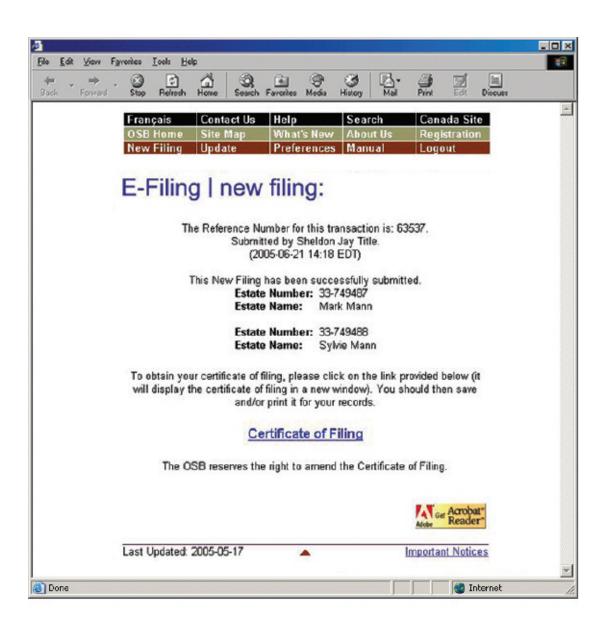

Unless there are errors in the filing (see "Troubleshooting" on page 3.13), you will see one of two screens.

If your filing is accepted, you'll see the screen on the following page. Simply record the reference number and click on the hyperlink to view the certificate of filing (if the language of the estate differs from the language of the proposal administrator, the certificate will be provided in both languages). The certificate of filing will appear on a new screen in PDF format. Print the certificate and/or save an electronic copy to your computer (to print later).

REMINDER

Don't forget to save and/or print the certificate of filing—the system won't save it for you.

If your filing needs to be manually reviewed by an Official Receiver to determine whether it can be accepted, you'll see the screen on the following page. Be sure to record the reference number for the transaction, as well as the temporary ID number(s). You can use the temporary ID number(s) to update the estate(s) while you're waiting to find out whether the filing has been accepted.

The most common reasons why a filing may need to be manually reviewed are:

- you selected a new Division Office
- the debtor resides outside of Canada
- a joint filing has three or more debtors
- there is a previous proceeding that makes it necessary for the Official Receiver to manually check some information.

The OSB may also decide to manually review the filings of certain proposal administrators (e.g., where it has been determined that an administrator has not been obtaining approval from the OSB to conduct assessments by telephone).

Within two business days, you'll receive an email from the OSB telling you whether the filing has been accepted or rejected. If the filing is accepted, the certificate of filing will be attached to the email. If the filing is rejected, you can find out why by contacting your Division Office.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If there is a problem with the filing...

... the e-filing system will let you know. The problem may be with the file(s) you submitted and/or with the information you provided on the previous screens. In either case, you'll have to start over from the beginning. You may see a "back" hyperlink that you can click to return to the first screen, or you can simply click "New Filing" from the menu bar.

If the problem is more technical, the e-filing system will suggest that you contact your software vendor. The error message will be very clear about what the problems are and what to do about them.

For additional help, contact the help desk by clicking "Help" on the menu bar or calling 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

Clicking "Help" on the menu bar will also give you access to the e-filing tips page on the OSB Web site.

Clicking "Manual" on the menu bar will give you access to the online version of this manual.

In the next section, you'll learn how to update estates that are already in the OSB's e-filing system.

Updating an estate

This section describes how to e-file new or updated documents related to an estate already in the e-filing system. To e-file to an estate currently in paper format, you first need to change the estate from paper to electronic format (see page 3.25).

The basics

- 1. Log in to the e-filing system and click "Update" on the menu bar.
- 2. Enter the estate number.
- 3. Verify that the estate name and number are correct.
- 4. Indicate whether you want to e-file a prescribed form or a softcopy document.
- 5. Upload the form or document.
- 6. Submit any additional documents the system asks for.
- 7. Record the reference number.
- Log in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3) and click the "Update" button on the menu bar at the top of the screen.

To reach the help desk, click "Help" on the menu bar or call 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

If the estate name and number are incorrect, simply click "Go Back" to return to the previous screen and enter the correct estate number. Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

REMINDER

Don't use the "Back" button of your Internet browser—you could unknowingly create a corrupted transaction.

JOINT FILING

If the estate you entered is part of a joint filing, all of the other estates that are part of the filing will be listed on the screen.

TIP

For estates with more than one administration type (e.g., when a bankrupt makes a proposal), the e-filing system may ask you to specify in which administration you would like to submit the document.

4. Select the type of document you would like to e-file.

Choose "Prescribed form(s)" to e-file forms (as defined by the BIA) generated by your insolvency software. The file must be in XML format.

Choose "Softcopy document" to e-file a document that is not a prescribed form (e.g., minutes of first meeting of creditors, financial statements, court documents). This includes documents created using software such as Corel WordPerfect or Microsoft Excel, as well as documents created by scanning a paper document.

Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

If you don't have a scanner, just fax or mail a copy to the OSB Division Office that holds the electronic estate file.

ALERT

Add an alert in exceptional circumstances. You may want to alert the OSB about a debtor's history of violence, for example, or that a debtor's address should be removed from the name search database for security reasons.

If your insolvency software allows it, you may be able to upload an alert as an XML document, instead of using the link "Click here."

Prescribed Forms and Softcopy Documents

There are a few points to keep in mind when submitting certain prescribed forms and softcopy documents.

Minutes of First/Subsequent Meeting of Creditors

When you submit minutes from a meeting of creditors, the e-filing system will ask you to select the status of the proposal as a result of the meeting. You will have one of the following choices:

- the proposal was accepted and the terms of the proposal were not altered;
- the proposal was accepted and the terms of the proposal were altered; or
- the proposal was rejected.

If the proposal was accepted and the terms were altered, you will need to submit a new EIS.

Statement of Receipts and Disbursements (form 14)

If there are dividends, you need to submit a dividend sheet with the SRD. You can do this in one of two ways: (1) if your software allows, you can submit the dividend sheet and the SRD together in one XML file; or (2) you can submit the SRD by itself and then upload the dividend sheet as a separate file.

In both cases, you will be asked to indicate whether inspectors were appointed and whether they approved the SRD.

Subsequent Consumer Proposal (form 47)

When you submit a subsequent Consumer Proposal (select "Consumer Proposal - Form 47" from the dropdown list if you upload the form in softcopy format), the e-filing system will ask you to indicate whether the subsequent form 47 is:

- a correction (either the terms of the proposal have not changed or the terms have changed but the creditors have not seen the original proposal); or
- an amendment.

If the form is an amendment, you will also need to indicate whether the terms have already been accepted by the creditors.

Report of Administrator on Consumer Proposal and Conduct of Consumer Debtor (form 51)

When you submit form 51, you may also need to submit the following:

- Minutes of Meeting of Creditors
- Consumer Proposal (form 47)
- Report of Administrator on Consumer Proposal (form 48)

If you can't submit the required form(s) with form 51 in XML format, the e-filing system will ask you to submit them either electronically or by mail/fax. If you don't submit the form(s) immediately, the e-filing system will remind you that they must be submitted promptly.

To upload a softcopy document, select a document title from the first drop-down list. If the title is not on the list, select "Other," type the document title (as descriptive as possible) in the text field and select a document category (i.e., initial filing, estate administration or closing process) from the second drop-down list. Then click "Browse" to select the file you want to e-file. Add an alert (see box on page 3.19) if necessary and click "Continue."

You'll see a screen with the estate name and number and the form(s) or document(s) to be submitted. You will also see a note stating that by submitting the file, you are confirming that you have collected all necessary signatures. If everything is correct, complete the submission by clicking the "Submit" button.

JOINT FILING

In a joint filing, the system will automatically add the document to the other estates, as shown by a checkmark in the box to the left of the estate number. If you do not want to add the document to these estates, you must remove the checkmark(s) by clicking in the box(es).

6. Submit any additional documents the system asks for.

The e-filing system may ask you to upload additional documents. The e-filing system will tell you which documents must be uploaded immediately in softcopy format and which documents may be either uploaded in softcopy format or mailed or faxed to the Division Office at a later date.

Record the reference number.

You'll see a new screen with a reference number for your records, as well as the name and number of the estate(s) that were updated. This screen will also list any forms or documents that were not submitted with this filing but must be submitted within the required time periods.

There is also a hyperlink to follow if you would like to submit additional forms or documents to the estate(s).

Letter of Comment

If you've submitted an SRD, the system will tell you whether it is eligible for an automatic letter of comment (see screen below). If it is, the letter will follow by email. If the SRD is not eligible, it will be reviewed by the OSB and you will be notified of the results (see screen on page 3.23).

REMINDER

Don't forget to log out once you've finished using the e-filing system. Just close your browser or click "Logout" on the menu bar and follow the instructions.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the document or form isn't accepted...

... the e-filing system will list the reasons why. There may be errors in the file you tried to submit, for example, in which case you'll need to correct the errors and redo the updating process from the beginning. If the problem is more technical, the e-filing system will suggest that you contact your software vendor. The error message will be very clear about what the problems are and what to do about them.

If you submit a document or form to the wrong estate...

... immediately phone the OSB Division Office that holds the electronic estate file and report the error. Because documents and forms can't be moved from one estate file to another, you'll have to resubmit the document or form to the correct estate. The OSB will remove the incorrectly filed form or document from its database.

For additional help, contact the help desk by clicking "Help" on the menu bar or calling 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

Clicking "Help" on the menu bar will also give you access to the e-filing tips page on the OSB Web site.

Clicking "Manual" on the menu bar will give you access to the online version of this manual.

Switching from paper to e-filing

This section describes how to switch an estate file from paper to e-filing. You need to follow this process only once for the estate to be recognized by the e-filing system. To update an estate already in the system, go to page 3.15.

1.

Log in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3) and click "Update" on the menu bar at the top of the screen. TIP

Once an estate has been switched from paper to electronic format, all filing to the estate must be done through the e-filing system.

Enter the estate number (as it appears on the certificate of filing) in the text field.

Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

2. Click "Name Search" (if you haven't done one already).

This will bring you to the OSB Web site, where you can search a database containing information about bankruptcies, proposals and petitions registered in Canada since 1978. You need to search this database to find out whether the debtor you are filing on behalf of has previously been bankrupt, filed a proposal or is subject to a petition. If the debtor has, include this information in the Statement of Affairs and in the Estate Information Summary.

Clicking "Name Search" will open a new window on your screen. To return to the e-filing system, simply close this window.

TIP

You can also get to the name search function by going to www.strategis.gc.ca, clicking "English" to enter the site and clicking "Bankruptcy Search" or by going to the OSB Web site at www.osb-bsf.gc.ca, clicking "English" to enter the site and clicking "Insolvency Name Search."

If necessary, select the responsible trustee from the drop-down list.

Only staff who e-file on behalf of more than one trustee, or on behalf of a trustee with multiple licences, need to do this.

Simply click the arrow to the right of the drop-down list to see a list of the trustees you can e-file on behalf of, and click on the appropriate name.

TROUBLESHOOTING

Don't use the "Back" button of your Internet browser—you could unknowingly create a corrupted transaction.

8. Click "Submit this new filing" to send the file to the OSB.

Don't forget to include an alert (see box) if necessary before you submit the file.

ALERT

Add an alert in exceptional circumstances. You may want to alert the OSB about a debtor's history of violence, for example, or that a debtor's address should not be added to the name search database for security reasons.

If your insolvency software allows it, you may be able to upload an alert as an XML document, instead of using the link "Click here."

9. Record the reference number and the temporary ID number.

Unless there are errors in the filing (see "Troubleshooting" on page 4.11), you will see the following screen.

Your filing will be manually reviewed by an Official Receiver to determine whether it can be accepted. Be sure to record the reference number for the transaction, as well as the temporary ID number. You can use the temporary ID number to update the estate while you're waiting to find out whether the filing has been accepted.

Within two business days, you'll receive an email from the OSB telling you whether the filing has been accepted or rejected. If the filing is accepted, the certificate of appointment will be attached to the email. If the filing is rejected, you can find out why by contacting your Division Office.

TIP

Keep your email addresses up to date so that the system knows where to send certificates of appointment and other important documents. For help updating email addresses, see page 1.8.

REMINDER

Don't forget to log out once you've finished using the e-filing system. Just close your browser or click "Logout" on the menu bar and follow the instructions.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If there is a problem with the filing...

... the e-filing system will let you know. The problem may be with the file you submitted and/or with the information you provided on the previous screens. In either case, you'll have to start over from the beginning. You may see a "back" hyperlink that you can click to return to the first screen, or you can simply click "New Filing" from the menu bar.

If the problem is more technical, the e-filing system will suggest that you contact your software vendor. The error message will be very clear about what the problems are and what to do about them.

For additional help, contact the help desk by clicking "Help" on the menu bar or calling 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

Clicking "Help" on the menu bar will also give you access to the e-filing tips page on the OSB Web site.

Clicking "Manual" on the menu bar will give you access to the online version of this manual.

In the next section, you'll learn how to update estates that are already in the OSB's e-filing system.

Updating an estate

This section describes how to e-file new or updated documents related to an estate already in the e-filing system. To e-file to an estate currently in paper format, you first need to change the estate from paper to electronic format (see page 4.21).

The basics

- 1. Log in to the e-filing system and click "Update" on the menu bar.
- 2. Enter the estate number.
- 3. Verify that the estate name and number are correct.
- 4. Indicate whether you want to e-file a prescribed form or a softcopy document.
- 5. Upload the form or document.
- 6. Record the reference number.
- Log in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3) and click the "Update" button on the menu bar at the top of the screen.

To reach the help desk, click "Help" on the menu bar or call 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

TIP

For estates with more than one administration type (e.g., when a bankrupt makes a proposal), the e-filing system may ask you to specify in which administration you would like to submit the document.

4. Select the type of document you would like to e-file.

Choose "Prescribed form(s)" to e-file forms (as defined by the BIA) generated by your insolvency software. The file must be in XML format.

Choose "Softcopy document" to e-file a document that is not a prescribed form (e.g., minutes of first meeting of creditors, financial statements, court documents). This includes documents created using software such as Corel WordPerfect or Microsoft Excel, as well as documents created by scanning a paper document.

Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

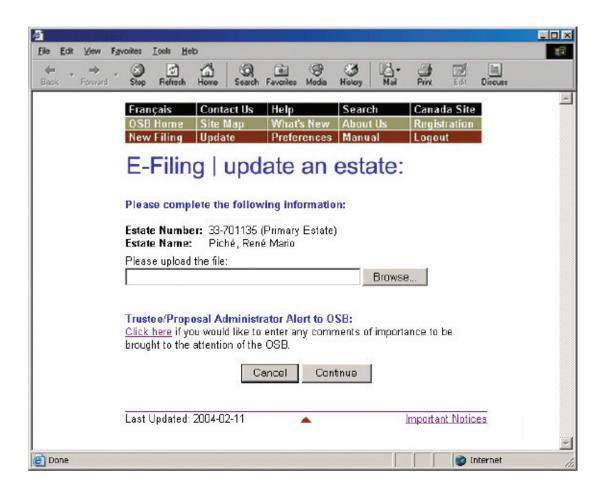

If you don't have a scanner, just fax or mail a copy to the OSB Division Office that holds the electronic estate file.

Statement of Receipts and Disbursements (form 12)

If there are dividends, you need to submit a dividend sheet with the SRD. You can do this in one of two ways: (1) if your software allows, you can submit the dividend sheet and the SRD together in one XML file; or (2) you can submit the SRD by itself and then upload the dividend sheet as a separate file.

In both cases, you will be asked to indicate whether inspectors were appointed and whether they approved the SRD.

ALERT

Add an alert in exceptional circumstances. You may want to alert the OSB about a debtor's history of violence, for example, or that a debtor's address should be removed from the name search database for security reasons.

If your insolvency software allows it, you may be able to upload an alert as an XML document, instead of using the link "Click here."

To upload a softcopy document, select a document title from the first drop-down list. If the title is not on the list, select "Other," type the document title (as descriptive as possible) in the text field and select a document category (i.e., initial filing, estate administration, bankrupt discharge or trustee discharge) from the second drop-down list. Then click "Browse" to select the file you want to e-file. Add an alert (see box on page 4.18) if necessary and click "Continue."

You'll see a screen with the estate name and number and the form(s) or document(s) to be submitted. You will also see a note stating that by submitting the file, you are confirming that you have collected all necessary signatures. There is also a hyperlink to follow if you would like to submit additional forms or documents to the estate.

REMINDER

Don't forget to log out once you've finished using the e-filing system. Just close your browser or click "Logout" on the menu bar and follow the instructions.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the document or form isn't accepted...

... the e-filing system will list the reasons why. There may be errors in the file you tried to submit, for example, in which case you'll need to correct the errors and redo the updating process from the beginning. If the problem is more technical, the e-filing system will suggest that you contact your software vendor. The error message will be very clear about what the problems are and what to do about them.

If you submit a document or form to the wrong estate...

... immediately phone the OSB Division Office that holds the electronic estate file and report the error. Because documents and forms can't be moved from one estate file to another, you'll have to resubmit the document or form to the correct estate. The OSB will remove the incorrectly filed form or document from its database.

For additional help, contact the help desk by clicking "Help" on the menu bar or calling 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

Clicking "Help" on the menu bar will also give you access to the e-filing tips page on the OSB Web site.

Clicking "Manual" on the menu bar will give you access to the online version of this manual.

Switching from paper to e-filing

This section describes how to switch an estate file from paper to e-filing. You need to follow this process only once for the estate to be recognized by the e-filing system. To update an estate already in the system, go to page 4.13.

1.

Log in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3) and click "Update" on the menu bar at the top of the screen. TIP

Once an estate has been switched from paper to electronic format, all filing to the estate must be done through the e-filing system.

Enter the estate number (as it appears on the certificate of appointment) in the text field.

Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

2. Click "Name Search" (if you haven't done one already).

This will bring you to the OSB Web site, where you can search a database containing information about bankruptcies, proposals and petitions registered in Canada since 1978. You need to search this database to find out whether the debtor you are filing on behalf of has previously been bankrupt, filed a proposal or is subject to a petition. If the debtor has, include this information in the Statement of Affairs and in the Estate Information Summary.

Clicking "Name Search" will open a new window on your screen. To return to the e-filing system, simply close this window.

You can also get to the name search function by going to www.strategis.gc.ca, clicking "English" to enter the site and clicking "Bankruptcy Search" or by going to the OSB Web site at www.osb-bsf.gc.ca, clicking "English" to enter the site and clicking "Insolvency Name Search."

5. If necessary, select the trustee from the drop-down list.

Only staff who e-file on behalf of more than one trustee, or on behalf of a trustee with multiple licences, need to do this.

Simply click the arrow to the right of the drop-down list to see a list of the trustees you can e-file on behalf of, and click on the appropriate name.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the appropriate trustee isn't on the list...

... it's likely that the trustee hasn't added you to his or her user list. The trustee will need to do this by following the directions on page 1.7 ("Creating and managing your user list").

4. Click "Browse" to select the file you want to e-file.

Once you've chosen the file, click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

5. Submit any additional documents the system asks for.

If you can't submit all of the initial filing documents in XML format, the e-filing system will ask you to upload the missing documents. # 7. Verify which OSB Division Office will receive the filing. Verify in which court the trustee would open an estate file.

The system automatically chooses a Division Office and court based on the debtor's postal code. If both are correct, move on to step 8.

If the system displays an incorrect Division Office or court, select the appropriate one(s) from the drop-down list(s). TIP

The Division Office and court must be in the locality of the debtor. If you're in doubt about which Division Office or court to select, contact your local OSB office.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the appropriate Division Office or court isn't on the list, and you're not a trustee ...

... you may have selected the wrong responsible trustee, or the wrong licence number, on the first screen. You'll have to redo the process from the beginning by clicking "New Filing" on the menu bar. Don't use the "Back" button of your Internet browser—you could unknowingly create a corrupted transaction.

8. Click "Submit this new filing" to send the file to the OSB.

Don't forget to include an alert (see box) if necessary before you submit the file.

ALERT

Add an alert in exceptional circumstances. You may want to alert the OSB about a debtor's history of violence, for example, or that a debtor's address should not be added to the name search database for security reasons.

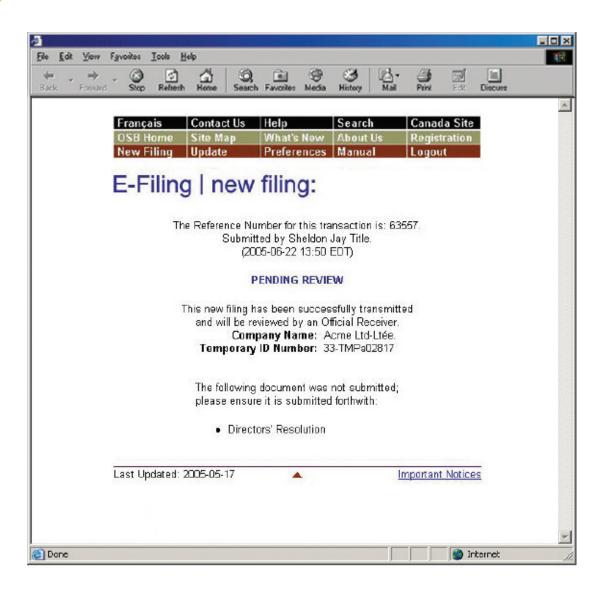

If your insolvency software allows it, you may be able to upload an alert as an XML document, instead of using the link "Click here."

9. Record the reference number and the temporary ID number.

Unless there are errors in the filing (see "Troubleshooting" on page 5.11), you will see the following screen.

Your filing will be manually reviewed by an Official Receiver to determine whether it can be accepted. Be sure to record the reference number for the transaction, as well as the temporary ID number. You can use the temporary ID number to update the estate while you're waiting to find out whether the filing has been accepted.

For corporations only: If you did not submit the Directors' Resolution, you will be reminded to submit it as soon as possible (see screen on page 5.10).

Within two business days, you'll receive an email from the OSB telling you whether the filing has been accepted or rejected. If the filing is accepted, the certificate of filing will be attached to the email. If the filing is rejected, you can find out why by contacting your Division Office.

TIP

Keep your email addresses up to date so that the system knows where to send certificates of filing and other important documents. For help updating email addresses, see page 1.8.

3. Verify that the estate name and number are correct.

If the estate name and number are correct, click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

If the estate name and number are incorrect, simply click "Go Back" to return to the previous screen and enter the correct estate number. Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

REMINDER

Don't use the "Back" button of your Internet browser—you could unknowingly create a corrupted transaction.

TIP

For estates with more than one administration type (e.g., when a bankrupt makes a proposal), the e-filing system may ask you to specify in which administration you would like to submit the document.

4. Select the type of document you would like to e-file.

Choose "Prescribed form(s)" to e-file forms (as defined by the BIA) generated by your insolvency software. The file must be in XML format.

Choose "Softcopy document" to e-file a document that is not a prescribed form (e.g., minutes of first meeting of creditors, financial statements, court documents). This includes documents created using software such as Corel WordPerfect or Microsoft Excel, as well as documents created by scanning a paper document.

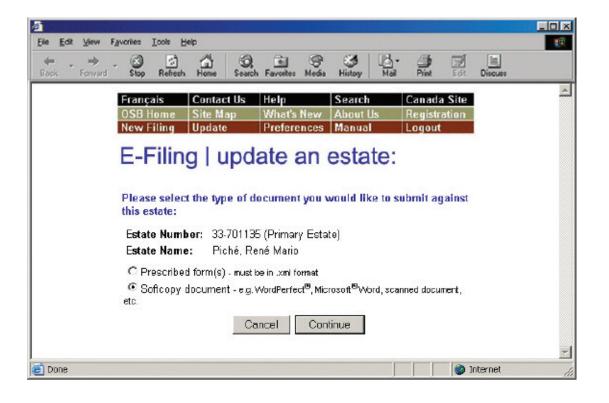

Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

TIP

If you don't have a scanner, just fax or mail a copy to the OSB Division Office that holds the electronic estate file.

TIP

For all notices of intention, subsequent documents, including the Division I proposal, should be filed as updates.

5. Upload the prescribed form or softcopy document.

To upload a prescribed form, click "Browse" to select the XML file. Add an alert (see box on page 5.18) if necessary and click "Continue."

Prescribed Form

There are a few points to keep in mind when submitting certain prescribed forms.

Statement of Receipts and Disbursements (form 12)

If there are dividends, you need to submit a dividend sheet with the SRD. You can do this in one of two ways: (1) if your software allows, you can submit the dividend sheet and the SRD together in one XML file; or (2) you can submit the SRD by itself and then upload the dividend sheet as a separate file.

In both cases, you will be asked to indicate whether inspectors were appointed and whether they approved the SRD.

ALERT

Add an alert in exceptional circumstances. You may want to alert the OSB about a debtor's history of violence, for example, or that a debtor's address should be removed from the name search database for security reasons.

If your insolvency software allows it, you may be able to upload an alert as an XML document, instead of using the link "Click here."

To upload a softcopy document, select a document title from the first drop-down list. If the title is not on the list, select "Other," type the document title (as descriptive as possible) in the text field and select a document category (i.e., initial filing, estate administration or closing process) from the second drop-down list. Then click "Browse" to select the file you want to e-file. Add an alert (see box on page 5.18) if necessary and click "Continue."

You'll see a screen with the estate name and number and the form(s) or document(s) to be submitted. You will also see a note stating that by submitting the file, you are confirming that you have collected all necessary signatures. If everything is correct, complete the submission by clicking the "Submit" button.

6. Record the reference number.

You'll see a new screen with a reference number for your records, as well as the number and name of the estate that was updated.

There is also a hyperlink to follow if you would like to submit additional forms or documents to the estate.

REMINDER

Don't forget to log out once you've finished using the e-filing system. Just close your browser or click "Logout" on the menu bar and follow the instructions.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the document or form isn't accepted...

... the e-filing system will list the reasons why. There may be errors in the file you tried to submit, for example, in which case you'll need to correct the errors and redo the updating process from the beginning. If the problem is more technical, the e-filing system will suggest that you contact your software vendor. The error message will be very clear about what the problems are and what to do about them.

If you submit a document or form to the wrong estate...

... immediately phone the OSB Division Office that holds the electronic estate file and report the error. Because documents and forms can't be moved from one estate file to another, you'll have to resubmit the document or form to the correct estate. The OSB will remove the incorrectly filed form or document from its database.

For additional help, contact the help desk by clicking "Help" on the menu bar or calling 1-877-227-3672. The help desk is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm (Eastern Standard Time), Monday to Friday.

Clicking "Help" on the menu bar will also give you access to the e-filing tips page on the OSB Web site.

Clicking "Manual" on the menu bar will give you access to the online version of this manual.

Switching from paper to e-filing

This section describes how to switch an estate file from paper to e-filing. You need to follow this process only once for the estate to be recognized by the e-filing system. To update an estate already in the system, go to page 5.13.

1.

Log in to the e-filing system (see "Logging in to the e-filing system," page 1.3) and click "Update" on the menu bar at the top of the screen. TIP

Once an estate has been switched from paper to electronic format, all filing to the estate must be done through the e-filing system.

Enter the estate number (as it appears on the certificate of filing) in the text field.

Click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

3. Verify that the estate name and number are correct.

The system will realize that the number isn't in the e-filing system and assume that you're changing a paper estate file to electronic format.

If the estate name and number are correct, click "Continue" to go to the next screen.

If the estate name and number are incorrect, simply click "Go Back" to return to the previous screen and enter the correct estate number.

4. Upload a prescribed form.
