Who may make complaint

32.1 (1) Any person may make a complaint, directed to the Registrar, alleging that a member is guilty of professional misconduct or is an incapacitated or unfit member.

Form of complaint

(2) A complaint may be initiated orally, and the Registrar may assist the complainant to clarify and formulate it, but a complaint may only be referred to the Complaints and Registration Committee, the Fitness to Practise Committee or a Board of Inquiry if it is in written or other recorded form and signed or attested by the complainant or the complainant's authorized representative, and gives the complainant's explicit permission to the Registrar and those investigating the allegation to obtain and use records and other information which may be necessary for that purpose.

Complaint for incapable person

(3) A complaint may be made on behalf of an incapable person by a representative of that person.

Complaint by person other than patient

(4) A complaint may be made by a person other than the patient who is alleged to have been affected by the member's professional misconduct, incapacity or unfitness, but must be based upon direct observation or first-hand knowledge of the alleged incident or practice. 1997,c.30,s.6 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

Report by member

32.2 (1) A member who has knowledge, from direct observation or objective evidence, of another member's professional misconduct, incapacity or unfitness must report the known facts to the Registrar.

Idem

(2) A person who dissolves a partnership with a member or an organization which terminates or imposes restrictions on the employment or privileges or other practice association with a member based on direct knowledge of the member's professional misconduct, incapacity or unfitness must report the known facts to the Registrar. 1997,c.30,s.6 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

32.3 When a physician is charged with or found guilty of an offence which appears to affect suitability to practise, Notice of offence affecting suitability

- (a) the Crown Prosecutor, when the physician is charged; and
- (b) the Prothonotary or Deputy Registrar of the Supreme Court, or Clerk of Provincial Court, when the physician is found guilty, shall so notify the Registrar. 1997,c.30,s.6 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

32.4 The Complaints and Registration Committee, Fitness to Practise Committee or a Board of Inquiry may deal with multiple complaints or referrals from the Council concerning a member severally or in combination. 1997,c.30,s.6 {eff.} Sept. 8/98. Multiple complaints

32.5 (1) On its own initiative or on recommendation of the Complaints and Registration Committee, Fitness to Practise Committee or a Board of Inquiry at any stage of an investigation and discipline process, if there appear to be Action pending outcome of disciplinary process

- (a) substantial evidence of a member's professional misconduct, incapacity or unfitness; and
- (b) demonstrable risk of harm or injury to the member's patients or to the general public, the Council may, pending the outcome of the investigation and disciplinary process, take one or more of the following actions:

- (c) make public or otherwise disclose the fact that an inquiry or investigation into the practice or conduct of the member is under way;
- (d) suspend or impose a condition on the member's license.

(2) Where there is

- (a) substantial evidence of a member's professional misconduct, incapacity or unfitness;
- (b) demonstrable risk of harm or injury to the member's patients or to the general public; and
- (c) evident need for urgent intervention to prevent immediate risk of harm,

Idem, urgent action

any two persons from among the Council's President, Vice-President, Registrar and Deputy Registrar may suspend the member's license with immediate effect for a period not to exceed ten days, within which time the matter shall be referred to the Council for decision on what action, if any, should be taken in accordance with subsection (1) or otherwise. 1997,c.30,s.6 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

32.6 (1) Wherever it thinks it appropriate, the Complaints and Registration Committee or Fitness to Practise Committee shall commend Mediation to the complainant and the affected member the alternative of mediation, that is, an effort mutually to resolve the complaint, allegation or suspicion informally without further investigation or disciplinary action.

Notice to council

(2) If mediation resolves the matter, the Complaints and Registration Committee or Fitness to Practise Committee shall so notify the Council in writing, and if the Council is satisfied, there need be no further action.

Failure of mediation

(3) Where the Complaints and Registration Committee or Fitness to Practise Committee believes that the attempt at mediation is not, or is not likely to be, successful, or where the Council is not satisfied, the investigation or other disciplinary action shall proceed. 1997,c.30,s.6 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

Closed, open proceedings

32.7 The proceedings of the Complaints and Registration Committee and the Fitness to Practise Committee shall be closed to the public, but the proceedings of a Board of Inquiry shall be open to the public unless it appears to the chairperson that the public interest requires privacy, in which case the chairperson may direct that the proceedings, or a part of them, be closed. 1997,c.30,s.6 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

Protection of witness identity

32.8 The Complaints and Registration Committee, Fitness to Practise Committee or a Board of Inquiry may, on the request of a witness whose testimony is of a confidential or sensitively personal nature, order that no person publish the identity of the witness or any information that could disclose the identity of the witness, and a person who violates such an order commits an offence punishable under section 62. 1997,c.30,s.6 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

- (b) unless any conditions ordered under subsection (1) have been fulfilled; and
- (c) unless there is firm evidence of successful rehabilitation, retraining or change of circumstance that ensures acceptable practice and patient safety.

Probationary reinstatement (5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Council shall make any re-instatement probationary, subject to a specified period of monitoring and review before a decision to re-instate is confirmed. 1987,c.47,s.38; 1997,c.30,s.12 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

SEXUAL ABUSE

No tolerance of sexual abuse 38.1 (1) Sexual abuse is a serious form of professional misconduct which is not to be tolerated; the Council shall ensure that complaints of sexual abuse are properly investigated and that, where misconduct is substantiated, strong disciplinary action is taken.

Definition (2) In this section and sections 38.2 to 38.5, sexual abuse “sexual abuse” means any sort of sexual conduct by a member toward or with a patient, at any time during which the person is considered to be a patient of the member, whether by

- (i) a remark, gesture or other behaviour of a sexual nature toward the patient, or by subjecting the patient to a position or state of undress, which appears intended to be erotic, seductive or demeaning,
- (ii) touching in a sexual manner, or
- (iii) violating behaviour, namely, sexual intercourse, other physical sexual relations including genital to genital, genital to anal, oral to genital, or oral to anal contact, masturbation by or of either party or encouragement of the patient to masturbate in the presence of the member.

Exception (3) Sexual conduct is not considered to be sexual abuse where

- (a) the patient and member are spouses;
- (b) the member has provided a medical service on the basis of urgency or other isolated-instance necessity to a person who is not normally a patient of the member and who has an already established sexual relationship with the member; or
- (c) the doctor-patient relationship has been formally terminated and there is no expectation that any further medical care will be provided by the member to the other person.

Former patient (4) Notwithstanding clause (3)(c) and notwithstanding the termination of care by the member, sexual conduct toward or with a former patient

- (a) is considered to be sexual abuse, where the former patient was, during the member’s care, or is currently, a minor; or
- (b) may be considered to be sexual abuse where the former patient
 - (i) was, during the member’s care, or is currently, suffering from a judgement-impairing disorder; or

(ii) received psychotherapy or psychiatric counselling from the member. 1997,c.30,s.13 {eff.} Sept. 8/98; 2001,c.12,s.5,s.6.

38.2 (1) A member who has knowledge or has reasonable and probable cause to suspect that another member has committed sexual abuse must report or cause to be reported the circumstances to the Registrar, and shall provide such additional information as is known or available to the member.

Report

- (2) Before making such report a member shall
- (a) inform the patient of the member’s statutory obligation to report;
 - (b) encourage the alleged victim, if possible, to make a complaint to the Registrar and to be willing to provide information.

Obligations when making report

(3) In providing information under subsection (1), a member shall not identify the alleged victim unless that person, or if that person is incapable the person’s representative, consents to inclusion of the person’s identity. 1997,c.30,s.13 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

Disclosure of identity

38.3 (1) The Council shall revoke the license of a member who has been found guilty under section 34 or 35 of sexual abuse of a violating nature as described in clause 38.1(2)(c), or of a recurrent pattern of other sexual abuse.

Revocation of license

(2) Notwithstanding subsection 38(1), where a member’s license is revoked under subsection (1), the minimum time before which the member may apply for re-instatement pursuant to subsection 38(2) is five years from the making of the revocation order. 1997,c.30,s.13 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

Minimum period before reinstatement

38.4 Where a member is found guilty of sexual abuse, the Council may, as a part of the penalty or remedy ordered under subsection 34(12) or 35(16), levy a fine to be used for the purpose of paying for the costs of counselling or therapy which the Council believes to be necessary for the victims of the sexual abuse. 1997,c.30,s.13 {eff.} Sept. 8/98.

Fine for costs of therapy

38.5 The Council shall, with the assistance of the Society, have a continuing program for the purposes of preventing and dealing with sexual abuse, including the following elements:

Educational programs

- (a) obligatory training for all physicians in matters of the law, unacceptable behaviour, warning signals, prevention tactics;
- (b) public-awareness education in matters such as warning signals, avoidance tactics, actions to take if abused;
- (c) publication of guidelines for physician conduct with patients to prevent abuse;
- (d) publication of procedures for making complaints respecting sexual abuse and for carrying out investigation and discipline;

(e) an annual report to the Minister, for each of the five years following the start of the program, which provides information on the volume and nature of complaints respecting sexual abuse and consequent investigation and discipline. 1997,c.30,s.13 {eff.} Sept. 8/98; 2001,c.12,s.7.
