EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 sets out definitions of words and terms used in these regulations and the Act.

SECTION 2 explains that the designation of a smoking area requires the conspicuous posting of a sign that identifies the area as a smoking area. The section also sets out restrictions on the designation of an outdoor area that is within a prescribed distance of an entrance or air intake.

SECTION 3 sets out a restriction on the designation of a room as a smoking area if the room has a floor area in excess of the maximum area permitted by the section.

SECTIONS 4 and 5 set out requirements that smoking signs be posted at public places and workplaces.

SECTION 6 sets out requirements respecting the ventilation system for a smoking room. The section also requires a clear window for such a room.

SECTION 7 sets out requirements for the ventilation system for a long-term care facility.

SECTION 8 explains the circumstances in which an owner or employer may permit an employee to work in a designated smoking room.

SECTION 9 deems certain officers appointed under other Acts to be inspectors for the purpose of the Act.

SECTION 10 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
