3.2 (1) The fees payable by an applicant are as follows: Fees

- (a) for a marriage commissioner's license ..... $500

(b) to renew a marriage commissioner's license ..... $200

Idem

(2) The fees referred to in subsection (1)

(a) are payable at the time an application for a marriage commissioner's license or renewal of a license is submitted to the Director;

(b) are payable whether or not a marriage commissioner's license or renewal of a license is issued to an applicant; and

(c) are non-refundable.

2. These regulations come into force on May 20, 2006.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

The amendment outlines the necessary qualifications that are to be included in an application for a marriage commissioner's license. The amendment provides that an applicant cannot be an issuer or a deputy issuer of marriage licenses. The amendment outlines that applicants who have met the marriage commissioner's license requirements must complete a training program offered by the Director and provides that the Director shall inform an applicant as to whether or not a marriage commissioner's license will be issued. Where a person who has been issued a marriage commissioner's license leaves the province for a period of six months or more, the person shall report to the Director prior to the person's departure from the province and upon the person's return. The amendment also outlines the fee amount payable by an applicant for a marriage commissioner's license or renewal of a license.
