“71. (1) When the business of a company is being wound up under this Act, all debts and all other claims against the company in existence at the commencement of the winding-up, certain or contingent, matured or not, and liquidated or unliquidated, are admissible to proof against the company and, subject to subsection (2), the amount of any claim admissible to proof is the unpaid debt or other liability of the company outstanding or accrued at the commencement of the winding-up.

(2) In case of any claim subject to any contingency or for unliquidated damages or which for any other reason does not bear a certain value, the court shall determine the value of the claim and the amount for which it shall rank.”

The Court also ordered that any person who has not received a notice from the liquidator of Kansa in Canada in virtue of Section 75 of the Winding-up and Restructuring Act and who alleges to have any claim whatsoever against Kansa in Canada must file at the office of the said liquidator, at the latest by December 22, 2006, a proof of claim, supported by affidavit, providing all the particulars and relevant documents concerning such claim.

An integral copy of the aforementioned judgment can be obtained in the record of the Superior Court of Quebec, district of Montreal.

Please note that are only admissible to proof against Kansa the claims that existed at the commencement of the winding-up of Kansa in Canada, that is on March 3, 1995.
