(EC526/93) |
| License | 6. (1) Subject to section 10, the Director may issue a license in Form 2 (License to Arrange Adoption Placements) to an applicant who meets the requirements of section 2 and pays the prescribed fee. |
| Factors | (2) The Director shall consider the following factors when assessing applications for a license under this section: (a) the number of adoption agents, if any, serving the geographical area in which the applicant proposes to provide an adoption placement service; and |

(b) the need for adoption services in the geographical area proposed to be served.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, the Director may refuse to issue a license or limit the number of licenses issued pursuant to this section. (EC26/02)

Director's discretion

7. A person to whom a license is issued shall take an oath, administered by the Director, to maintain confidentiality with respect to the personal information involved in placement and adoption work, and to abide by the standards set out in these regulations and in such other policies as the Director may institute pertaining to the disclosure of identifying information. (EC526/93)

Oath of confidentiality

8. Where an applicant for a license does not fully meet the requirements, the Director may give directions as to further qualification, study, knowledge or experience which the applicant is to acquire before a new application will be considered. (EC526/93)

Directions, supplementary qualifications

9. (1) The term of a license is three years from the date of effect, unless a shorter term or a condition is imposed.

Term of license

(2) A person seeking to renew a license shall apply to the Director at least 30 days prior to its expiry, providing such information as the Director may require, and, subject to section 10, the Director shall, upon payment of the prescribed fee, renew the license. (EC526/93)

Renewal of license

10. The Director has authority to refuse to issue or refuse to renew, to suspend or revoke, or to impose conditions on a license if the Director has reasonable and probable grounds to believe that the person

Refusal etc. of license

(a) is not registered, in good standing, as a qualified person in one of the professions specified in section 2;

(b) lacks current knowledge of laws, principles, information and accepted standards of professional practice with respect to placement and adoption;

(c) lacks the aptitude and skills necessary for effective placement work;

(d) has failed, or is likely to fail, to follow all requirements of the Act and regulations and accepted standards of professional practice with respect to placement work;

(e) has not abided by the oath of confidentiality, and the laws and policies set by the Director governing disclosure of information; or

(f) has been convicted of an offence that is relevant to the performance of placement work. (EC526/93)

11. If there is any indication that an applicant or licensee may not qualify or be fit to have a license issued or renewed, or that the license should be suspended or revoked or that a condition should be imposed on it, the Director may make or cause to be made an investigation to determine the relevant facts and make a conclusion about fitness to be licensed. (EC526/93)

Investigation

Notice to applicant of intended refusal etc.

12. Where the Director intends to make a negative licensing decision as referred to in section 10, the Director shall inform the applicant or licensee of the intended decision and the reasons for it, and give the person the opportunity to respond within seven days, before confirming the decision. (EC526/93)

Decision

13. Following the opportunity for response required by section 12, the Director shall in writing inform the applicant or licensee of the decision, and the reasons for it. (EC526/93)

Temporary suspension

14. In a situation where there are reasonable and probable grounds to believe that there is significant risk of serious harm resulting from the work or actions of a licensee, the Director may temporarily suspend the person's license pending investigation and action under sections 10 to 13. (EC526/93)

Transfer of records

15. A person whose license expires or is cancelled shall arrange with the Director for disposition of the licensee's records, so as to provide for security of the information and for possible use for authorized disclosure purposes. (EC526/93)

PERMIT

Application for permit for placement of child

16. A person seeking authorization to place a child through direct arrangement with a prospective adoptive parent rather than through the services of the Director, an agency or a person licensed by the Director, shall make an application in Form 3 (Application for a Permit) to the Director for a permit. (EC526/93)

Persons eligible to obtain permit

17. The Director may, subject to sections 18 and 20, issue a permit in Form 4 (Permit to make an Adoption Placement with a Relative) to

- (a) a birth parent;
- (b) the birth parents jointly; or
- (c) the legal guardian of the child to be placed,

but not to any other person. (EC526/93)

Requirements re prospective adoptive parent

18. A permit may not be issued unless the Director is satisfied that the prospective adoptive parent

- (a) is related, by blood or by adoption, to one of the birth parents as
 - (i) parent, aunt or uncle, sibling, half-sibling, first cousin, niece or nephew, or

- (ii) a relative of less direct relationship at the Director's discretion in a special case; and
- (b) is making the placement arrangements with the applicant, in a direct, co-operative and effective manner, without brokerage by an intermediary. (EC526/93)

19. In issuing a permit, the Director shall ensure that the applicant or applicants and the prospective adoptive parent or parents have an opportunity to become aware of options for and assistance with placement, and that they have knowledge of and agree to comply with the requirements of the Act and regulations concerning placement. (EC526/93; 614/96)

Knowledge etc. of obligations

20. The Director may refuse to issue, or may attach conditions to or revoke a permit if there are reasonable and probable grounds to believe that any of the following factors pertain:

Refusal etc. of permit

- (a) misrepresentation;
- (b) poor understanding of, or unwillingness to comply with, legal or practical requirements;
- (c) inadequate planning or significant risk that the placement and adoption plan will not be successful;
- (d) unwillingness or a change in willingness to make or support the proposed placement;
- (e) likelihood of harm to the child's basic welfare as indicated by the assessment of placement risk;
- (f) guardianship of the child has been transferred only as a convenience so as to facilitate placement;
- (g) a breakdown of the placement and adoption plan;
- (h) the proposed placement does not appear to be in the best interests of the child. (EC526/93; 614/96)

21. Revoked by EC499/04.
(EC526/93; 499/04)

Transitional

PLACEMENT COUNSELLING

22. (1) Placement counselling shall be provided by an authorized social worker.

Counselling

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), placement counselling that is given in another jurisdiction may be provided by a person, acceptable to the Director, who is recognized by the child welfare authority there as a professional placement and adoption practitioner, or by some other person whom the Director specifically authorizes for the particular case. (EC526/93; 499/04)

Recognition of counselling in other jurisdiction

Guidelines 23. A person who provides placement counselling shall do so following such guidelines and procedures as may be provided in policy or approved by the Director. (EC526/93)

CONSENT TO PLACEMENT

Consent to Placement 24. (1) When a child is placed, each birth parent shall complete and sign a consent to placement, in Form 5 (Consent to Placement), signifying voluntary agreement to transfer custody of the child on the understanding that the purpose or likely outcome is adoption.

Execution (2) A consent to placement shall be executed after the birth of the child and before the child is placed or, where it was previously not known that adoption was the purpose or likely outcome, then as soon as it becomes evident that the child is in fact being placed for purposes of adoption. (EC526/93)

Dispensing with birth mother's consent 25. Notwithstanding section 24, a mother's consent to placement and placement counselling are not required where guardianship of the child has been permanently transferred from her pursuant to an agreement or order under the Child Protection Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. C-5.1. (EC614/96; 499/04)

Father's consent 26. Where it is possible to identify and contact the person who is apparently the father of a child who is being placed, even though that person does not meet the requirements for clear entitlement to consent under clause 22(c) of the Act, the person arranging the placement, or an authorized social worker in a case of placement by permit, shall make reasonable efforts to

- (a) inform the presumed father that placement and adoption are intended;
- (b) explain to him the Act's provisions concerning establishing paternity and a father's entitlement to placement counselling and to consent or not to placement and to adoption; and
- (c) offer him the opportunity to sign a declaration in Form 6 (Declaration by Presumed Birth Father) to record that he has been so informed and that he does not wish to pursue or exercise entitlement to consent. (EC526/93; 614/96)

When father's consent not required 27. Notwithstanding section 24, a father's consent to placement and placement counselling for the father are not required if

- (a) the child's mother makes a declaration in Form 7 (Declaration by Birth Mother) that the identity of the father cannot be established or that it is impossible to make contact with the father;
- (b) the court has, upon application at any time by the person making the placement, dispensed with the need for

- (i) placement counselling and consent to placement in accordance with section 4 of the Act, or
- (ii) a father's consent to adoption in accordance with section 26 of the Act; or
- (c) guardianship of the child has been permanently transferred from him pursuant to an agreement or order under the Child Protection Act. (EC526/93; 614/96; 499/04)

28. Before a consent to placement is signed, the person who provides placement counselling shall inform the birth parent that he or she may, if it is wanted, first seek independent legal advice about executing the consent. (EC526/93)

Independent advice

29. A consent to placement is not valid unless the person who provides the placement counselling witnesses it and signifies on it that counselling has been given for the three purposes specified by subclause 4(a)(i) of the Act. (EC526/93)

Affirmation that counselling provided

30. (1) The person who provides the placement counselling and witnesses the consent to placement shall give a copy of the consent to the consenting person, and shall provide the original of the consent to the person who is arranging the placement.

Distribution of consent

- (2) The person arranging the placement shall
 - (a) provide the original of a consent to placement to the Director, if possible accompanying the notification of placement required under section 42;
 - (b) retain a copy; and
 - (c) if required, make available a copy for the court in connection with an application for adoption. (EC526/93)

Idem

31. Where a person gives consent to a child's placement with a specified person or persons, the child shall not subsequently be placed with a different person or persons unless a fresh consent is obtained, or else the first consent expressly allows for a change without the need of a fresh consent. (EC526/93)

New consent if placement changed

32. (1) A person may revoke her or his consent to placement if she or he

- (a) has not given a consent to adoption which remains in force; and
- (b) gives notice to the Director, and to the person to whom the consent was originally given, and through that person to the person responsible for arranging the placement, so as to allow new custody arrangements to be made.

Revocation

(2) Where a consent to placement is revoked pursuant to subsection (1), custody of the child reverts to the person who had custody prior to the giving of the consent. (EC526/93; 614/96)

Idem

RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION

Religious Affiliation

33. Where a child is placed by the Director or an agency, section 45 of the Child Protection Act applies, regarding the obligation, if a religious affiliation is identified as a relevant factor, that reasonable efforts be made to accommodate that affiliation in placing the child. (EC526/93; 499/04)

ASSESSMENT OF PLACEMENT RISK

Assessment of placement risk

34. An assessment of placement risk shall be carried out before actual placement of a child or, if that is not possible or it was previously not known that adoption was the purpose or likely outcome, the assessment shall be conducted within the shortest possible time after it is evident that the child is in fact placed for adoption. (EC526/93)

Conduct of assessment

35. (1) An assessment of placement risk shall be carried out by an authorized social worker.

Recognition of assessment in other jurisdiction

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an assessment of placement risk that is carried out in another jurisdiction may be conducted by a person, acceptable to the Director, who is recognized by the child welfare authority there as a professional placement and adoption practitioner, or by some other person whom the Director specifically authorizes for the particular case. (EC526/93)

Guidelines, etc.

36. A person who conducts an assessment of placement risk shall do so following such guidelines and procedures as may be provided in policy by the Director. (EC526/93)

Purpose of assessment

37. An assessment of placement risk is to be carried out as simply and quickly as practicable, with the purpose of establishing whether there is apparent risk of harm to the safety and the physical and emotional health of a child which is likely to result from a proposed placement. (EC526/93; 614/96)

Criteria

38. The criteria to be used in an assessment of placement risk are as follows:

- (a) consistent availability of resources to provide for the child's basic living needs including adequate food, clothing and shelter;
- (b) consistent availability or planning of appropriate child-care attendance;
- (c) no serious physical or psychiatric health problem or disability of a life-threatening degree or of such other nature as to significantly impede the applicant's capacity to parent;
- (d) no active addiction to alcohol or other drug on the part of any member of the household; where there is a history of such addiction, the person must have maintained freedom from abuse or dependency with clear indication that the addiction or risk of abuse is satisfactorily under control;

(e) no evidence of domestic violence or abuse (whether physical, sexual or emotional) in the household; no substantiated report of domestic violence or abuse, whether of abuser or victim, within the past three years;

(f) no conviction whatever of any member of the household for a criminal offence that indicates likely inability to provide properly for the best interests of the child;

(g) no member of the household who was ever a parent or primary care-taker of a child found to be in need of protection under the child welfare laws of any jurisdiction;

(h) no evidence that the motives of the prospective adoptive parent or parents are likely to cause results contrary to the best interests of the child. (EC526/93; 614/96)

39. It is a placement requirement that the members of an intended placement household shall co-operate with the carrying-out of the assessment of placement risk, and assent to any necessary checks of information which might otherwise be confidential. (EC526/93)

Cooperation in conduct of
assessment

40. (1) The person who conducts an assessment of placement risk shall prepare a report of it in Form 8 (Assessment of Placement Risk), and the report shall include either a statement that no evidence of risk has been found, or a description of any risk determined and the evidence on which that was based.

Report

(2) The person shall provide the assessment report to the person making the placement, with a copy to the Director.

Distribution of report

(3) The person who conducts the assessment shall permit the person or persons with whom the child is to be placed, as that person or persons may request, to examine the report or to have a copy of it. (EC526/93)

Access to report

41. (1) If an assessment of placement risk gives reason to believe that there is apparent risk to the child's basic welfare, then the person making the placement shall reconsider the plan, and either make adjustments and apply conditions so as to control the risk, or else make a new plan for placement of the child.

Revision of placement plan

(2) The person making the placement shall inform the Director of what measures have been taken under subsection (1) to mitigate apparent risk.

Mitigation of risk

(3) The Director, if not satisfied with the measures to mitigate the apparent risk, may direct that other measures be taken or, if not satisfied

Powers of Director

about the child's security and basic welfare despite mitigation measures, that the intended placement be cancelled. (EC526/93)

NOTICE OF PLACEMENT AND PLACEMENT INFORMATION

|---|--|
| Notice to Director of placement | 42. (1) The person who places a child shall, pursuant to clause 6(a) of the Act, notify the Director of the placement, immediately before or at the time of the actual placement, or where it was previously not known that adoption was the purpose or likely outcome, then as soon as it becomes evident that the child is in fact placed for purposes of adoption. |

 (d) a consent to adoption is withdrawn; or
 (e) a year has elapsed from the time of making the agreement and an adoption order has not been made, and such contingency has not been expressly provided for in the agreement. (EC614/96)

OUT-OF-PROVINCE PLACEMENT

Placement outside
the province

51. A person intending to place a child in a place other than Prince Edward Island, whether or not the adoption is expected to be ordered by the Prince Edward Island court, shall apply in Form 11 (Application for Out-of-Province Placement) to the Director for permission to place the child out-of-province, pursuant to section 5 of the Act, and shall provide such further information as the Director may require for assessing the application. (EC526/93)

Criteria for assessment of placement outside province

52. The Director shall assess an application for out-of- province placement considering the following criteria:

- (a) the wishes of the birth parent or parents;
- (b) number of children available for placement relative to the availability of suitable prospective adoptive parents in Prince Edward Island;
- (c) disruption to the child's life likely to be caused by cultural differences between Prince Edward Island and the proposed placement destination;
- (d) risk of commercial-interest influence;
- (e) lack of clear and reliable planning;
- (f) indication of misrepresentation or improper motive;
- (g) any other factor which may pose a risk to the best interests of the child. (EC526/93)

Terms for approval

53. (1) The Director shall approve an application for out-of-province placement if

- (a) it appears satisfactory in terms of the criteria of section 52; and
- (b) arrangements meet the placement requirements set in the Act and regulations with respect to
 - (i) placement by the Director, an agency, or the holder of a license or permit,
 - (ii) birth parent consent or consents to placement,
 - (iii) placement counselling of birth parent or parents,
 - (iv) assessment of placement risk,

(v) documentation of information concerning the child's identity and background and the circumstances of the placement in accordance with sections 6 and 7 of the Act.

(2) The Director may otherwise refuse to give permission or may impose conditions on permission to place a child out-of-province. Refusal and conditions

(3) The Director shall indicate approval, conditional approval or disapproval on the application, and shall Disposition of application

(a) provide it to the applicant;

(b) retain a copy;

(c) provide a copy to the adoption authority in the jurisdiction of placement. (EC526/93)

54. If a person making an out-of-province placement proceeds without the Director's permission, or does not follow any conditions that have been set, the Director may Placement without permission of Director

(b) take such non-compliance with placement requirements into account for purposes of determining the person's entitlement to provide placement and adoption services. (EC526/93)

MONITORING

55. (1) The Director, an agency or the holder of a license shall arrange that any placement for which responsibility is assumed, where the application for an adoption order is to be made in Prince Edward Island, is monitored by an authorized social worker or other person acceptable to the Director so as to ensure the welfare of the child and support for the prospective adoptive parent or parents. Monitoring of placement

(2) Monitoring may be carried out in another jurisdiction by a person, acceptable to the Director, who is recognized by the child welfare authority there as a professional placement and adoption practitioner, or by some other person whom the Director specifically authorizes for the particular case. Monitoring in other jurisdiction

(3) Monitoring must include a visit to the placement home at least once during the first month and subsequently no less frequently than once every two months until a pre-hearing adoption study is begun. Frequency (EC526/93; 614/96)

56. (1) If the person monitoring a placement or conducting a prehearing adoption study has reason to suspect there is apparent risk to the child's welfare, the person shall report this in writing to the person who made the placement, providing a copy to the Director. Suspicion of risk to child's welfare

Adjustments consequent on adverse report (2) The person who made the placement shall
(a) reconsider the plan, and either make adjustments and apply conditions so as to control the risk, or else make a new arrangement for placement of the child; and
(b) so inform the Director.

Powers of Director (3) The Director, if not satisfied with the measures to mitigate the apparent risk, may direct that other measures be taken or, if not satisfied about the child's security and welfare despite mitigation measures, that the placement be cancelled. (EC526/93; 614/96)

APPLICATION TO ADOPT

Statement of compliance with placement requirements 57. (1) Pursuant to subsection 11(2) of the Act an applicant for an adoption order shall
(a) at the time of submitting the application to the court, send notice of it to the Director; and
(b) at that time, or as soon as possible thereafter, provide the Director with a copy of any consent to adoption that is submitted to the court pursuant to clause 18(1)(g) of the Act.

Statement of compliance with placement requirements (2) Pursuant to clause 18(1)(i), a person who applies to the court for an adoption order shall submit with the application, or subsequently in support of the application, a statement obtained from the Director to inform the court whether or not all applicable placement requirements set by the Act and regulations appear to have been met. (EC614/96)

PRE-HEARING ADOPTION STUDY

Adoption study 58. (1) The person or persons who apply for an adoption order shall, pursuant to section 19 of the Act, arrange for a pre-hearing adoption study to be conducted by the Director, an agency or an authorized social worker, well in advance of the hearing of the application so that the report is submitted at least ten days before the hearing.

Out-of-province study (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an adoption study that takes place in another jurisdiction may be conducted by a person who is acceptable to the Director as being competent in matters of placement and adoption. (EC614/96)

Span of observation 59. An adoption study shall include a series of at least two observations over a period of at least one month. (EC526/93; 614/96)

Information 60. The applicant or applicants for an adoption order shall provide, or authorize the provision of, such information as may be required for the study, notwithstanding that the information is confidential. (EC526/93)

61. The person who conducts an adoption study shall include in the report of it information and interpretation with respect to a parent whose legal status as parent will be cancelled as a result of the proposed adoption, concerning

Parent relations, etc.
as relevant factor

- (a) the relations of that parent with the child; and
- (b) the apparent attitude and intentions of an existing parent towards consent and the proposed adoption, if these factors appear likely to have a significant effect on the giving of a consent, the success of the proposed adoption, or the best interests of the child. (EC614/96)

62. An adoption study shall include information and professional assessment which address the factors set out in section 20 and clause 1(d) of the Act, and the study report shall be made in such format and according to such guidelines as may be provided by the Director. (EC526/93)

Content

63. The person who conducts an adoption study shall submit the report of it to the court, and a copy of it to the Director. (EC526/93)

Report

64. (1) The report of an adoption study is confidential.

Confidentiality

(2) The applicant or applicants for the adoption order may, subject to subsection (3), obtain from the court access to read and copy anything from the report.

Access

(3) The court may in particular cases withhold or limit or impose conditions on access if that seems necessary in order to protect the best interests of the child or prevent significant harm to any of the parties involved in the placement. (EC526/93)

Conditions re
access
