- (u) respecting the admission, treatment, conduct, discipline and discharge of patients or any class of patients in hospitals in Prince Edward Island to which hospital payments are made under the plan of hospital care insurance;

(v) regulating insurance contracts which provide hospital insurance benefits supplementary to those made available under this Act and the regulations;

(w) prohibiting, restricting or enabling the making and renewing of contracts to provide a resident with or reimbursing or indemnifying a resident for the cost of insured services, and regulating the making and renewing of contracts of insurance and prepayment plans with residents to provide any benefits related directly or indirectly to hospitalization or to the length of time a person is in hospital;

(x) prohibiting or enabling payment by insurance to the insured of the cost of any insured services and the provision of any benefits related directly or indirectly to hospitalization or to the length of time a person is in hospital;

(y) providing for the appointment of such advisory and other committees, boards, and other officers and agencies as the Minister considers necessary or advisable for effective operation of the plan, and providing for remuneration of the members thereof;

(z) respecting any other matter or thing that the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers necessary or advisable to carry out effectively the intent and purposes of this Act

(2) A regulation made pursuant to this Act has the same force and effect as if it were expressly set out herein. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. H-10, s.17; 1977, c.18, s.6; 1985, c.21, s.5; 1997,c.22,s.30; 2005,c.9,s.14. Effect of regulations

12. Any regulation may be limited in its application in time, place, or to persons or things and may be retroactive in its operation. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. H-10, s.18. Application of regulations

13. Repealed by 2005,c.9,s.14. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. H-10, s.19; 2005,c.9,s.14. Liability of Minister

14. (1) Where, as a result of the wrongful act or omission of another, a person suffers personal injuries, for which he receives insured services, he has the same right to recover the sum paid for those services against the person guilty of the wrongful act or omission as he would have had if he, himself, had been required to pay for the services. Recovery of damages for personal injuries

(2) A liability insurer, or any person under a liability to pay, shall pay to the Minister any amount referable to a claim for recovery of a sum paid for insured services that would otherwise be payable to an injured person, and payment of that amount to the Minister shall discharge the liability of the insurer, or any person under a liability to pay, to pay that amount to the injured person or to any person claiming under or on behalf of the injured person. Liability insurer to pay to Minister

Recovery of damages, reimbursement of Minister Subrogation	(3) Where, under subsection (1) a person recovers a sum in respect of insured services received by him under this Act, he shall forthwith pay the sum recovered to the Minister. (4) Her Majesty the Queen in right of the province shall be subrogated to the rights of a person, under this section, to recover any sum paid for insured services provided to that person, and an action may be maintained by Her Majesty, either in Her own name or in the name of that person, for the recovery of such sum.
Apportionment of net amount recovered	(5) Where the net amount recovered, whether by action or on settlement, is, after deduction of the costs of the recovery, not sufficient to provide complete indemnity for the loss or damage suffered, the amount remaining shall be divided between the injured person receiving insured services and the Minister in the proportion in which the loss or damage has been borne by them.
Certain defences barred to action by Crown	(6) It is not a defence to an action brought by Her Majesty under subsection (4) that a claim for damages has been adjudicated upon unless the claim included a claim for the sum paid for insured services, and it is not a defence to an action for damages brought by a person who has received insured services that an action taken by Her Majesty under subsection (4) has been adjudicated upon.
Release or settlement not binding unless approved	(7) No release or settlement of a claim or judgment based upon a cause of action for personal injuries in a case where the injured person has received insured services under this Act is binding upon Her Majesty unless the Minister or a person designated by the Minister has approved the settlement in writing.
Date section applies	(8) This section applies to claims for damages arising after October 1, 1954.
Insurance services how fixed	(9) For the purposes of this section, the sum paid for insured services shall be the charges of the hospital, at rates approved by the Minister, which a person would be required to pay if he were not entitled to insured services under this Act.
Certificate prima facie evidence	(10) In any action brought under this section a certificate of any officer of the Minister as to the sum paid for insured services that have been received by an injured person, shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie proof of that amount. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. H-10, s.20; 1976, c.14, s.1; 1997,c.22,s.30.
