Subdivision c - Tax Credits, Rebates and Other Deductions

Personal Credits

9. (1) For the purpose of computing the tax payable under this Part by an individual for a taxation year, there may be deducted an amount determined by the formula

where

A is the appropriate percentage for the year; and

B is the total of

- (a) in the case of an individual who at any time in the year is a married person or a person who is in a common-law partnership who supports the individual's spouse or common-law partner and is not living separate and apart from the spouse or common-law partner by reason of a breakdown of their marriage or common-law partnership, an amount equal to the total of

- (i) $7,412, and
- (ii) the amount determined by the formula

$$$6,294 - (C - $629)$$

where

C is the greater of $629 and the income of the individual's spouse or common-law partner for the year or, where the individual and the individual's spouse or common-law partner are living separate and apart at the end of the year because of a breakdown of their marriage or common-law partnership, the spouse's or common-law partner's income for the year while married or in a common-law partnership and not so separated;

(b) in the case of an individual who does not claim a deduction for the year because of clause (a) and who, at any time in the year,

(i) is

(A) a person who is unmarried and who does not live in a common-law partnership, or

(B) a person who is married or in a common-law partnership, who neither supported nor lived with their spouse or common-law partner and who is not supported by that spouse or common-law partner, and

(ii) whether alone or jointly with one or more other persons, maintains a self-contained domestic establishment (in which the individual lives) and actually supports in that establishment a person who, at that time, is

(A) except in the case of a child of the individual, resident in Canada,

(B) wholly dependent for support on the individual, or the individual and the other person or persons, as the case may be,

(C) related to the individual, and

(D) except in the case of a parent or grandparent of the individual, either under eighteen years of age or so dependent by reason of mental or physical infirmity, an amount equal to the total of

- (iii) $7,412, and
- (iv) the amount determined by the formula

$$$6,294 - (D - $629)$$

where

D is the greater of $629 and the dependent person's income for the year;

(c) except in the case of an individual entitled to a deduction because of clause (a) or (b), $7,412;

(d) in the case of an individual who, at any time in the year alone or jointly with one or more persons, maintains a self-contained domestic establishment that is the ordinary place of residence of the individual and of a particular person

(i) who has attained the age of eighteen years before that time,

(ii) who is

(A) the individual's child or grandchild, or

(B) resident in Canada and is the parent, grandparent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, nephew or niece of the individual or of the individual's spouse or common-law partner, and

(iii) who is

(A) the individual's parent or grandparent and has attained the age of sixty-five years before that time, or

(B) dependent on the individual because of the particular person's mental or physical infirmity,

the amount determined by the formula

$$$14,399 - E$$

where

E is the greater of $11,953 and the particular person's income for the year;

(e) for each dependant of the individual for the year who

(i) attained the age of eighteen years before the end of the year, and

(ii) was dependent on the individual because of mental or physical infirmity,

the amount determined by the formula

$$$7,412 - F$$

where

F is the greater of $4,966 and the dependant's income for the year; and

(f) in the case of an individual entitled to a deduction in respect of a person because of clause (b) and who would also be entitled, but for paragraph 118(4)(c) of the Federal Act, as that provision applies to this Act, to a deduction because of clause (d) or (e) in respect of the person, the amount by which the amount that would be determined under clause (d) or (e), as the case may be, exceeds the amount determined under clause (b) in respect of the person.

Age credit

(2) For the purpose of computing the tax payable under this Part for a taxation year by an individual who, before the end of the year, has attained the age of sixty-five years, there may be deducted the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times ($3,619 - B)$$

where

A is the appropriate percentage for the year; and

B is 15% of the amount, if any, by which the individual's income for the year would exceed $26,941 if no amount were included in respect of a gain from a disposition of property to which section 79 of the Federal Act applies in computing that income.

(3) For the purpose of computing the tax payable under this Part by an individual for a taxation year, there may be deducted an amount determined by the formula Pension credit

where

A is the appropriate percentage for the year; and

B is the lesser of $1,000 and

(a) where the individual has attained the age of sixty-five years before the end of the year, the pension income received by the individual in the year; and

(b) where the individual has not attained the age of sixty-five years before the end of the year, the qualified pension income received by the individual in the year.

(3.1) An individual described in clause 3(b) is not entitled to deduct an amount under subsection (3) for a taxation year. Non-resident not entitled to deduction

(4) Subsections 118(4),(5) and (6) of the Federal Act apply to subsection (1) and subsections 118(7) and (8) of the Federal Act apply to subsection (3). 1983,c.21,s.1; 1992,c.17,s.3; 2000,c.1,s.9; 2000,c.12,s.2; 2003,c.10,s.1. Application of Federal Act provisions

10. For the purpose of computing the tax payable under this Part by an individual for a taxation year, if the individual is entitled to a deduction under subsection 118.1(3) of the Federal Act for the year, there may be deducted such amount as the individual claims not exceeding the amount determined by the formula Charitable and other gifts

$$(A \times B) + [C \times (D - B)]$$

where

A is the appropriate percentage for the year;

B is the lesser of $200 and the amount determined for D;

C is the highest percentage; and

D is the amount determined for D in the formula in subsection 118.1(3) of the Federal Act for the purpose of computing the individual's tax payable under Part I of the Federal Act for the year. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.8; 1977,c.19,s.2; 2000,c.1,s.10; 2000,c.12,s.2.

Medical expense
tax credit

11. For the purpose of computing the tax payable under this Part by an individual for a taxation year, if the individual is entitled to a deduction under subsection 118.2(1) of the Federal Act for the year, there may be deducted an amount determined by the formula

$$A \times [(B - C) + D]$$

where

A is the appropriate percentage for the taxation year;

B is the amount determined for B in the formula in subsection 118.2(1) of the Federal Act for the purpose of computing the individual's tax payable under Part I of the Federal Act for the year;

C is the lesser of $1,678 and 3% of the individual's income for the taxation year; and

D is the amount that would be determined for D in the formula in subsection 118.2(1) of the Federal Act for the purpose of computing the individual's tax payable under Part I of the Federal Act for the year, if the reference to "$1,813" (or to the amount that it is amended to read) in the description of F is read as a reference to "$1,678". R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.9; 2000,c.12,s.2; 2005,c.10,s.1.

Credit for mental or physical impairment

12. (1) Where an individual is entitled to deduct an amount pursuant to subsection 118.3(1) of the Federal Act for the purpose of computing the individual's tax payable for a taxation year under Part I of the Federal Act, for the purposes of computing the tax payable under this Part by the individual for the taxation year, there may be deducted an amount determined by the formula

$$A \times (B+C)$$

where

A is the appropriate percentage for the year;

B is $5,400; and

C is

(a) where the individual has not attained the age of 18 before the end of the year, the amount, if any, by which

(i) $3,015

exceeds

(A) the total of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in the year for the care or supervision of the individual and included in computing a deduction under section 63, 64 or 118.2 of the Federal Act for the taxation year

(B) $2,050; and

(b) in any other case, nil.

(2) Sections 118.3 and 118.4 of the Federal Act apply for the purposes of this Act, except that subsection (1) of this section applies instead of subsection 118.3(1) of the Federal Act.

Application of
provisions

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), for the purpose of computing an individual's tax payable under this Part for a taxation year, where the person referred to in subsection 118.3(2) of the Federal Act did not reside in Prince Edward Island on the last day of the taxation year, there may be deducted an amount determined by the formula

Non-resident dependant having impairment

$$A/B \times C$$

where

A is the appropriate percentage for the year;

B is the appropriate percentage for the year under the Federal Act; and

C is the amount that the individual is entitled to deduct pursuant to subsection 118.3(2) of the Federal Act for the year. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.10; 1987,c.34,s.3; 1990,c.23,s.4; 2000,c.12,s.2; 2003,c.10,s.2; 2004,c.39,s.1.

13. Section 118.5 of the Federal Act applies for the purposes of this Act, except that any reference to "appropriate percentage" in that section is to be read as a reference to "appropriate percentage" (as that term is defined for the purposes of this Division) for the purposes of this Act. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.11; 1990,c.23,s.4; 1993,c.11,s.6; 2000,c.1,s.11; 2000,c.12,s.2.

Tuition credit

14. (1) Where an individual is entitled to deduct an amount pursuant to subsection 118.6(2) of the Federal Act for the purpose of computing the individual's tax payable for a taxation year under Part I of the Federal Act, for the purposes of computing the tax payable under this Part by the individual for the taxation year, there may be deducted an amount determined by the formula

Education credit

$$A \times B$$

where

A is the appropriate percentage for the year; and

B is the total of the products obtained when

(a) $200 is multiplied by the number of months in the year during which the individual is enrolled in a qualifying educational program as a full-time student at a designated educational institution; and

(b) $60 is multiplied by the number of months in the year (other than months described in clause (a)), each of which is a month during which the individual is enrolled at a designated educational institution in a specified educational program that provides that each student in the program spend not less than twelve hours in the month on courses in the program.

Application of Federal Act
provisions

(2) Section 118.6 of the Federal Act applies for the purposes of this Act, except that subsection (1) of this section applies instead of subsection 118.6(2) of the Federal Act. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.12; 1982,c.10,s.3; 1987,c.34,s.4; 1990,c.23,s.4; 2000,c.12,s.2.

Unused tuition and education tax credits

15. (1) For the purpose of computing the tax payable under this Part by an individual for a taxation year, if the individual is entitled to a deduction under subsection 118.61(2) of the Federal Act for the year, there may be deducted the lesser of

- (a) the individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of the preceding taxation year; and
- (b) the amount that would be the individual's tax payable under this Part for the year if no amount were deductible under this Division (other than an amount deductible under this section and any of sections 9, 12, 15.1 and 17).

Idem

(1.1) In this section, subject to subsection (3), an individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of a taxation year is the amount determined by the formula

where

A is the individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of the preceding taxation year;

B is the total of all amounts each of which may be deducted under section 13 or 14 in computing the individual's tax payable under this Part for the year;

C is the lesser of the value of B and the amount that would be the individual's tax payable under this Part for the year if no amount were deductible under this Division (other than an amount deductible under this section and any of sections 9, 12, 15.1 and 17);

D is the amount that the individual may deduct under subsection 15(1) for the year; and

E is the tuition and education tax credits transferred for the year by the individual to the individual's spouse, common-law partner, parent or grandparent.

2000 carryover

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of the 2000 taxation year shall be the amount equal to the provincial percentage of the individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of the 2000 taxation year as determined pursuant to section 118.61 of the Federal Act for the purpose of computing the individual's tax payable under Part I of the Federal Act for the taxation year.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) but subject to subsection (2), where an individual did not reside in Prince Edward Island on the last day of the taxation year for the preceding taxation year, the individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of the preceding taxation year shall be equal to the lesser of Restriction on credit

(a) the amount that would be the individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of the preceding taxation year as determined pursuant to section 118.61 of the Federal Act if the percentage applied under sections 118.5 and 118.6 of the Federal Act had been the appropriate percentage for the year instead of the appropriate percentage as defined in that Act; and

(b) the amount that would be the individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of the preceding taxation year as determined pursuant to a section (that is similar to section 118.61 of the Federal Act) of an income tax statute, or similar enactment, of the province, if any, in which the individual resided on the last day of the taxation year for the preceding taxation year if the percentage applied under that section had been the appropriate percentage for the year.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), where there is no section that is similar to section 118.61 of the Federal Act in the income tax statute, or similar enactment, of the province in which the individual resided on the last day of the taxation year for the preceding taxation year, the individual's unused tuition and education tax credits at the end of the preceding taxation year shall be deemed to equal the amount determined pursuant to clause (a) of that subsection. Idem

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3), the amounts referenced in clause (a) of that subsection shall be used only to the extent that they have not been used in claiming a credit pursuant to section 118.5, 118.6 or 118.61 of the Federal Act, or in determining credits transferred pursuant to section 118.81 of the Federal Act, for any taxation year, and the amounts referenced in clause (b) of that subsection shall be used only to the extent that they have not been used in claiming a credit pursuant to a section (that is similar to section 118.5, 118.6 or 118.61 of the Federal Act), or in determining credits transferred pursuant to a section (that is similar to section 118.81 of the Federal Act), for any taxation year, of an income tax statute, or similar enactment, of the province in which the individual resided on the last day of the taxation year for the preceding taxation year. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.13; 1977,c.19,s.3; 1979,c.9,s.4; 1982,c.10,s.4; 1984,c.8,s.2; 1990,c.23,s.4; 2000,c.12,s.2; 2003,c.10,s.3. Idem

(i) the amount, if any, by which the total of the individual's qualifying income exceeds the total of the individual's qualifying losses

(A) for the year, if the individual is resident in Canada throughout the year, and

(B) for the part of the year throughout which the individual is resident in Canada, if the individual is non-resident at any time in the year, from sources in that country, on the assumption that

(C) no businesses were carried on by the individual in that country,

(D) no amount was deducted under subsection 91(5) of the Federal Act in computing the individual's income for the year, and

(E) the individual's income from employment in that country was not from a source in that country to the extent of the lesser of the amounts determined in respect thereof under paragraphs 122.3(1)(c) and (d) of the Federal Act for the year,

(A) if the individual was resident in Canada throughout the year, the individual's income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island computed without reference to paragraph 20(1)(ww) of the Federal Act, and

(B) if the individual was non-resident at any time in the year, the individual's income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island that is included in the amount determined under paragraph 114(a) of the Federal Act in respect of the individual for the year,

exceeds

(C) the total of all amounts each of which is an amount deducted under section 110.6 or paragraph 111(1)(b) of the Federal Act, or deductible under any of paragraphs 110(1)(d) to (d.3), (f), (g) and (j) or section 112 of the Federal Act for the year, in computing the individual's taxable income for the year.

Non-business-income tax paid to country other than Canada

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) and clause 40(1)(b), the non-business-income tax paid by a taxpayer to the government of a country other than Canada in respect of the taxpayer's income for a taxation year is the non-business-income tax paid by the taxpayer to the government of that country in respect of that year as determined under the definition "non-business-income tax" in subsection 126(7) of the Federal Act.

Government of a country other than Canada

(3) For the purposes of this section and clause 40(1)(b), "government of a country other than Canada" includes the government of a state, province or other political subdivision of that country.

Income from more than one country other than Canada

(4) Where an individual's income for a taxation year is in whole or in part from sources in more than one country other than Canada, subsection 34(1) shall be read as providing for separate deductions in respect of each of the countries other than Canada.

Deemed income from a separate source in a country

(5) For the purposes of this section and section 40, if any income for a taxation year from a source in a particular country would be tax-exempt income but for the fact that a portion of the income is subject to an income or profits tax imposed by the government of a country other than Canada, the portion is deemed to be income from a separate source in the particular country.

Definitions

(6) For the purposes of this section, the definitions of "qualifying incomes", "qualifying losses" and "tax-exempt income" in subsection 126(7) of the Federal Act apply. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.32; 1993,c.11,s.16; 2000,c.12,s.2; 2003,c.10,s.11.

Subdivision j - Capital Gains Refund to Mutual Fund Trust

Capital gains refund to mutual fund trust

35. (1) Where an amount is to be refunded to a trust in respect of a taxation year pursuant to section 132 of the Federal Act, the Minister shall, subject to subsection (2), at such time and in such manner as is provided in that section, refund to the trust an amount (in this section referred to as its "capital gains refund" for the year) equal to the amount of the refund for the year calculated under subsection 132(1) of the Federal Act multiplied by the provincial percentage for the year.

Income earned outside Prince Edward Island

(2) For the purpose of computing the capital gains refund under subsection (1) for a trust in respect of a taxation year, where the trust had income earned in the taxation year outside Prince Edward Island, the refund shall be that proportion of the capital gains refund for the year, otherwise determined under subsection (1), that the trust's income earned in the taxation year in Prince Edward Island is of its income for the year.

(3) Instead of making a refund that might otherwise be made under subsection (1), the Minister may, where the trust is liable or about to become liable to make any payment under this Act, apply the amount that would otherwise be refunded to that other liability and notify the trust of that action. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.33; 1990,c.23,s.17; 1993,c.11,s.16; 2000,c.12,s.2.

DIVISION C - COMPUTATION OF TAX FOR CORPORATIONS

Subdivision a - Computation of Tax

37. (1) The tax payable by a corporation under this Part for a taxation year is 16% of the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island.

Tax payable by corporation

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if in a taxation year a corporation (other than a credit union or a corporation to which subsection 137.1(9) of the Federal Act applies) is eligible for a deduction under subsection 125(1) of the Federal Act, the tax payable by that corporation under this Part for that taxation year is equal to the amount determined by the formula

Where corporation eligible for small business deduction

$$(A \times B \times C/D) + (E \times (C - (B \times C/D)))$$

where

A is 7.5%;

B is the least of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraphs 125(1)(a),(b) and (c) of the Federal Act in respect of the corporation for the taxation year;
 C is the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island;
 D is the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in a province;
 and
 E is 16%.

Application (2.1) Subsection (2) applies in respect of a corporation's taxation year which ends before April 1, 2005.

Where credit union eligible for small business deduction (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if in a taxation year a credit union is eligible for a deduction under subsection 125(1) or 137(3) of the Federal Act, the tax payable by that credit union under this Part for that taxation year is equal to the amount determined by the formula

A is 7.5%;
 B is the least of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraphs 125(1)(a),(b) and (c) of the Federal Act in respect of the credit union for the taxation year, plus the amount, if any, by which the lesser of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraphs 137(3)(a) and (b) of the Federal Act exceeds paragraph 137(3)(c) of the Federal Act for the credit union for the taxation year;
 C is the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island;
 D is the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in a province;
 and
 E is 16%.

Application (3.1) Subsection (3) applies in respect of a credit union's taxation year which ends before April 1, 2005.

Application of Federal Act to rate (4) Repealed by 2006,c.33,s.1.

Taxable Income (5) For the purposes of this Division,
 (a) "taxable income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island" of a corporation means its taxable income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island as determined in accordance with Federal Regulations made for the purposes of the definition "taxable income earned in the year in a province" in subsection 124(4) of the Federal Act; and
 (b) "taxable income earned in the year in a province" is the amount determined for the corporation for the taxation year for the purposes of the definition “taxable income earned in the year in a province” in subsection 124(4) of the Federal Act. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. I-1, s.35; 1982,c.10,s.7; 1984,c.8,s.5; 1990,c.23,s.18; 2000,c.12,s.2; 2005,c.43,s.2; 2006,c.33,s.1.

37.1 (1) Notwithstanding subsections 37(1) and (2), if in a taxation year a corporation (other than a credit union or a corporation to which subsection 137.1(9) of the Federal Act applies) is eligible for a deduction under subsection 125(1) of the Federal Act, the tax payable by that corporation under this Part for that taxation year is equal to the amount determined by the formula

Where corporation eligible for small business deduction

$$(A \times B \times C/D) + (E \times (C - (B \times C/D)))$$

where

A is 6.5%;

B is the least of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraphs 125(1)(a), (b) and (c) of the Federal Act in respect of the corporation for the taxation year;

C is the corporation’s taxable income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island;

D is the corporation’s taxable income earned in the year in a province; and

E is 16%.

(2) Subsection (1) applies in respect of a corporation’s taxation year which begins on or after April 1, 2005 and ends before April 1, 2006.

Application

(3) Where a corporation to which subsection (1) applies has a taxation year part of which is before April 1, 2005 and part of which is on or after April 1, 2005 but not after March 31, 2006, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be calculated as follows:

Transitional

(a) by dividing the taxation year into two notional taxation years, the first ending on March 31, 2005 and the second beginning on April 1, 2005;

(b) by apportioning the taxable income earned in the taxation year between the two notional taxation years proportionately according to the number of days in each;

(c) by calculating

(i) tax for the first notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37(2), and

(ii) tax for the second notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37.1(1);

(d) by adding together the amounts determined under paragraph (c).

Idem

(4) Where a corporation to which subsection (1) applies has a taxation year part of which is before April 1, 2005 and part of which is on or after

April 1, 2006, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) by dividing the taxation year into three notional taxation years, the first ending on March 31, 2005, the second beginning on April 1, 2005 and ending on March 31, 2006, and the third beginning on April 1, 2006;
- (b) by apportioning the taxable income earned in the taxation year between the three notional taxation years proportionately according to the number of days in each;
- (c) by calculating
 - (i) tax for the first notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37(2),
 - (ii) tax for the second notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37.1(1), and
 - (iii) tax for the third notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37.3(1);
- (d) by adding together the amounts determined under paragraph (c). 2005,c.43,s.3; 2006,c.33,s.2.

Where credit union eligible for small business deduction

37.2 (1) Notwithstanding subsections 37(1) and (3), if in a taxation year a credit union is eligible for a deduction under subsection 125(1) or 137(3) of the Federal Act, the tax payable by that credit union under this Part for that taxation year is equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$(A \times B \times C/D) + (E \times (C - (B \times C/D)))$$

A is 6.5%;

B is the least of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraphs 125(1)(a), (b) and (c) of the Federal Act in respect of the credit union for the taxation year, plus the amount, if any, by which the lesser of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraphs 137(3)(a) and (b) of the Federal Act exceeds paragraph 137(3)(c) of the Federal Act for the credit union for the taxation year;

C is the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island;

D is the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in a province; and

E is 16%.

Application

(2) Subsection (1) applies in respect of a credit union's taxation year which begins on or after April 1, 2005 and ends before April 1, 2006.

Transitional

(3) Where a credit union to which subsection (1) applies has a taxation year part of which is before April 1, 2005 and part of which is on or after

April 1, 2005 but not after March 31, 2006, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) by dividing the taxation year into two notional taxation years, the first ending on March 31, 2005 and the second beginning on April 1, 2005;
- (b) by apportioning the taxable income earned in the taxation year between the two notional taxation years proportionately according to the number of days in each;
- (c) by calculating
 - (i) tax for the first notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37(3), and
 - (ii) tax for the second notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37.2(1);
- (d) by adding together the amounts determined under paragraph (c).

(4) Where a credit union to which subsection (1) applies has a taxation year part of which is before April 1, 2005 and part of which is on or after April 1, 2006, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be calculated as follows: Idem

- (a) by dividing the taxation year into three notional taxation years, the first ending on March 31, 2005, the second beginning on April 1, 2005 and ending on March 31, 2006, and the third beginning on April 1, 2006;
- (b) by apportioning the taxable income earned in the taxation year between the three notional taxation years proportionately according to the number of days in each;
- (c) by calculating
 - (i) tax for the first notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37(3),
 - (ii) tax for the second notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37.2(1), and
 - (iii) tax for the third notional taxation year in accordance with subsection 37.4(1);
- (d) by adding together the amounts determined under paragraph (c).
2005,c.43,s.3; 2006,c.33,s.3.

37.3 (1) Notwithstanding subsection 37(1), if in a taxation year a corporation (other than a credit union or a corporation to which subsection 137.1(9) of the Federal Act applies) is eligible for a deduction under subsection 125(1) of the Federal Act, the tax payable by that corporation under this Part for that taxation year is equal to the amount determined by the formula

Where corporation eligible for small business deduction

$$(A \times B \times C/D) + (E \times (C - (B \times C/D)))$$

where

- A is 5.4%;
- B is the least of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraphs 125(1)(a), (b) and (c) of the Federal Act in respect of the corporation for the taxation year;
- C is the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in Prince Edward Island;
- D is the corporation's taxable income earned in the year in a province; and
- E is 16%.

Application (2) Subsection (1) applies in respect of a corporation's taxation year which begins on or after April 1, 2006 and ends before April 1, 2007.

Transitional (3) Where a corporation to which subsection (1) applies has a taxation year part of which is before April 1, 2006 but not before April 1, 2005 and part of which is on or after April 1, 2006 but not after March 31, 2007, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) by dividing the taxation year into two notional taxation years, the first ending on March 31, 2006 and the second beginning on April 1, 2006;
- (b) by apportioning the taxable income earned in the taxation year between the two notional taxation years proportionately according to the number of days in each;

PART IV - COLLECTION OF TAX Subdivision a - Collection Agreement

Collection

85. (1) The Provincial Treasurer of Prince Edward Island, with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, may, on behalf of the Government of the Province of Prince Edward Island, enter into a collection agreement with the Government of Canada pursuant to which the Government of Canada will collect taxes payable under this Act on behalf of Prince Edward Island and will make payments to Prince Edward Island in respect of the taxes so collected, in accordance with such terms and conditions as the collection agreement prescribes.

(2) The Provincial Treasurer of Prince Edward Island, with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, may, on behalf of the Government of the Province of Prince Edward Island enter into an agreement amending the terms and conditions of a collection agreement entered into pursuant to subsection (1).

Amendment of Collection
Agreement

(3) When a collection agreement is in effect, the Minister of National Revenue for Canada, on behalf of, or as agent for, the Provincial Treasurer of Prince Edward Island, is hereby authorized to employ all the powers, to perform all the duties, and to exercise any discretion that the Provincial Treasurer of Prince Edward Island or the deputy head has under this Act, including the discretion to refuse to permit the production in judicial or other proceedings in Prince Edward Island of any document that it is not, in the opinion of the Minister of National Revenue for Canada, in the interests of public policy to produce.

Delegation to Federal Minister

(4) When a collection agreement is in effect, the Commissioner of Customs and Revenue may

Delegation to Commissioner of Customs and Revenue

(a) employ all the powers, perform the duties and exercise any discretion that the Minister has under subsection (3) or otherwise under this Act; and

(b) designate officers of the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency to carry out such functions, duties and powers as are similar to those that are exercised by them on behalf of the Commissioner of Customs and Revenue under the Federal Act. 2000,c.12,s.2.

Payments on Account

86. (1) A collection agreement may provide that where a payment is received by the Minister or Receiver General of Canada on account of tax payable by a taxpayer for a taxation year under this Act, the Federal Act or an income tax statute of another agreeing province, or under any two or more of such Acts or statutes, the payment so received may be applied by the Minister towards the tax payable by the taxpayer under any such Act or statute in such manner as may be specified in the agreement, notwithstanding that the taxpayer directed that the payment be applied in any other manner or made no direction as to its application.

Application of tax
payment

(2) Any payment or part thereof applied by the Minister in accordance with a collection agreement towards the tax payable by a taxpayer for a taxation year under this Act

Effect of application of
payment

(a) relieves the taxpayer of liability to pay such tax to the extent of the payment or part thereof so applied; and

(b) is deemed to have been applied in accordance with a direction made by the taxpayer. 2000,c.12,s.2.

When a collection agreement is in effect and an amount is remitted to the Provincial Treasurer pursuant to subsection 153(1) of the Federal Act, as it applies for the purpose of this Act, on account of the tax of an individual who is resident on the last day of the taxation year in another agreeing province, (a) no action lies for recovery of such amount by that individual; and (b) the amount may not be applied in discharge of any liability of that individual under this Act. 2000,c.12,s.2.
Where tax deducted in another province	88. (1) When a collection agreement is in effect, an individual resident in Prince Edward Island on the last day of the taxation year is not required to remit any amount on account of tax payable by the individual under this Act for the taxation year to the extent of the amount deducted or withheld on account of the individual's tax for that year under the income tax statute of another agreeing province.
Overpayment	(2) Where the total amount deducted or withheld on account of tax payable under this Act and under the income tax statute of another agreeing province by an individual resident in Prince Edward Island on the last day of the taxation year to whom subsection (1) applies exceeds the tax payable by the individual under this Act for that year, the provisions of the Federal Act that apply for the purposes of this Act because of section 54 apply in respect of such individual as though the excess were an overpayment under this Act. 2000,c.12,s.2.

Subdivision b - Non-agreeing Provinces

Definitions	89. (1) In this section,
adjusting payment	(a) “adjusting payment” means a payment, calculated in accordance with this section, made by or on the direction of Prince Edward Island to a non-agreeing province;
amount deducted or withheld	(b) “amount deducted or withheld” does not include any refund made in respect of that amount; and
non-agreeing province	(c) “non-agreeing province” means a province that is not an agreeing province.
Payment to non-agreeing province	(2) Where, in respect of a taxation year a non-agreeing province is authorized to make a payment to Prince Edward Island that, in the opinion of the Provincial Treasurer, corresponds to an adjusting payment, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may authorize the Provincial Treasurer to make an adjusting payment to that non-agreeing province and enter into any agreement that may be necessary to carry out the purpose of this section.

(3) When a collection agreement is in effect, an adjusting payment that may be made pursuant to subsection (2) may be made by the Government of Canada, where it has agreed to act on the direction of Prince Edward Island, as communicated by the Provincial Treasurer for Prince Edward Island to the Minister of National Revenue for Canada.

Adjusting payment by Government of Canada

(4) The adjusting payment to be made under this section shall be in an amount that is equal to the aggregate of the amounts deducted or withheld under subsection 153(1) of the Federal Act, as it applies for the purpose of this Act, in respect of the tax payable for a taxation year by individuals who

Computation of
adjusting payment

- (a) file returns under the Federal Act;
- (b) are taxable thereunder in respect of that year; and
- (c) are resident on the last day of that year in the non-agreeing province to which the adjusting payment is to be made.

(5) Where an adjusting payment is to be made to a non-agreeing province and there has been an amount deducted or withheld under subsection 153(1) of the Federal Act, as it applies for the purpose of this Act, on account of the tax for a taxation year of an individual who is taxable under the Federal Act in respect of that year and who is resident on the last day of that taxation year in the non-agreeing province,

Effect of adjusting
payment

- (a) no action lies for the recovery of such amount by that individual; and
- (b) the amount may not be applied in discharge of any liability of that individual under this Act.

(6) Where an adjusting payment to a non-agreeing province is to be made under this section for a taxation year, an individual resident in Prince Edward Island on the last day of the taxation year is not required to remit any amount on account of income tax payable, or that might have been payable, by the individual under this Act for the taxation year to the extent of the amount deducted or withheld on account of the individual's income tax for that year under the law of that non-agreeing province.

Further effect

(7) Where an adjusting payment to a non-agreeing province is to be made under this section for a taxation year and the total amount deducted or withheld on account of the tax payable under this Act and on account of the income tax payable under the law of the non-agreeing province by an individual resident in Prince Edward Island on the last day of the taxation year to whom subsection (6) applies exceeds the tax payable by

Overpayment by taxpayer

the individual under this Act for that year, the provisions of the Federal Act that apply for the purposes of this Act because of section 54 apply in respect of such individual as though the excess were an overpayment under this Act.

Manner of making
adjusting payment
where collection
agreement

(8) When a collection agreement is in effect and the Government of Canada has agreed in respect of a taxation year to carry out the direction of Prince Edward Island and to make an adjusting payment on behalf of Prince Edward Island, the adjusting payment

(a) shall be made out of any moneys that have been collected on account of tax under this Act for any taxation year; and

(b) shall be the amount calculated by the Minister to be the amount required to be paid under subsection (4), and the payment thereof discharges any obligation the Government of Canada may have with respect to the payment to Prince Edward Island of any amount deducted or withheld under subsection 153(1) of the Federal Act, as it applies for the purpose of this Act, to which subsection (5) applies. 2000,c.12,s.2.

Subdivision c - Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments

Reciprocal enforcement of judgments

90. (1) A judgment of a superior court of an agreeing province under that province's income tax statute, including any certificate registered in such superior court in a manner similar to that provided in subsection 65(2), may be enforced in the manner provided in the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. R-6.

Registration

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), where a judgment of a superior court of an agreeing province is sought to be registered under the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Act, such judgment shall be registered, notwithstanding that it is established that one or more of the provisions of section 3 of that Act apply.

Regulations

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations to enable the enforcement of judgments in respect of taxes in agreeing provinces to be enforced in Prince Edward Island. 2000,c.12,s.2.

Deemed
commencement
