- (b) affect the previous operation of the enactment so repealed or anything done or suffered thereunder;
- (c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued, accruing or incurred under the enactment so repealed;
- (d) subject to clause 33(1)(d), affect any offence committed against or a contravention of the provisions of the enactment so repealed, or any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of or under the enactment so repealed; or

(e) subject to clause 33(1)(b), affect any investigation, proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment, and subject to subsection 33(1), an investigation, proceeding or remedy as described in clause (e) may be instituted, continued or enforced and the penalty, forfeiture or punishment imposed as if the enactment had not been repealed. 1981,c.18,s.32.

Repeal and replacement

33. (1) Where an enactment (in this section called the “former enactment”) is repealed and another enactment (in this section called the “new enactment”) is substituted therefor,

(a) every person acting under the former enactment shall continue to act as if appointed or elected under the new enactment until another is appointed or elected in his stead;

(b) every proceeding commenced under the former enactment shall be continued under and in conformity with the new enactment so far as it may be done consistently with the new enactment;

(c) the procedure established by the new enactment shall be followed as far as it can be adapted thereto

(i) in the recovery or enforcement of penalties and forfeitures incurred under the former enactment,

(ii) in the enforcement of rights existing or accruing under the former enactment, and

(iii) in a proceeding in relation to matters that have happened before the repeal;

(d) when any penalty, forfeiture or punishment is reduced or mitigated by the new enactment, the penalty, forfeiture or punishment if imposed or adjudged after the repeal shall be reduced or mitigated accordingly;

(e) all regulations made under the former enactment remain in force and shall be deemed to have been made under the new enactment in so far as they are not inconsistent with the new enactment, until they are repealed or others made in their stead; and

(f) any reference in an unrepealed enactment to the former enactment shall, as regards a subsequent transaction, matter or thing, be construed as a reference to the provisions of the new enactment relating to the same subject matter as the former enactment, but where there are no provisions in the new enactment relating to the same subject matter, the former enactment shall be construed as being unrepealed in so far as is necessary to maintain or give effect to the unrepealed enactment.

Reference to repealed enactments
 of Canada

(2) Where an enactment of Canada is repealed in whole or in part and other provisions are substituted by way of amendment, revision or consolidation, a reference in an enactment of Prince Edward Island to the repealed enactment shall, as regards a subsequent transaction, matter or thing be construed to be a reference to the provisions of the substituted enactment relating to the same subject matter as the repealed enactment. 1981,c.18,s.33.

(3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, by regulation, repeal a regulation for which the statutory authority to make the regulation has been repealed, has expired or is spent. 2000,c.13,s.1. Repeal of regulations

34. (1) The repeal of an enactment in whole or in part, the repeal of an enactment and the substitution therefor of another enactment or the amendment of an enactment shall not be construed to be or to involve No implications from repeal

- (a) a declaration that the enactment was or was considered by the Legislature or other body or person by whom the enactment was enacted to have been previously in force; or
- (b) a declaration as to the previous state of the law.

(2) The amendment of an enactment shall not be construed to be or to involve a declaration that the law under the enactment prior to the amendment thereof was or was considered by the Legislature or other body or person by whom the enactment was enacted to have been different from the law as it is under the enactment as amended. Amendment does not imply a change in law

(3) A re-enactment, revision, consolidation or amendment of an enactment shall not be construed to be or to involve an adoption of the construction that has by judicial decision or otherwise been placed upon the language used in the enactment or upon similar language. 1981, c.18, s.34. Judicial construction not adopted

35. (1) Where any provision of an Act which comes into force on proclamation is enacted prior to the coming into force of the new law and repeals or amends any provision of the old law or inserts any new provision therein, the repeal, amendment or insertion made by that provision to or in terms of the old law shall be deemed to have been made to or in terms of the corresponding provision of the new law with effect from the date on which the relevant provision of that Act is proclaimed. Effect of revision on unproclaimed Acts

(2) In subsection (1) Definitions

“new law” means the Revised Statutes of Prince Edward Island 1974 or any subsequent revision of the statutes of Prince Edward Island;

“old law” means the statutes in force prior to the coming into force of the Revised Statutes of Prince Edward Island 1974 or of any subsequent revision of the statutes of Prince Edward Island. 1981, c.18, s.35.
