ADMINISTRATION

- 2. (1) The Minister is charged with the administration of this Act and the revenue Acts. Administration
- (2) There shall be a Provincial Tax Commissioner and one or more inspectors for the purposes of this Act, the revenue Acts and any other Provincial Tax Commissioner enactment that confers functions upon the Commissioner or the inspectors.

Functions

(3) The Commissioner shall act under the instructions of the Minister and have general supervision over all matters relating to the administration of this Act and the revenue Acts.

Execution of documents

(4) The Commissioner may, in the course of his employment, recover taxes payable pursuant to this Act or a revenue Act, and execute all documents and affidavits necessary for the proper administration of this Act or a revenue Act. 1990,c.54,s.2; 2006,c.30,s.7.

LIABILITY AND ASSESSMENT

Liability of taxpayer

3. (1) Subject to the regulations, a taxpayer is liable for a tax until it has been paid.

Assessment of tax

(2) The Commissioner may from time to time and at such intervals as he may consider reasonable, determine and assess and reassess any tax payable under a revenue Act by any taxpayer and thereupon the tax so assessed or reassessed becomes due and payable by the taxpayer.

Estimate of tax due from taxpayer

(3) Where a taxpayer fails to
 (a) pay a tax; or
 (b) substantiate his payment by his records,
 the Commissioner may estimate the unpaid tax and such estimated amount shall thereupon be deemed to be the amount of the tax due and payable by the taxpayer.

Notice of assessment

(4) The Commissioner shall serve personally or send by registered mail to the taxpayer at his latest known address a notice of assessment setting out the amount assessed under subsection (2) or estimated under subsection (3), and in the case of a taxpayer having more than one address, one of which is within the province, the notice of assessment may be sent to the address in the province.

Incorrect assessment

(5) Liability to assessment is not affected by an incorrect or incomplete assessment or by the fact that no assessment has been made.

Validity

(6) Any assessment made is, subject to being varied or vacated on reconsideration, objection or appeal, and subject to a reassessment, valid and binding notwithstanding any error, defect, or omission therein or any proceeding under this Act or a revenue Act relating thereto.

Affidavit of service

(7) An affidavit or statutory declaration by a person serving or mailing a notice pursuant to subsection (4) stating that he has mailed or served the notice is proof that the amount stated in the notice is due and owing and the onus of proving otherwise rests on the taxpayer.

(8) This section applies notwithstanding any provision in a revenue Act. 1990,c.54,s.3; 1999,c.44,s.1; 2005,c.18,s.1.

Application

COLLECTION

4. (1) Every collector who collects any tax is deemed to hold the same in trust for the payment over of the same in the manner and at the time provided under this Act, and the amount, until paid, forms a lien and charge on his entire estate or on the entire assets of his estate in the hands of any trustee, and such lien or charge has priority over all other claims of any person.

Tax deemed to be held in trust

(2) The amount of tax collected by a collector shall be deemed to be held separate from and form no part of the estate or assets of the collector, whether or not the amount of the tax has in fact been kept separate and apart from the estate or assets of the collector. 1990,c.54,s.4.

Tax deemed to be kept separate

5. (1) All taxes collected by and deposits made with a collector under a revenue Act shall be remitted to the Minister at such time and such manner as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Remittance of tax

(2) In the event of failure on the part of a collector to collect a tax he shall immediately notify the Commissioner. 1990,c.54,s.5.

Failure, notice to Commissioner

6. A collector shall be paid such allowance or commission for his services in collecting and remitting a tax, and in receiving and remitting deposits to the Minister as the regulations may prescribe. 1990,c.54,s.6.

Commission

7. (1) Every collector shall make such returns to the Commissioner and shall keep such records in such form and containing such information as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Records and returns

(2) Every person who, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is a wholesaler, manufacturer or importer shall keep such records and forward to the Commissioner such copies or extracts therefrom at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may require. 1990,c.54,s.7.

Records, wholesaler etc.

8. (1) When a collector fails to make a return or remittance under this Act, or collect tax under a revenue Act, or if his returns are not substantiated by his records, the Commissioner may make an estimate of the amount of the tax collected by, or the tax that should have been collected by, and the deposits made with such collector which he has not

Estimate of tax due from collector

remitted, and the estimated amount shall thereupon be deemed to be the amount of the tax collected by and the deposits made with the collector that he has not remitted.

Notice of estimate

(2) The Commissioner shall serve personally or send by registered mail a notice in writing to the collector, his heirs, executors or assigns or to the custodian or trustee in bankruptcy of the assets of his estate, setting out the amount estimated pursuant to subsection (1) and requiring that the estimated amount be paid over to the Minister within seven days of the day on which the notice was served or sent by mail.

Direction for immediate payment

(3) Repealed by 2005,c.18,s.2.

Affidavit of service

(4) An affidavit or statutory declaration by a person serving or mailing a notice pursuant to subsection (2) stating that he has mailed or served the notice is proof that the amount stated in the notice is due and owing and the onus of proving otherwise rests on the collector. 1990,c.54,s.8; 2005,c.18,s.2.

OBJECTION AND APPEAL

Notice of objection

9. (1) Where a person considers that he is not liable to taxation under a revenue Act or disputes liability for the amount assessed against him, he may, within sixty days of the date of service or mailing of the notice of assessment serve on the Commissioner a notice of objection setting out the reasons for the objection and all relevant facts.

Service

(2) A notice of objection is sufficiently served if delivered to the office of the Commissioner or sent by registered mail addressed to the Commissioner.

Reconsideration

(3) The Commissioner shall, within sixty days of receipt of the notice of objection, reconsider the assessment or estimate and vacate, confirm or vary it, and he shall thereupon notify the objector of his decision by registered mail.

Application to Real Property Transfer Tax Act

(4) For greater certainty, this section applies in respect of the tax payable under the Real Property Transfer Tax Act and a reference in this section to

(a) an “amount assessed” or an “assessment or estimate” shall be construed to include the tax payable under the Real Property Transfer Tax Act; and

(b) the “date of service or mailing of the notice of assessment” shall be construed to include the date on which a deed to real property is tendered for registration at a registry office. 1990,c.54,s.9; 2005,c.18,s.3.

- 10. (1) If the taxpayer or collector is dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner under subsection 9(3), he may, within thirty days from the date of mailing of the decision, appeal to the Island Regulatory and Appeals Commission hereafter referred to as the “Commission”.
- Appeal to Commission
- (2) Any appeal shall be commenced by serving upon the Commission a notice of appeal in writing setting out the grounds of the appeal and stating briefly the facts relative thereto.
- Notice of appeal to
Commission
- (2.1) The grounds of an appeal set out in a notice of appeal shall be limited to the reasons raised by the taxpayer in a notice of objection filed under subsection 9(1).
- Grounds of appeal
- (3) A notice of appeal is sufficiently served if delivered to the office of the Commission or sent by registered mail addressed to the Commission.
- Service
- (4) On the hearing of the appeal both the appellant and the Commissioner are entitled to appear and be heard and to submit further evidence.
- Parties
- (5) The Commission may, in writing, designate a person to act on its behalf and hear an appeal under this section and any reference in this section to the Commission includes a person so designated.
- Designation of person to hear
appeal
- (5.1) No grounds of appeal shall be considered by the Commission other than the grounds of appeal set out in the notice of appeal.
- Consideration of grounds only
- (6) Upon any appeal, the Commission may affirm, vary or reverse the decision of the Commissioner and shall give the appellant written notice of its decision by registered mail. 1990,c.54,s.10; 1991,c.18,s.22; 1996,c.36,s.1; 1997,c.71,s.1; 2002,c.40,s.1.
- Decision
- 11. Repealed by 1994,c.50,s.6.
- Appeal to Supreme Court
- 12. Neither the giving of a notice of objection or a notice of appeal by any person nor any delay in the hearing of an appeal shall in any way affect the due date, the interest or penalties, or any liability for payment provided under this Act or a revenue Act, in respect of any moneys due and payable to the Government that are the subject matter of the objection or appeal, but in the event of the estimate of the Commissioner being set aside or reduced on appeal, the Minister shall refund the amount or excess amount which has been paid to the Government and any additional interest or penalty paid thereon. 1990,c.54,s.12.
- Payment of tax not postponed by appeal

RECOVERY OF TAX

Certificate of tax due	13. (1) Where (a) default (i) has been made in the payment of any tax that has been assessed under this Act or a revenue Act, or (ii) has been made by a collector in remitting any moneys collected or received, or that a collector is deemed to have collected or received on behalf of the Government; (b) the Commissioner has sent a registered letter to the collector demanding payment of the amount due and payable; and (c) 30 days has expired from the date that the registered letter was sent, the Commissioner may issue a certificate stating (d) the name of the person by whom the tax is payable; (e) the facts referred to in clause (a); and (f) the amount due and payable on the date of the certificate, including interest, if any, and penalty, if any.
Exception	(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subsection (1), the certificate referred to in that subsection may be issued forthwith where the Commissioner considers it necessary or advisable to do so.
