CANADA CHILD TAX BENEFIT APPLICATION

Use this form to apply for the Canada Child Tax Benefit (CCTB), to register your children under the age of 19 for the goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax (GST/HST) credit, or both.

Note: The information you give on this form will be used for both programs, unless you indicate otherwise on an attached note.

If you are the person who is primarily responsible for a child under the age of 18, you can apply for the CCTB for that child. For CCTB purposes, when both a male and a female parent live in the same home as the child, we presume that the female parent is primarily responsible for the child and should apply, unless a note from the female parent is attached to this application that states that the male parent is primarily responsible for the child. Complete this form as soon as possible after the child is born or begins to live with you, or when you become a resident of Canada. This form is also used to determine if you can get benefits or credits from provincial or territorial programs we administer. See pamphlet T4114, Your Canada Child Tax Benefit, for more details about the CCTB.

Complete schedule RC66SCH, Status in Canada/Statement of Income, if you or your spouse or common-law partner:

- became a Canadian citizen in the last 12 months;
- are a permanent resident, protected person (refugee), or temporary resident (who has lived in Canada for the previous 18 months), as defined in the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act; or
- became a new resident or returned as a resident of Canada in the last 2 years.

Does your application for CCTB include a period that started more than 11 months ago? Yes No

If yes, and any of the three conditions above apply to that period, complete schedule RC66SCH, Status in Canada/Statement of Income. If yes, and none of the three conditions above apply to that period, you must attach to this application a legible photocopy of proof of your and your spouse or common-law partner's citizenship (e.g., Canadian birth certificate) for that period.

Part 1 – Information about the applicant

When both a male and female parent reside in the same home, we usually consider the female parent to be the applicant.

Separated

You are separated when you start living separate and apart from your spouse or common-law partner because of a breakdown in the relationship for a period of at least 90 days and you have not reconciled.

In addition, an individual immediately becomes your common-law partner if you previously lived together in a conjugal relationship for at least 12 continuous months and you have resumed living together in such a relationship. Under proposed changes, this condition will no longer exist. The effect of this proposed change is that a person (other than a person described in 2) or 3) above) will be your common-law partner only after your current relationship with that person has lasted at least 12 continuous months. This proposed change will apply to 2001 and later years.

Note: Separated status begins on the first day of the period (at least 90 days) in which you lived apart.

Living common law

You have a common-law partner and are living common law if you are living in a conjugal relationship with a person who is

Use the checklist on the back of this page to be sure you have filled out all the proper sections. You will also find information on where to send your completed form and a section to apply for direct deposit for your CCTB payments.

Part 6 – Direct deposit

- If you do not have direct deposit for your CCTB payments and you want to start, provide the banking information requested below. If you do not have direct deposit for your income tax refund or GST/HST credit and you want to start, or you have it and want to change the account information, complete Form T1-DD(1), Direct Deposit Request – Individuals.
- If you have direct deposit for your CCTB payments for other children and your account information has not changed, you do not need to complete this part. If your account information has changed, provide the banking information requested below.
- If you have direct deposit for your tax refund and GST/HST credit payments and you want your CCTB payments deposited into the same account, check this box. If you want your CCTB payments deposited into a different account, do not check the box. Provide the banking information requested below

Banking information

If you checked the box above, do not provide your banking information.

Attach a blank cheque with the banking information encoded on it and write "VOID – CCTB" or complete the banking information requested below. To find these numbers, see your passbook, bank statement, encoded deposit slip, or cheque, or contact your financial institution.

Branch number (5 digits)	Institution number (3 digits)	Account number (12 digits maximum)	Name of financial institution

If you use direct deposit for your CCTB payments, we will automatically deposit (into the same account) any payments from related provincial or territorial benefit and credit programs that we administer.

Your direct deposit request will stay in effect until you change the information or cancel the service. However, your payments may stop if you move and do not give us your new address.

If you are changing any account into which we deposit a payment, do not close the old account before we deposit the payment into the new account. If your financial institution tells us that you have a new account, we may deposit your payments into the new account. If we cannot deposit a payment into your account, we will mail a cheque to you at the address we have on file.

Additional information

Where to send your completed form

Send us your completed form and any required documents in the envelope included with your package. If you do not have the preprinted envelope, send them to one of our tax offices. You can find the addresses on our Web site at www.cra.gc.ca/benefits or in pamphlet T4114, Your Canada Child Tax Benefit.

CCTB

Checklist

We want to process your completed form as soon as we can. Be sure to do the following:

- Sign this form. If you are married or living common law, your spouse or common-law partner must also sign this form.
- Complete all parts of the form that apply to you and to your spouse or common-law partner.
- Complete and attach the schedule Status in Canada/Statement of Income if it applies to you or to your spouse or common-law partner.
- Attach legible photocopies of all required documents (such as immigration documents and proof of birth).

We can only calculate your CCTB if you and your spouse or common-law partner have filed a return for the previous year (if you were a resident of Canada in that year). To continue getting the CCTB, you both have to file a return every year that you are a resident in Canada, even if you have no income to report. However, if your spouse or common-law partner is a non-resident, he or she must report his or her income on Form CTB9, Canada Child Tax Benefit Statement of Income.
