

INVESTMENT TAX CREDIT (INDIVIDUALS)

Use this form if:

- you earned an investment tax credit (ITC) during the current tax year or you are claiming a carryforward of ITC from a previous tax year. File one completed copy of Part A of this form with your income tax return for the year in which you acquired a qualified or certified property, made a qualified expenditure (which includes contributions made to agricultural organizations), or were allocated renounced Canadian exploration expenses;
- you have a recapture of ITC on a scientific research and experimental development (SR&ED) expenditure. File one completed copy of Part A of this form with your income tax return for the year in which you recapture an ITC on an SR&ED expenditure; or
- you are requesting an ITC carryback or you are claiming a refund for an ITC earned during the current tax year. File one completed copy of Part B of this form with your income tax return.

You have to file this form no later than 12 months after the filing due date of your income tax return for the tax year in which you acquired the property or made the expenditure.

Qualified property includes certain new buildings, machinery, and equipment. You must acquire the property and use it for a designated purpose such as logging, storing grain, producing industrial minerals, manufacturing or processing goods for sale or lease, farming, or fishing. It must be used in the specific areas we list on the next page.

Certified property is a type of qualified property acquired mainly for use in a prescribed area. You will find a list of prescribed areas in Information Circular IC78-4, Investment Tax Credit Rates, and its Special Release. For more details on certified property, see Note 1 on the next page.

Qualified expenditure

To be a qualified expenditure, the amount has to be for SR&ED carried on "in Canada". For SR&ED expenditures made after February 22, 2005, the expression "in Canada" includes the "exclusive economic zone" (as defined in the Oceans Act to generally consist of an area that is within 200 nautical miles from the Canadian coastline), including the airspace, seabed and subsoil in respect of that zone. For SR&ED expenditures made prior to February 23, 2005, the expression "in Canada" generally includes the 12-nautical-mile territorial sea. If you are claiming an ITC for a qualified expenditure on SR&ED, or you have a recaptured amount for an ITC previously claimed on an expenditure for SR&ED (codes 3B and 4B), file Form T661, Claim for Scientific Research and Experimental Development (SR&ED) Carried out in Canada, with your income tax return. You do not have to file Form T661 if you are claiming a credit for contributions made to agricultural organizations, or a credit based on a credit allocated to you by a partnership on a T5013 slip, Statement of Partnership Income. If you are a partner of a partnership, you should only include your part of the partnership's investment or expenditure. For more details on SR&ED, see the following publications:

- T4088, Claiming Scientific Research and Experimental Development - Guide to Form T661
- Information Circular IC86-4, Scientific Research and Experimental Development
- Interpretation Bulletin IT-151, Scientific Research and Experimental Development Expenditures

Renounced Canadian exploration expenses

Certain renounced Canadian exploration expenses qualify for the ITC. You can claim this credit if you received Form T101, Statement of Resource Expenses, with an amount in box 128, or a T5013 slip, Statement of Partnership Income, with an amount in box 128.

NOTE: This amount must be reduced by any allowable provincial tax credits.

Apprenticeship Job Creation Tax Credit (AJCTC)

Under proposed changes, a percentage of salaries paid to an employee registered in a prescribed trade in the first two years of their provincially registered apprenticeship contracts qualifies for a credit for the employer. The available amount for each employee is 10% of the eligible salary and wages payable to the apprentice after May 1, 2006, or $2,000, whichever is less. The total of these amounts for all apprentices is the available credit.

How to calculate your ITC

The ITC is based on a percentage of the investment cost (the cost of the property you bought and the expenditures you made). If you received any reimbursement, inducement, or government or non-government assistance (including grants, subsidies, forgivable loans, or deductions from tax and investment allowances) that we can reasonably consider to relate to the property or expenditure, you have to decrease your investment cost by the amount you received. If you repay any of this assistance, add the repayment to the investment cost. Calculate the credit for any repayment using the same percentage you used for the original investment cost.

Determine your credit at the end of 2006. If the fiscal year-end of your business is in 2006, include any credit you earn on the property you buy during the calendar year. Investments and expenditures are eligible for an ITC only when the income from the related business is subject to Part I tax.

Properties acquired, and SR&ED capital expenditures incurred to acquire property, are eligible for an ITC claim only when the properties are considered to be available for use. For an explanation of available for use, see any of the following guides: Business and Professional Income, Farming Income, Farming Income and the CAIS Program, Farming Income and the CAIS Program Harmonized Guide or Fishing Income.

How to claim your 2006 ITC

You can use the credit that you earn in 2006 to reduce your federal tax for a previous year, or to reduce your federal tax for 2006 or for a future year. See also "Refund of ITC" on the back of this page.

Current-year claim – To calculate your claim to reduce your federal income tax for 2006, complete Part A of this form. Enter the amount of your credit on line 412 of Schedule 1 of your income tax return. If a partnership or trust made the investments, enter only your share.

Carryback to previous years – You can carry back the credit you earn in 2006 for up to three years and use it to reduce your federal tax in those years. To do this, complete Part B of this form.

Carryforward to future years – You can carry forward for up to ten years a credit you earn before 2006 that was not refunded to you, or that you did not use to reduce federal tax in prior years. You can carry forward for up to 20 years a credit you earn in 2006 that was not refunded to you, or that you did not use to reduce your federal tax in 2006 or in the three previous years. Therefore, you lose any credits earned prior to 2006 if you do not use them within 10 years of earning them while credits earned after 2005 will expire within 20 years.

Property bought or expenditures made before 2006

You may be able to apply unused ITCs from expenditures or acquisitions made from 1996 to 2005 on your 2006 income tax return. To do this, complete Part A of this form.

Refund of ITC

If you do not use all of your ITC to reduce your taxes in the year or in the three previous years, we may refund up to 40% of your unused credit to you in cash. You can only claim this refund in the year you buy property or make an expenditure that qualifies for the credit, unless the available-for-use rules (or other rules deeming the expenditure to have been made in a later year) apply. To claim a refund of ITC, complete Part B of this form. Enter your refund amount on line 454 of your income tax return. If a partnership or trust made the investments, enter only your share of the amount.

Adjustments

The credit you claim or that we refund to you for 2006 reduces the capital cost of the property. Any 2006 credit you carry back to a previous year will also reduce the capital cost of the property. Make this adjustment in 2007. This adjustment reduces the capital cost allowance you can claim for the property. It also affects your capital gain when you dispose of the property. You might have claimed a credit or received a refund for 2006 for a property that you already disposed of. In addition, you might still have other property in the same class. If so, reduce the undepreciated capital cost of the class for 2007 by the amount of the credit you claimed or received as a refund. If, after the disposition, you do not have any property left in the same class, include in your 2007 income the amount of the credit you claimed or received as a refund. Enter the amount as other income on line 9600 if you are filing form T2042, T1163, T1164, T1273 or T1274. Enter it on line 8230 if you are filing form T2032 or T2124.

Other adjustments

A credit deducted or refunded will also reduce the balance in the SR&ED pool, the adjusted cost base (ACB) of an interest in a partnership, and the ACB of a capital interest in a trust in the next tax year.

Partnership

If you are a partner of a partnership, include only your part of the partnership investment or expenditure. An ITC earned by a partnership is usually allocated to a partner. However, an ITC earned on qualified SR&ED expenditures may not be allocated to a specified partner of a partnership.

If you received an allocation of ITC from a partnership, use the credit and the rate to calculate your share of the investment cost or expenditure. Enter this cost or expenditure on the line corresponding to the appropriate rate.

You have to deduct any amount of the refundable ITC designated as a carryback when you calculate your ITC refund and the balance to carry forward to tax years that follow.

To request a carryback, complete this section and attach one copy of this form to your current-year income tax return.

Note:
We do not refund an amount you designate as a carryback in the current year. Do not enter the amount on your income tax return.
