

Complete this schedule if you are applying for the CCTB, and you or your spouse or common-law partner:

- became a Canadian citizen in the last 12 months;
• are a permanent resident, protected person (refugee), or temporary resident (who has lived in Canada for the previous 18 months) as defined in the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act; or
• became a new resident or returned as a resident of Canada in the last 2 years.

Note: If your application includes a period that started more than 11 months ago, you must attach to this schedule proof of your and your spouse or common-law partner's status for that period. If your application period is less than 12 months, do not give us proof of your status in Canada. However, we may ask for it at a later date.

New or returning residents:

If you are not sure whether you are a resident of Canada for income tax purposes, complete Form NR74, Determination of Residency Status (Entering Canada), and include it with your application. We will give you an opinion about your residency status. You can get this form and other Canada Revenue Agency forms from our Web site at www.cra.gc.ca/forms or by calling 1-800-959-2221.

Applicant's name []

Social insurance number []

Spouse/common-law partner's name []

Social insurance number []

Part A - Citizenship status

If you or your spouse or common-law partner became a Canadian citizen in the last 12 months, enter your citizenship start date

Grid for citizenship start dates for You and Your spouse or common-law partner, including Year, Month, and Day columns.

If your application includes a period that started more than 11 months ago, you must attach photocopies of your and your spouse or common-law partner's citizenship papers for that period. The copies must be legible and include both sides of all pages of your papers.

Part B - Immigration status

If, in the last 12 months, you or your spouse or common-law partner was a permanent resident, or became a protected person or a temporary resident, enter the start dates in the areas below.

If your application includes a period that started more than 11 months ago, you must attach photocopies of your and your spouse or common-law partner's immigration papers that apply to that period. The copies must be legible and include both sides of all pages of your papers.

Permanent resident

Grid for Permanent resident start dates for You and Your spouse or common-law partner.

Protected person (refugee)

Grid for Protected person (refugee) start dates for You and Your spouse or common-law partner.

Temporary resident who has lived in Canada throughout the last 18 months

For each visitor record, employment authorization, student authorization, Temporary Resident's Permit, or extension to a Temporary Resident's Permit that covers the period after your 18 months of residency (other than permits that state "does not confer status"), enter the start date and the expiry date for you and your spouse or common-law partner in the spaces provided below. If you need more room, use a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form.

Grid for Temporary resident start and expiry dates for You, including Document 1 and Document 2.

Grid for Temporary resident start and expiry dates for Your spouse or common-law partner, including Document 1 and Document 2.

Other (specify): []

Part C – Residency status

For information about residency status, see the front of this schedule.

New residents of Canada

Enter the date you became a resident of Canada

You
Year	Month	Day

Your spouse or common-law partner
Year	Month	Day

Returning residents of Canada

Enter the Canadian province or territory in which you resided before you left Canada

--

--

Enter the date you became a non-resident of Canada

Year	Month	Day

Year	Month	Day

Enter the date you became a resident of Canada again

Year	Month	Day

Year	Month	Day

Part D – Statement of income

Complete this part if you or your spouse or common-law partner became a new resident of Canada or returned as a resident of Canada.

Show all income in Canadian dollars from all sources inside and outside Canada. Do not include income that you have reported on a Canadian tax return. If you had no income, enter "0".

Step 1: Enter the year that you became a resident of Canada. Also, show your income and that of your spouse or common-law partner from January 1 to the date you both became residents in that year. If your spouse or common-law partner did not become a resident of Canada in this year, leave that Income box blank. You will need to report his or her income for this year on Form CTB9, Canada Child Tax Benefit – Statement of Income, early in the following year, when it is known.

Year	You Income (dollars only)	Your spouse or common-law partner Income (dollars only)
	$	$

Step 2: Enter one year before the year that you indicated in Step 1, and show your income and that of your spouse or common-law partner for that year.

Year	You Income (dollars only)	Your spouse or common-law partner Income (dollars only)
	$	$

Go to Step 3 only if you became a resident of Canada from January to May inclusive (in the year you entered in Step 1).

Step 3: Enter two years before the year that you indicated in Step 1, and show your income and that of your spouse or common-law partner for that year.

Year	You Income (dollars only)	Your spouse or common-law partner Income (dollars only)
	$	$

You and your spouse or common-law partner must each file a Canadian tax return for the period after you became residents of Canada. For each year your spouse or common-law partner is a non-resident of Canada, he or she will have to complete Form CTB9, Canada Child Tax Benefit – Statement of Income.

Part E – Certification

If you are married or living common law, your spouse or common-law partner also needs to sign this form.

I certify that the information given on this form is, to the best of my knowledge, correct and complete.

Applicant's signature _____ Date _____

It is a serious offence to make a false statement.

Spouse or common-law partner's signature _____ Date _____

It is a serious offence to make a false statement.

If you cannot get your spouse or common-law partner's signature, please explain:
