Application for a Veteran Plate Terms and Conditions

1. Definition

For the purpose of this application a Veteran means “any person who has honourably:

- served for a minimum of three years (may still be serving) in the Canadian Armed Forces, or the armed forces of another Commonwealth country or of a wartime ally of Canada or another Commonwealth country;
- served in the Merchant Navy or Ferry Command during wartime;
- served in a theater of war as a member of the Canadian Armed Forces, or the armed forces of another Commonwealth country or of a wartime ally of Canada or another Commonwealth country; or
- performed NATO service or a peacekeeping mission as a member of the Canadian Armed Forces or the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.”

2. Application

Application forms for a Veteran plate are available at any Access P.E.I. office in Prince Edward Island.

Applicants are required to send the “Application for Veteran Plate Registration” form to Access P.E.I., along with proof of eligibility.

The applicant must submit the certified application form to an Access P.E.I. office for the issuance of a veteran plate.

3. Types of Plates

Veteran plates will be issued, in sequential order, for passenger vehicles up to 3859 kg.

4. Fee

The registration fee for a Veteran plate will be the standard fee associated with the class and weight of vehicle being registered, plus an additional $5 fee at the time of issuance. For future renewals, regular plate renewal fees will apply.

Applicants may apply to replace their current regular alpha-numeric licence plate with a Veteran plate, at any time, (if eligible) by returning their current plate and paying a fee of $5. Applicants do not have to wait until their current plate expires.
