INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING AN APPLICATION

STEP 1. Determine Whether Your Organization Is Eligible

You may apply for funding under this program if you are:

- a Canadian, non-profit, national organization involved directly or indirectly in producing, marketing, distributing or preparing food or drink for human consumption, or

Only systems that deal with food products for human consumption, as well as related inputs that would affect food safety or food quality, such as animal feed, are eligible for funding. For more information, please see the Canadian Food Safety and Quality Program (CFSQP) brochure, which can be found at: <http://www.agr.gc.ca/foodsafetyandquality>. You may also request a copy by e-mail at cfsqp-pcsqa@agr.gc.ca or by contacting the CFSQP office at the address shown below.

Note: For on-farm food safety projects, the organization must agree to participate in the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA) On-Farm Food Safety Recognition Program. For more information, please consult the CFIA website at <http://www.inspection.gc.ca>.

STEP 3. Complete The Application Form

This application form is available in hardcopy by contacting the CFSQP office at the address shown below or by downloading the PDF form from the CFSQP website at <http://www.agr.gc.ca/foodsafetyandquality>.

PART D - PROJECT ACTIVITIES BUDGET

1. Budget - CFSQP funding will be provided only for incremental, eligible costs directly related to the project. You must provide detailed costing for each activity that you identify, detail description of activity e.g. some examples are: - conference - cost of room - food - hotel - travel - advertising, etc. and the costs associated with each of those items.

Incremental means the increase in expenditures as a direct result of the project being undertaken.

Eligible costs include: costs of goods and services; costs for materials and supplies; federal and provincial taxes, including the non-refundable portion of GST; costs for audits and performance reporting as required by CFSQP; cost of rental or lease of facilities, equipment or machinery; costs for labour or salaried services and related employment costs; other costs approved in advance by the Director, Food Safety and Quality Programs. Costs associated with travel (car, plane, train) and accommodation must not exceed Treasury Board guidelines. For a copy of the most recent guidelines, please contact CFSQP office.

Projects are to be cost-shared as described in Part B - Question 5. Therefore, Industry Cash / Industry In-kind and Other sources must amount to the correct funding ratio for the phase requested. Costs of translation and audits do not have to be considered under the cost-sharing required for the phase but must still be within the funding cap of that phase.

In-kind contributions are defined as non-monetary contributions that defray the total cost of the initiative or project, including the provision of labour or services, or equipment required in the planning, conducting or managing of a project. The applicant must consider a "reasonable" rate as per what is generally accepted in the industry. Applicants will be required to track and provide proof of in-kind contributions to CFSQP. Examples: direct cost of staff time on the project, participants/stakeholders time on the project (# of participants X $value X hour/day) e.g. 12 participants X $250/day X 2 day = $6,000.00. The CFSQP office can provide more details, if they are needed.

Reports and public documents developed as part of a project must be available in both official languages; translation costs are an eligible expense and should be itemized in your proposed budget.

- Contribute to increased consumer confidence in the safety and quality of food produced in Canada; and
- Assist the industry in its ability to seek out and capture value-added opportunities by adopting national food safety, food quality and traceability systems.

Principles

To be eligible for funding, project proposals must:

- Be within the mandate of Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada;
