

Agreement on Social Security between Canada and Cyprus

Qualifying for Canadian and Cypriot benefits

The Agreement

The Agreement on Social Security between Canada and Cyprus came into force on May 1, 1991.

The Agreement may help you qualify for Canadian and Cypriot old age, disability or survivor benefits.

Social security legislation and agreements are complex. This sheet contains only general information and may not describe all the provisions that apply to your situation.

Qualifying for a Canadian benefit

The Canadian pension programs included in the Agreement are the Canada Pension Plan and the Old Age Security program.

Under the Canada Pension Plan, you can receive a benefit when you retire or if you become disabled. The Plan may also pay benefits to your survivors after you die.

To qualify for a benefit, you normally must have contributed to the Plan, which came into force on January 1, 1966, for a minimum period.

If you do not qualify for a Canada Pension Plan benefit, Canada will consider periods of contribution to the pension program of Cyprus as periods of contribution to the Canada Pension Plan.

The Old Age Security program covers most persons who live or have lived in Canada. The Old Age Security pension is payable at the age of 65 to persons who meet certain residence conditions. To qualify for this pension in Canada, you normally must have lived in this country for at least 10 years after the age of 18. You normally need 20 years of residence in Canada after the same age to receive an Old Age Security pension outside Canada.

What happens if you do not qualify for a Canadian Old Age Security pension because you have not lived in Canada for the minimum number of years? Under the Agreement, Canada will consider periods of residence in Cyprus after the age of 18 as periods of residence in Canada.

Qualifying for a benefit from Cyprus

The pension program of Cyprus is similar to the Canada Pension Plan and covers most employed and self-employed persons in Cyprus.

To qualify for a benefit under the pension program of Cyprus, you normally must have contributed to the program for a minimum period. For example, to qualify for a Cypriot old age pension, you normally must have been credited with contributions to the program for at least three years and have insurable earnings greater than a prescribed level.

Qualifying for Canadian and Cypriot benefits

If you have not contributed to the program for the minimum period, you may not qualify for a Cypriot benefit. However, to determine eligibility for a Cypriot old age pension under the Agreement, Cyprus will consider periods of contribution to the Canada Pension Plan and periods of residence in Canada after the age of 18 as periods of contribution to the pension program of Cyprus. To determine eligibility for Cypriot disability and survivor benefits, Cyprus will consider periods of contribution to the Canada Pension Plan as periods of contribution to the pension program of Cyprus.

Payment of your benefits

You may qualify for a benefit from Canada or Cyprus, or both. Under the Agreement, each country will pay a benefit based solely on your periods of contribution or periods of residence under its pension program.
