

THE CANADA COUNCIL FOR THE ARTS

Profile of Funding in British Columbia, 1997-98

Planning and Research The Canada Council for the Arts April 1999

FUNDING IN BRITISH COLUMBIA, 1997-98

- In 1997-98, the Canada Council for the Arts provided grants worth $12.1 million to the arts in British Columbia. This includes over $1.9 million in new funding in 1997-98.
- In addition to grants, over $1 million in payments was provided to 718 authors through the Public Lending Right Program<sup>1</sup>.
- This brings the total amount of Canada Council funding to B.C. to over $13.1 million.
- The Council awarded $9.8 million to 203 arts organizations<sup>2</sup> and almost $2.4 million went to 235 artists
- Grants were awarded in every discipline dance, music, theatre, visual arts, media arts (film, video and new media) and writing and publishing. The largest amounts of funding went to music ($3.1 million), followed by writing and publishing ($2.3 million) and theatre ($2 million).
- Over $9 million in Council funding went to artists and arts organizations in Vancouver, making up 75% of funding going to the province. Victoria received $1.2 million (10% of the total). The remaining communities received over $1.9 million (15% of the total).
- B.C. artists and arts organizations received 13% of Canada Council funding. In comparison, the province makes up 13% of individuals in professional and technical occupations in arts and culture and 13% of the Canadian population.
- 96 B.C. artists and arts professionals served as peer assessors in 1997-98, making up 15.9% of all peer assessors.
- According to the 1996 Census, there are 44,975 British Columbians in professional and technical occupations in arts and culture<sup>3</sup>, up 23% from 36,465 in 1991.
