ABOUT THE GREEN SOURCE

Our goal is to help create healthy, sustainable communities, or “communities which can sustain and regenerate themselves through economic self-reliance, community control and environmentally sound development.” (No Place Like Home, Marcia Nozick). This funding guide is one of the many resources produced by Environment Canada’s EcoAction funding program to help Canadian communities take action on environmental issues.

There are numerous sources of funding and resources for environmental projects available, but finding them can be time consuming and frustrating. This guide is designed to facilitate this process. It includes information on programs and organizations that provide assistance in the form of funding, labor cost contributions or in-kind donations to community groups undertaking environmental projects. Some of the programs also fund community health initiatives.

This guide is updated annually and we are pleased to inform you that this edition contains programs/organizations not listed previously. As programs come and go, please contact us should you be aware of a source of assistance not listed in our guide.

The information in this guide is organized by:

- Program Name; and
- Type of Sponsor: federal government, provincial government(s), private sector, non-profit sector, foundations.

A brief, one-page information summary on each program/organization is provided in alphabetical order. Unless otherwise specified, it should be assumed that the program is applicable across Canada. The information, although not comprehensive, offers a general overview of each source of assistance. We update this guide each year but program specifications and requirements often change. You should always contact the program sponsor before applying for funding to verify that the information that you have is up-to-date and double-check important details such as deadlines. You will also want to get in touch with the sponsor to ensure that you have all the information you need to submit a successful application.

In addition to the programs listed in this guide, there may be other sources of support available in your community. Here are a few listed for your reference:

- Canadian Centre for Philanthropy: <http://www.ccp.ca>
- Charity Village: <http://www.charityvillage.com>
- Environmental Grantmakers Association: <http://www.igc.apc.org/ega/members.html>
- Manitoba Culture, Heritage and Tourism, Recreation and Wellness Promotion Branch: publishes a grants and resources manual. For more information write to: Culture, Heritage and Tourism, Recreation and Wellness Promotion, 6th Floor - 213 Notre Dame Avenue, Winnipeg, MB R3B 1N3, Phone: (204) 945-4402

BEFORE YOU GO KNOCK ON DOORS FOR FUNDING

You identified an environmental problem that you would like to solve. Working with a group of individuals, you studied every facet of the problem and considered several solutions. A number of questions came up (What are the targeted objectives? What are the phases that lie ahead and the schedule to be followed? How much will all this cost? Who will have to play a role? What licenses, permits and/or authorizations are required? Is the project technically and financially feasible? What will be its environmental repercussions?). Having answered these questions, you are ready to act: you have a project.

SELLING A PROJECT

- 1) First of all, paint a good portrait of your own organization and identify its assets: its objectives; its usual areas of activity; its influence; the beneficiaries of its activities; and the members of your project implementation team. An examination of your project in the light of the resources at your disposal within your organization will make it easier for you to identify what type of assistance you require.
- 2) After completing the preliminary resource needs identification, prepare a list of potential partners. Assistance can take the form of money, human resources (paid or volunteer), in-kind donations in the form of space, equipment, and professional services. The list is a long one. You can judge for yourself:
 - your organization: its members, volunteers and workers; take advantage of their time and skills, and of the funding activities which they may organize (benefit nights, raffles, sales, etc.);
 - local social agencies and recreational associations (service clubs, guides and scouts, hunting associations, fishing associations, riparian residents' associations, committees) sometimes have objectives that intersect with yours, and your project could be of interest to them;
 - municipalities (elected officials, employees, regional counties and various committees) can be a source of funding, as well as technical expertise, administrative support, and the loan of equipment and space. Some municipalities receive financial assistance for environmental projects whose delivery they assign either in whole or in part to local organizations;
 - local and regional businesses are also potential partners that can share their knowledge with you and give you discounts, if they see any benefit to it. Some chambers of commerce provide management consulting services and certain large companies have sponsorship budgets;
 - the media may agree to help you in your communication activities, either by producing reports and articles or by offering you discount prices on information dissemination;
 - professional or union associations may wish to participate in your project;
 - academic institutions (schools, colleges, universities, school boards, students, teachers and unions) are an important source of assistance: student internships and research work, as well as the loan of personnel, space and equipment should be examined;
 - the residents of your locality, once they are aware of your project, may be a source of considerable project support;
 - financial institutions interested in helping to improve their environment distribute financial or technical assistance locally;
 - potential revenues from the project (sale of recyclable materials, compost, documents, etc.);
 - federal and provincial governments programs;
 - grants from organizations in the private sector and from non-profit organizations.
- 3) Check to ensure that your project's objectives are compatible with those of the selected programs and organizations. Each organization has its own specific areas of interest, territory, eligibility criteria and mode of operation. It will be necessary for you to take appropriate steps to obtain relevant information. Most have leaflets and forms; some can only be reached by mail, while others can be contacted in person.
- 4) Once you have gathered all of your information and have selected a number of sources from which you hope to receive a positive response, develop your strategy so as to maximize your chance of success and avoid wasting time. Draft a document reflecting the seriousness of your project and demonstrating your organization's ability to see it through to completion. Test your project by meeting with officials of several organizations in order to verify their interest, obtain their opinion and revise your approach if necessary.
- 5) You now know on exactly which doors to knock. The first step consists in selling your project in your community in order to find allies and obtain support from your community. A case that is well presented improves your chances. Clarity and conciseness are required. If your project is complex, you may wish to include a one-page summary with your application. Government programs use forms, but this is less frequent in the case of foundations and community organizations. In most cases, the following information is required:
 - description of the organization: charter, history, accomplishments, membership, latest financial statement;

- project: problem to be solved, description of the environment, proposed solutions, location and context of implementation, targeted objectives, planned works, work plan and schedule, budget, follow-ups, responsible officials;
 - communications strategy: target audience, message, planned communication methods;
 - funding: requested funding, other sponsors and their contributions;
 - support: letters of support and of confirmation of funding;
 - miscellaneous: appendices if necessary, including maps, plans and photographs;
 - charitable registration number: essential for foundations.
 - terms and conditions: in all cases, stated requirements and closing dates must be respected.
- 6) Response time varies from one program to the next, but it is generally at least three months. Have patience, because these organizations receive numerous applications.
- 7) If you receive a positive reply (and a cheque!), send charity donation receipts to those who require them. In addition, a letter of thanks is always appreciated.
- 8) In other cases, particularly when governments are involved, you will have to sign a contribution agreement before you can start your project and receive allocated funds.
- 9) Submit whatever project progress reports are required and draft a final report. All of these formalities are time-consuming, but they will enable you to keep better control over the conduct of your project and help you to reach your objectives. It is vital that you complete your project. And who knows...you may have another project to sell in the near future!

ADDITIONAL TIPS ON APPLYING FOR FUNDING

Do Your Homework

- Know your donor organization.
- Know the key contact in the organization.
- Know the program criteria.
- Always call, if possible, and set up a meeting if you can.

Know What You Are Asking For

- Why are you approaching this particular funder?
- Are you asking for an in-kind donation, cash or both? How much?
- What are you offering the funder? An opportunity to support their community, a sponsorship opportunity or a partnership opportunity?
- How can you distinguish yourself? How can you show that you and your project are unique and creative?

Build Relationships

- Build relationships; start off small.
- Recognize your supporters. Remember to say thank you.
- Maintain relationships.

Prepare A Strong Proposal

- Show how the work you do directly benefits the community.
- Show how the project will live on after you have finished.
- Be concise, clear and concrete. Have a well throughout proposal.
- Know and include the name and contact information of the current contact person.
- Include a cover letter.
- Make sure there are no typos or other mistakes.
- Do not include a lot of unnecessary information.
- Follow-up with a phone call; if you did not get funding, ask why?

Keep Current

- Find out what funding programs are out there. New programs are created every year; others are discontinued.
- Read newspapers; find out about new companies and ideas.

And last but not least – Don't give up!

Agriculture and Environmental Resource Conservation Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Prince Edward Island Departments of: Agriculture and Forestry, Fisheries, Aquaculture and Environment.

What is the Program About?

The Agriculture and Environmental Resource Conservation Program (AERC) is a three-year program (1999-2002) designed to assist producers in making their farm operations more productive and sustainable, while achieving compliance with any new or existing environmental protection legislation. The program will provide financial and technical assistance for a wide range of on-farm conservation projects.

Who Can Apply?

All owners of agriculture land in Prince Edward Island may apply.

What Projects can be Funded?

Manure storage; soil conservation; fencing and watering; hedgerows; pesticide and fuel storage; deadstock composting; milkhouse waste management.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The maximum assistance that can be given to any one eligible applicant in each fiscal year will be up to $30,000. No multi-year projects will be considered. However, applicants could be eligible for additional funding in the following years of the program.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Applicants are being accepted for projects in 2001. Program ends March 31, 2002.

What is the Program About?

The Blue School Program is an International Year of the Ocean venture launched in 1998 to stimulate student participation in educational activities that enhance learning about the value and health of the world's oceans. The program will be in effect until 2003. Schools can help save our seas by registering as a Blue School and then developing and carrying out a "Blueprint for Ocean Action." Each year, when the Canadian Wildlife Federation is informed of your progress, your school will receive a medallion signifying your commitment to oceans.

Who Can Apply?

Any class, from kindergarten through to high school, or an entire school may enroll in this program. Organized youth groups such as Scouts, Guides and 4-H groups may also apply.

What Projects can be Funded?

Freshwater shoreline improvement along any lake, river or stream; saltwater (ocean) shoreline improvement; wetland habitat restoration; riparian habitat restoration.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

If your school needs a financial boost to get started, you can apply for financial assistance. You must be registered as a Blue School. Funding is limited to a maximum of $200 per class and $500 per school. Funds are available for supplies needed for projects: native plants and trees, seeds, hardware, lumber, and signs. Common hand tools and clothing are not eligible. Long-term projects are eligible for funding each year.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Schools may register as a Blue School at anytime. Further details on the criteria for registering as a Blue School are available from the address provided below. The Blue School Fund Selection Committee meets in the spring and fall and evaluates all applications for funds according to a point system. Special consideration is given to the age level and number of students involved in the project, its complexity and the extent of community and or volunteer support.

Columbia Basin Fish & Wildlife Compensation Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

BC Hydro and the Government of British Columbia (Ministry of Water, Land & Air Protection).

What is the Program About?

The program's primary objective is to conserve and enhance fish and wildlife populations affected by BC Hydro dams in the Columbia Basin.

Who Can Apply?

Individuals or organizations.

What Projects can be Funded?

Projects must demonstrate they directly address habitat enhancement or indirectly address habitat and population issues resulting from the impacts of BC Hydro dams in the Columbia Basin. Four types of activities will be considered for funding by the Program:

- inventory and assessment, to describe the current situation;
- design and planning, to define how the current situation can be improved;
- enhancement or restoration activities;
- follow-up evaluation and monitoring to ensure goals are met.

The Program will support projects that complement and do not duplicate the work of other ministries, agencies and organizations, and that involve partnerships with other groups whenever possible.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

There are two types of funding. The Large Project Application is designed for more complex and scientifically rigorous projects that could be multi-year and have an annual budget greater than $10,000. The Small Project Application is geared toward local community groups requesting technical expertise and funding up to $10,000 for a one-year project. The Program has set aside $50,000 annually for these small works projects.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Application deadline is August 1, but applications for small projects will be considered year-round, depending on available funding.

Community Animation Program (CAP) Quebec Region

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Environment Canada and Health Canada.

What is the Program About?

The purpose of the Community Animation Program is to build the capacity of community groups to make the links between, and take action on, issues involving human health and the environment.

Who Can Apply?

Non-governmental and non-profit groups interested in health and/or environmental issues.

What Projects can be Funded?

The implementation of health and environment-related activities. The three following approaches will be prioritized:

- Facilitation: discussion groups; evaluating needs and/or resources in the community; identifying priorities in keeping with the resources available; developing a strategic plan.
- Training: health/environment links; facilitation techniques; evaluation methods; mobilizing partners from various sectors.
- Information: producing information tools (reports, reviews, guides, directories, etc.) on health/environmental links; providing specific financial support to hire resource persons from health- and environment-related fields, in particular sustainable development; obtaining advice on ways to support your group's work, such as evaluation and developing partnerships.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Due to a limited budget and the desire to support the greatest number of community initiatives as possible, the maximum projects contribution can reach $20,000.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

There is no fixed deadline. You will be informed of the final decision as soon as possible but a six week period is required, as a standard at the beginning spring. Visit the website at <http://www.qc.ec.gc.ca/pac> for additional information.

Community Animation Project (CAP) Atlantic Canada

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Environment Canada and Health Canada.

What is the Program About?

CAP aims to strengthen and support community groups in Atlantic Canada to: identify, understand, and take action on issues that link human health and the physical environment.

Who Can Apply?

If you are a non-profit community group interested in or working on an issue that involves both human health and the environment, you are welcome to apply.

What Projects can be Funded?

Groups can apply to CAP for training, facilitation or specific resources:

- Training - on topics such as pesticides, water quality, air quality, climate change, and organizational development issues such as fundraising, marketing and conflict resolution.
- Facilitation - a professional facilitator to facilitate a workshop for you or help your group with tasks such as conducting a visioning exercise or strategic planning.
- Information - materials such as books and videos on health/environment issues, or capacity-building topics such as board development.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

To ensure a wide distribution of CAP resources, the maximum value of support provided per request is kept to about $2,000.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

A Management Team meets monthly to review applications. Applications are due on the 15th of each month. Applications are reviewed during the third or fourth week of the month.

Conservation Corps - Newfoundland and Labrador

Who is the Program Sponsor?

The Conservation Corps is a not-for-profit organization incorporated in 1992. The Conservation Corps receives funding from Government of Newfoundland and Labrador and from a wide network of community and corporate partners.

What is the Program About?

The Conservation Corps provides expertise, training and employment opportunities in the areas of environmental and cultural heritage enhancement and conservation. The flagship of the Conservation Corps is the Green Team Program. Green Teams are groups of four young people aged 16 to 27 who work on projects throughout the province to acquire training and work experience. Any group with an environmental or cultural heritage project can apply to the Conservation Corps for assistance in planning, education and training, management and implementation of the project. If a project is accepted, a Green Team will be hired to work on the project for up to seven weeks during the summer.

Who Can Apply?

Community and rural development groups, municipalities, non-profit organizations, volunteer organizations, government departments, educational and research institutes within Newfoundland and Labrador are eligible. The private sector can become involved through a corporate-partner program.

What Projects can be Funded?

Those that result in long-term environmental benefits and provide skills to young people can be funded. This includes: habitat conservation; restoration and enhancement; communication and education; research; and cultural heritage enhancement. Projects that contribute significantly to the environment, community or province and provide a learning experience for a Green Team will receive priority from the Conservation Corps.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The Conservation Corps will provide 75% of Green Team costs such as salaries and benefits, training and travel. Project partners must provide the additional 25% cash contributions and all project materials and equipment for the completion of the project.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Mid-February of each year. Interested groups must fill out a project proposal form, which can be obtained from the address below.

Development Information Program (DIP)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA).

What is the Program About?

The Development Information Program (DIP) is designed to promote public awareness and understanding of international development issues, as well as of the important role that Canadians play in developing countries and countries in transition.

Who Can Apply?

The Program contributes to innovative communications activities initiated by journalists, film and video producers, universities, non-government organizations (NGOs), and other organizations whose projects inform large numbers of Canadians about how Canada's development assistance benefits people in developing countries.

What Projects can be Funded?

TV and radio production, magazine articles and newspaper features, exhibitions, journalists' exchanges, and other communications activities are eligible. All projects must:

- address a priority international development issue as outlined in the Guidelines for Submitting Proposals;
- stress the unique contributions made by Canadians in developing countries or countries in transition; and
- target a Canadian market.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

$250,000 per project, but almost all projects are funded for less.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

The Program issues at least one Request For Proposals (RFP) every year. For specific dates, contact the Development Information Program.

Donner Canadian Foundation

Who is the Program Sponsor?

The Donner Canadian Foundation.

What is the Program About?

The foundation promotes research and debate on the role of government in the economy and on the responsibilities of citizenship. One of the key issues focused on is the environment.

Who Can Apply?

Eligibility is restricted to organizations that have a registered charity number under the Income Tax Act of Canada. For consideration, applicants should send a one- to two-page description of their projects. The letter should explain the aims of the project, the methodology, and what the applicant hopes to achieve. A brief outline of the proposed budget should also be included. All project ideas are vetted at an early stage to ascertain their potential interest to the foundation. A decision regarding the foundation's interest in seeing a full proposal will be communicated within eight to ten weeks.

What Projects can be Funded?

The foundation supports projects that are innovative and that seek to advance the common good by encouraging independence, individual responsibility and industriousness. Successful proposals have a national or wide regional impact and identify new approaches to resolving existing problems. Grants are available for: specific projects; workshops, seminars, conferences and publications when they are components of a larger project; projects that do not fall under the terms of reference of other funding agencies; and, rarely, experimental ventures for which seed funding may not be readily available.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Varies; assessed on a project-by-project basis.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Preliminary letters and full proposals are considered throughout the year.

EcoAction Community Funding Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Environment Canada.

What is the Program About?

EcoAction is an Environment Canada program that provides financial support to community groups for projects that have measurable, positive impacts on the natural environment.

Who Can Apply?

Non-profit, non-government groups.

What Projects can be Funded?

Priority for funding is given to projects in three areas:

- clean air and climate change: projects that help improve air quality, for example, by reducing emissions that contribute to smog, climate change and ozone depletion;
- clean water: projects that reduce and divert the use of toxic substances, such as pesticides and hazardous household products, that affect water quality; and
- nature: projects that protect wild animals and plants, and protect and improve the places where they live.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

A maximum of $100,000 for a period of up to 2 years. However, the average amount is about $25,000. At least half of total funds must come from sponsors other than the federal government.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

There are two application deadlines a year: February 1st and October 1st.

Endangered Species Recovery Fund (ESRF)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

World Wildlife Fund Canada and Environment Canada's Canadian Wildlife Service.

What is the Program About?

It sponsors conservation projects to help the recovery of endangered wildlife and their natural habitats in Canada. Wildlife is considered to be any non-domestic plant or animal that is native to Canada. Priority goes to projects that will result in conservation action.

Who Can Apply?

Non-government organizations such as universities, natural history societies, research institutes or non-profit conservation groups are eligible. Independent consultants can also apply. Applicants must bring at least 50% of the project budget in matching funds.

What Projects can be Funded?

Practical, applied work such as:

- support for recovery teams and the development of a recovery plan for endangered species;
- introduction and captive breeding programs; and
- practical field work and public awareness programs that lead to the recovery and protection of a nationally designated extirpated, endangered, threatened, or vulnerable species.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

ESRF will fund up to one half of total project costs up to a maximum of $25,000 per request. Average funding is $5,000 to $10,000.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

The deadline is in early January each year. If you are interested in applying, you should contact the World Wildlife Fund (WWF) office for dates. Application information is also available on the WWF website.

Endswell Foundation

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Endswell Foundation.

What is the Program About?

The Endswell Foundation mission is the long term preservation and sustainability of British Columbia. Endswell supports a long-term view of the human footprint on the earth—seeking respectful relationships with natural systems and all species.

Who Can Apply?

Charitable organizations registered with Revenue Canada in British Columbia.

What Projects can be Funded?

The Foundation supports projects that contribute to the goal of preservation and sustainability in British Columbia. Some of the major funding priorities include:

- reduction of wasteful and destructive practices and consumption by individuals and society;
- extensive preservation of biodiversity and habitat, both terrestrial and marine life;
- extensive preservation of wild spaces and reduced damage by development and resource extraction pressures, while respecting ancient use pattern;
- sustainable agriculture and food security;
- education of youth in a stewardship ethic; and
- safe air, clean drinking water, and freedom from exposure to toxic substances for all sectors of society.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Varies.

Environment and Sustainable Development Program (ESDP)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA).

What is the Program About?

ESDP seeks to encourage and support Canadian not-for-profit environmental organizations (ENGOS) to develop partnerships and to share their knowledge and experience with similar organizations in developing countries through the implementation of environmentally-focused development projects which contribute to Canada's development priorities. ESDP is coordinated by the Scholarships and Environment section within the Institutional Development Agency's Canadian Partnership Branch.

Who Can Apply?

Canadian ENGOS, or a network or coalition of ENGOS. The ENGO must work in partnership with a similar non-governmental organization in a developing country. The Canadian partner must be registered as a non-profit organization and must have been operating for the previous two years.

What Projects can be Funded?

Environmental projects in developing countries, designed to meet real community needs with a practical hands-on approach to finding environmentally sound solutions to development problems; build and strengthen the capacity of developing country partner organizations to manage environmental challenges; contribute to poverty reduction; and promote changes towards ecologically sustainable lifestyles. Projects and programs funded by the ESDP usually relate to one of the following environmental factors:

- Forests and Biodiversity
- Production, Consumption and Waste Recycling
- Land Degradation and Food Security
- Environmental Toxics Regulations
- Urban Greening
- Energy and Atmosphere
- Water, Oceans, Fisheries and Coastal Zones.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

ESDP projects and programs operate on a cost-sharing basis where the Canadian ENGO partner must match ESDP's contribution 1:3 (i.e. $25,000 ENGO to ESDP's $75,000).

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Proposal deadlines are usually April 1 and October 1. Applications for eligibility are accepted year round. ENGOS must be judged eligible for funding before submitting a project proposal. CIDA's publication "Environment and Sustainable Development Program Criteria and Guidelines" is available for applicants.

Environment Fund

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Mountain Equipment Co-op (MEC).

What is the Program About?

It supports Canadian-based environmental groups doing activities concerned with environmental conservation and wilderness protection. The aim of the Environment Fund is to help preserve the environment and educate the public about environmentally responsible use of the outdoors.

Who Can Apply?

Non-profit and charitable groups.

What Projects can be Funded?

Categories of projects supported: land acquisitions for conservation; advocacy and educational projects which advance conservation and environmental causes; projects that facilitate public access to and/or recreational use of areas having significant recreational or wilderness value to Mountain Equipment Co-op members; environmental research projects; and studentships. MEC does not usually fund urban projects.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Land acquisition grants will be awarded up to an average of $100,000 annually. The range for other projects funded is generally from $2,000 to $10,000.

Environment Youth Team (E-Team)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

The E-Team is a British Columbia government program, administered by the Ministry of Water, Land and Air Protection.

What is the Program About?

The E-Team creates opportunities for young people aged 16 to 24 to gain skills and work experience while completing projects with a conservation, outdoor recreation or environmental focus.

Who Can Apply?

Employers apply to the E-Team office for funding. Local governments, First Nations, school districts, non-profit organizations and businesses are all encouraged to apply. Organizations must be British Columbia based and operational for at least one year. Employers post all approved positions at local Human Resources Canada centres and on the Youth Options BC Web site. Interested youth apply directly to the employers to fill the positions.

What Projects can be Funded?

The program funds projects with a conservation, outdoor recreation or environmental focus. Past projects have included building trails, creating urban organic gardens, enhancing salmon habitat, studying whales and educating the public about environmental issues. Employers are required to provide support costs such as training, supplies, travel and other related expenses. At least 20 percent of project time must be dedicated to training.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

E-Team funding varies depending on the number of youth hired, the nature of the project and the amount employers contribute.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

The application deadline has not yet been set for the April 1, 2002 to March 31, 2003 E-Team. Please contact the E-Team office if you would like to be notified about application dates.

Environmental Leadership Program (ELP) - Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Nova Scotia Youth Conservation Corps (Youth Corps); Conservation Corps of Newfoundland and Labrador; Canada World Youth; New Brunswick Community College - Miramichi; and Taller Internacional de Servicios in Costa Rica.

What is the Program About?

The main objective of the ELP is to foster the concept that environmental and social issues transcend geographical boundaries, and that people must cooperate to create and maintain a healthy global environment. As part of the ELP team, young people will share their knowledge, experience and skills in helping the environment, while working in Canada and in Costa Rica. During the first 7-8 weeks, youth take part in environmental and development workshops and work on environmental projects in Costa Rica. The second phase of the program (8-9 weeks) takes place in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick or in Newfoundland and Labrador. Each participant joins a crew to work on an environmental project in their own community, using the skills they developed in Costa Rica.

Who Can Apply?

Youth ages 21-24 in Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and Labrador and New Brunswick (students at the New Brunswick Community College in Miramichi).

What Projects can be Funded?

Only students interested in doing environmental projects in their home province and in Costa Rica are eligible; funding is not given for specific projects.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Participants will receive a weekly allowance in Costa Rica and in Canada. All travel to and accommodations in Costa Rica will be paid, and at the completion of the program each participant will receive an honorarium. Host families receive financial support to cover expenses associated with providing food and lodging for the exchange participants.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

February. A call for applications will be sent to newspapers and student employment centres in January. To apply, send a résumé and cover letter to the provincial partner in your home province. Describe what you expect to gain, and what you can contribute to the program.

Environmental Youth Corps (EYC) - Manitoba

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Manitoba Conservation.

What is the Program About?

The EYC offers Manitoba's young people an opportunity to voluntarily participate in community-based, innovative projects that will help to improve and protect Manitoba's environment, as well as prepare youth for the environmental challenges of tomorrow by helping them gain valuable education and experience today.

Who Can Apply?

Charitable and non-profit organizations; environmental organizations; service clubs and schools; and local government organizations, including municipalities, aboriginal organizations and First Nation communities. Individuals and groups excluded from the above list may submit a joint application with an eligible applicant. Groups are encouraged to form partnerships with local businesses, municipalities or other groups.

What Projects can be Funded?

Grant funds are available for Manitoba based environment-related projects having a voluntary and educational component that support local action for sustaining the environment, provide hands-on experience for youth up to the age of 24, and instill the importance of voluntary community involvement. Projects must address concerns relating to environmental protection, enhancement, rehabilitation, conservation, and/or resource management. Projects must demonstrate voluntary youth participation where possible.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Maximum grant per individual project is $5,000.

Fisheries Renewal BC - Development and Diversification Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Fisheries Renewal BC.

What is the Program About?

The goal of the Development and Diversification Program is to encourage new ideas that will lead to sustainable businesses and jobs, more year-round fisheries work, and stronger fishing communities. Projects under this program will ideally contribute to developing new fisheries, increasing the value of existing fisheries, or increasing work and value of seafood in British Columbia.

Who Can Apply?

The lead applicant should have a history of relevant involvement in B.C.'s fisheries. Government agencies, research institutions, foreign corporations and consultants cannot be the lead applicant. Co-applicants may include: seafood industry businesses, associations or groups (including fishers, processors, labour groups, aquaculturists, distributors and others); sport fishing industry businesses, associations or groups; First Nations; tourism and marketing organizations; communities and other local governments; science and research institutions; and other interested parties.

What Projects can be Funded?

The Program is designed to provide cost-shared funding for a range of activities, including but not limited to:

- developing and diversifying value-added products and services;
- developing new and under-utilized fisheries;
- improving selective harvesting technologies or techniques;
- improving seafood waste reduction and by-product utilization;
- improving seafood quality and food safety initiatives;
- developing better, environmentally friendly, food manufacturing processes;
- encouraging the development of closed containment fish farming systems and other Green technology;
- developing and transferring new technology;
- investigating regional and community fisheries opportunities; and
- other opportunities that will lead to economic expansion of any sector of the fishing industry.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Assistance is available in the form of conditional grants (between 25% and 75% of the total eligible actual project costs, or up to a maximum of $150,000, whichever is less). Higher levels of funding will be awarded to projects that demonstrate the strongest partnerships and greatest levels of sectoral benefits.

Forest Research Partnerships Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Canadian Forest Service, Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council, and Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada.

What is the Program About?

The broad objectives of this program are to promote the sustainable development of forests, the forest industry, and the communities that depend on the forests. It is intended that the research will help integrate environmental, social and economic values, while allowing stakeholders to better understand the complexity of the ecosystem and the importance of this valuable natural resource.

Who Can Apply?

Eligible university researchers can apply. The three partners will provide funding for university-based research that involves collaboration with Canadian-based businesses, the forest industry, provincial and territorial agencies, private sector forest agencies and organizations, Aboriginal organizations, non-government organizations and environmental groups.

What Projects can be Funded?

CFS, NSERC and SSHRC will together provide funding for forestry-related, university-based research that involves collaboration with Canadian-based non-academic users of research results in both the public and private sectors.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Projects are funded according to a matching funds formula. CFS/NSERC/SSHRC may contribute a maximum of two dollars for every dollar invested by the supporting organization(s). The program does not automatically match partner contribution. In order for the total external contribution to qualify for matching funds, at least 50 percent must come from Canadian-based profit-making organizations.

Great Lakes Sustainability Fund Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Government of Canada. Program is administered by Environment Canada on behalf of eight federal departments.

What is the Program About?

The Great Lakes Sustainability Fund assists with the remediation and eventual delisting of Canada's remaining 16 Areas of Concern (AOCs) by supporting remedial programs and techniques to restore water quality and other AOC beneficial uses, in partnership with other government and non-government stakeholders. Priorities include contaminated sediment remediation, habitat rehabilitation, rural non-point source pollution control and watershed stewardship, and urban stormwater and wastewater treatment.

Who Can Apply?

Government organizations, conservation authorities, non-government organizations, environmental groups (incorporated), and universities.

What Projects can be Funded?

The program provides technical and financial support for the implementation of cost-efficient environmental technologies and solutions to help restore designated pollution "hotspots" around the Great Lakes basin, known as Areas of Concern (AOCs).

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Program is $6 million annually for 5 years starting 2000. The Fund supports one-third of project costs.

Green Municipal Enabling Fund

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Federation of Canadian Municipalities and the Government of Canada.

What is the Program About?

The Green Municipal Enabling Fund (GMEF) is a $25 million fund that provides grants to support feasibility studies.

Who Can Apply?

GMEF is open to Canadian municipalities and their public-sector or private-sector partners.

What Projects can be Funded?

Feasibility studies must explore projects that would improve air, water or soil quality, protect the climate or promote the use of renewable resources. The projects must also show potential for significant improvements in environmental performance or energy efficiency in:

- municipal buildings and facilities;
- energy services and renewable energy;
- water supply, sewage treatment or storm run-off management;
- solid waste management; and
- public transportation services, advanced public transit technologies or municipal fleets.

Studies must add to the national knowledge base on innovative technologies or practices and their regional implementation. The projects they study must have potential to generate significant, measurable and verifiable results, both environmental and economic.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Grants cover up to 50% of eligible costs to a maximum grant of $100,000.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Deadline for Intent to apply is in February and September with application deadlines in April and October. Please refer to the website for further details.

Green Municipal Investment Fund (GMIF)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Federation of Canadian Municipalities.

What is the Program About?

GMIF is a permanent revolving fund that supports the implementation of innovative environmental projects. GMIF also provides up to $2 million a year towards grants for pilot projects that are highly innovative. These projects must have the potential for significant impact and replication on a regional or national basis.

Who Can Apply?

The Green Municipal Investment Fund (GMIF) is open to Canadian municipalities and their public-sector or private-sector partners.

What Projects can be Funded?

Projects must improve air, water or soil quality, protect the climate or promote the use of renewable resources. They must also significantly improve environmental performance or energy efficiency. They must fall under one of the eligible categories:

- energy;
- buildings;
- water;
- waste; and
- transportation.

Projects will implement at least one environmentally innovative approach and must add to the national knowledge base on innovative technologies or practices and their regional implementation. They must generate measurable and verifiable results, both environmental and economic. These results depend on taking a systems approach, where governments assess the full life cycle of the municipal service and focus on reducing pollution and waste at the source.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Varies, depending on the project.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Applications are accepted each fall and spring. An Intent to Apply form is available from the Web site at <http://www.fcm.ca> during these periods.

Hydro-Québec Foundation for the Environment

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Hydro-Québec.

What is the Program About?

The Foundation offers three specific programs: conservation and restoration of Quebec's natural habitats; support for measures to deal with local and community environmental problems; enhancement of the distinctive environmental characteristics of Hydro-Québec properties.

Who Can Apply?

To be eligible, an organization must have offices in Canada and must be a charity, a non-profit organization, or an organization that can show the initiative it submits is in the interest of all the communities it targets rather than of a personal nature or for profit.

What Projects can be Funded?

Only initiatives that fall under one of the Foundation's three programs will be considered. An initiative is defined as a project of an environmental nature with significant tangible results in the field and for the communities and regions of Quebec. Basic activities, promotional endeavours, studies, inventories, and other projects that benefit the environment only indirectly will not be eligible. Moreover, projects arising from legal requirements will not be considered.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

There is no fixed minimum or maximum amount for grants to local organizations. The appropriateness of the amounts requested will be evaluated in light of the objectives.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Project proposals must be received by October 1 of each year for approval the following January. In general, project implementation should take a maximum of one year.

Indian Environmental Assistance Fund

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Indian and Northern Affairs Canada.

What is the Program About?

It provides funding, through its regional offices, to First Nations to address major environmental issues of an operational nature affecting reserve land, water or air and areas used for traditional practices like hunting, trapping and fishing. Funding is also available for participation in environmental assessment processes for activities on and off reserve lands which could harm Indian lands. Funding is only given when groups approach Indian and Northern Affairs as a last resort. Letters of request for funding from the group, and response letters of refusal of funding from other sources are required.

Who Can Apply?

Indian bands, tribal councils in all provinces, Innu and Inuit of Labrador, and other associations of bands or communities, institutions or organizations mandated by bands or communities to address environmental issues on their behalf.

What Projects can be Funded?

Examples include:

- assessment/analysis of community impacts;
- studies on major developments off reserve affecting reserves and traditional use areas;
- participation in preparatory stages of provincial environmental reviews for projects that may have negative impacts on reserve areas, and related travel and accommodation expenses;
- consultation with experts, such as biologists, environmental consultants about potential environmental impacts; and
- negotiations, interventions and presentations to public hearings and meetings.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Funding ranges from $3,000 to $100,000.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

There are no deadlines. An application form is required, and is available from the address below.

Integrated Enhancement Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Hydro-Québec.

What is the Program About?

The program is offered only to the collectivities receiving new Hydro-Québec equipment (power plant, line or sub-station) on this territory. The program gives eligible organizations access to an integrated enhancement budget for any project subject to an environmental review under the Québec's Environment Quality Act. It seeks to promote harmonization between development and environmental protection and enhancement and enable organizations to design and develop environmental projects, called initiatives, in order to protect or enhance their own environment.

Who Can Apply?

Organizations representing a community and administering a territory: municipalities, regional county municipalities (RCMs) and Aboriginal communities. The program is strictly related to Hydro-Québec new projects in the province of Québec territory.

What Projects can be Funded?

Environmental projects related to natural resources, heritage or public education.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

A credit of 1% of the value of the activities carried out by Hydro-Québec for line or sub-station projects and a credit of 2% for generating station projects.

Joyce Foundation

Who is the Program Sponsor?

The Joyce Foundation.

What is the Program About?

The Environment Program of the Joyce Foundation supports work to protect and improve the environment of the Upper Midwest region, especially the Great Lakes, through policy-based solutions to environmental problems resulting from industrial and agricultural activity and the use of fossil fuels for energy and transportation. We also have a general interest in protecting and improving the Great Lakes ecosystem at a significant scale.

Who Can Apply?

Organizations that have a 501c3 determination letter from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service signifying that they are not for profit.

What Projects can be Funded?

Primarily policy research, development, and advocacy type projects; generally we do not support environmental education, conferences, or the provision of direct services.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

There is no maximum funding level; we expect that the level of funding requested will reflect a realistic assessment of what it would take to achieve the goals of the project, and that the Foundation is not being asked to provide more than one-fourth of the organization's budget.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

There are three deadlines per year, approximately the middle of March, July, and December. Letters of inquiry must be submitted four to six weeks before the proposal deadline and full proposals must be invited by the staff of the Foundation. For specific deadlines, consult the Foundation's worldwide web site at <http://www.joycefdn.org>.

Labatt People in Action Program (LPIA)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Labatt and Human Resources Development Canada.

What is the Program About?

This program encourages students and registered charities to develop a summer project that will provide the student with skills (including responsibility, positive attitude, leadership, creativity and motivation) that can be applied in the work world. The project should have a positive impact on the community.

Who Can Apply?

To be eligible, students must intend to return to school full-time in the upcoming academic year, have been registered full-time at a secondary, post-secondary or vocational school during the preceding academic year, be a Canadian citizen, not have another full-time summer job, not be a member of the employer's immediate family, not have an immediate family member employed by Labatt Breweries of Canada. Only applicants in Quebec can apply for funding.

What Projects can be Funded?

Eligible projects must provide the student with the opportunity to develop work skills, particularly responsibility, positive attitude, leadership, provide a long-term benefit to the charitable organization in terms of fulfilling its mission; ensure at least 30 hours of work a week; last between 6 and 16 consecutive weeks; and not combine funding from two more HRDC-related funding programs.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The grant will be calculated in advance based on the hourly minimum wage in the province or territory of the project and number of students hired. The LPIA program covers employers' CPP/QPP contributions, employment insurance, vacation pay and health plan. The charitable organization is responsible for workers' compensation.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Ontario Trillium Foundation

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Government of Ontario.

What is the Program About?

At the Ontario Trillium Foundation, our mission is to work with others to make strategic investments to build healthy, sustainable and caring communities in Ontario.

Who Can Apply?

Non-profit groups, charitable organizations, First Nations Groups, Metis Charter communities and Collaboratives of organizations, containing at least one eligible member.

What Projects can be Funded?

We welcome applications in four broad sectors -- Arts & Culture, Environment, Sports & Recreation and Human & Social Services.

- Arts & Culture. In the Arts, we fund organizations and activities in all disciplines, whether professional or amateur, including performing, media, visual arts, arts education and community arts initiatives. Under Culture, we look for activities that preserve and promote a community's heritage and diverse cultures.
- Environment. In this sector, we support efforts to protect, restore and promote the benefits of a clean, healthy environment and encourage all members of the community to take responsibility for it.
- Sports & Recreation. Our focus in this sector is on community-based activities that create opportunities for people of all ages and abilities to take part in a wide range of sports and leisure programs.
- Human & Social Services. While many grants in this sector are about meeting people's often urgent needs, we are also very interested in requests that focus on developing the skills and confidence that can reduce those needs, break cycles of poverty and isolation, and build better futures.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Trillium receives an annual allocation of $100 million from the Government of Ontario. You can apply for the following amounts: Province Wide Program (20% of funding available) single or multi-year grants of up to $250,000 per year for up to five years; Community Program (80% of funding available) single or multi-year grants of up to $75,000 per year for up to five years. Funds are also available for operating, project and capital initiatives.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

For specific program deadlines please contact the organization. In the Province-Wide program, there are two application deadlines per year. On average, the review process can take up to 90 days (three months) for requests of $25,000 and under and up to 180 days (six months) for requests of over $25,000.

- knowledge acquisition with reference to specific species or the habitats they occupy;
- educating people or raising their awareness of the importance of protecting or developing species or their habitats.

Priority will be given to: projects pertaining to species whose status is a source of concern; projects which focus on habitats; projects seeking concrete action in the field; projects which disseminate knowledge on means of or techniques for protecting, restoring or managing habitats for the target species.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Varies. Maximum FFQ financial participation is 70% of the total eligible project costs.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

January 10.

PEI Agriculture Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

PEI Department of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Environment; Environment Canada; Ducks Unlimited Canada; Wildlife Habitat Canada; PEI Department of Agriculture and Forestry; and PEI Soil and Crop Improvement Association.

What is the Program About?

It promotes sound soil and water management on PEI, based on the premise that proper management of fields and upland areas will benefit water courses and marshes.

Who Can Apply?

Non-profit organizations and landowners on PEI.

What Projects can be Funded?

Eligible initiatives include livestock fencing, alternative animal watering projects, soil conservation, and shelter belt installation (hedgerows).

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Varies.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Interested applicants should contact the PEI Department of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Environment for more information on how to apply.

PEI Environmental Innovation Strategy

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Prince Edward Island Department of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Environment.

What is the Program About?

The Environmental Innovation Strategy offers seed funding for projects that contribute to innovation in the environmental industry sector or contributes to pollution prevention in Prince Edward Island.

Who Can Apply?

New or existing Island-based businesses or organizations which contribute to the growth of the province's environmental industry sector.

What Projects can be Funded?

Seed funding is only available for projects which will have an on-going benefit to environmental innovation or pollution prevention in Prince Edward Island. Funds from this program are not available for the hosting of conferences, workshops or for related-travel costs.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Typically, funds are provided on a matched 50/50 basis to a maximum of $3,000 and are disbursed upon receipt of an acceptable final project report.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Quarterly. Applications are reviewed at the end of February, May, August and November.

PEI Small Marsh Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Prince Edward Island Department of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Environment; Environment Canada; Ducks Unlimited Canada; and Wildlife Habitat Canada. The PEI Small Marsh Program is a part of the North American Waterfowl Management Plan.

What is the Program About?

It aims to restore approximately 20 wetlands on PEI per year, ranging from 1-10 acres in size. The program sponsors will do the work at no cost for landowners who participate in the program. Landowners participating in the program must sign an agreement to maintain the restored wetland for a 30-year period.

Who Can Apply?

PEI landowners.

What Projects can be Funded?

Wetlands considered for this program should be at least one acre in size and in a relatively flat area or basin. Freshwater sites that are congested with aquatic vegetation and have water present for at least part of the year tend to be good sites. Restoration work involves excavating much of the aquatic vegetation and using this material to build islands within the wetland.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Total costs of the restoration will be provided, and the work will be carried out by the Program partners. Since funds are limited, wetlands are selected for restoration according to their biological value.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Landowners with a candidate wetland site should contact the Department of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Environment to arrange for a site visit to assess the potential for restoration.

PEI Wildlife Conservation Fund

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Prince Edward Island Department of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Environment.

What is the Program About?

A $13 conservation fee is incorporated into all angling, hunting and trapping licenses on PEI. Collected fees are distributed to wildlife conservation projects on PEI.

Who Can Apply?

Non-government conservation groups on PEI.

What Projects can be Funded?

Any wildlife conservation project on PEI can be funded. Administrative costs, mileage, professional fees and full wages are not eligible for funding, although top-ups for supervisory positions and increased employer expenses will be considered.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The Wildlife Conservation Fund will contribute a maximum of 50% of the total project cost, up to a maximum of $5,000 per application. If the request is $1,000 or less, groups will only be required to match cash funds of 20%.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

May 1st and September 15th annually. Applications must be submitted on the official application form that can be accessed online at: <http://www.gov.pe.ca/wildlife/wcf> or by contacting the Fund Advisory.

PEI Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Prince Edward Island Department of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Environment.

What is the Program About?

It provides financial and technical support to organizations involved in the protection and enhancement of wildlife habitats on PEI.

Who Can Apply?

Non-government organizations, community-based groups, municipalities, individuals (partnering with a community group or organization), and educational and research institutions.

What Projects can be Funded?

Initiatives that are funded involve the protection or management of wildlife habitats, including work in wetlands, riparian zones, stream and river habitats, agricultural lands, and natural areas such as dune formations and bogs. Projects that support soil conservation, the establishment or maintenance of wildlife corridors, biodiversity, an ecological approach, and education and awareness are encouraged.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

$5,000. The Program may provide up to 50% of project costs. Funding is provided for items such as field supplies, tree seedlings, equipment rental and purchase, wage top-ups, travel costs, and contract services.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Mid-April and early June. Applications must identify the wildlife habitat issue and objectives of the project relative to the identified issue, detailing quantified actions and results. Contact the program sponsor for more specific details on applying.

Pew Charitable Trusts

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Pew Charitable Trusts

What is the Program About?

Pew Charitable Trusts provides support to projects in the following areas: Culture; Education; Environment; Health and Human Services; Public Policy and Religion.

Who Can Apply?

Many projects are staff initiated so please carefully read the Trusts' grantmaking guidelines and instructions on how to apply for a grant, which are available on Web at www.pewtrusts.com, prior to submitting an application. Support is only available for non-profit, tax-exempt organizations.

What Projects can be Funded?

The Environment program aims to promote policies and practices that protect the global atmosphere and preserve healthy forest and marine ecosystems. Following are the goals outlining the environment program:

- Global Warming and Climate Change: to reduce emissions of carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases that contribute to global warming;
- Old-Growth Forest and Wilderness Protection: to protect old-growth forest and wilderness areas on public lands;
- Conservation of Living Marine Resources: to protect and restore fisheries and other living marine resources.

Please visit the website for further guidelines on the Environment program.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Varies. Although grant size varies from program to program, the median size in the past year was $400,000. Generally speaking, smaller grants are made in programs that work closely with community-based and direct-service organizations; larger grants are made in programs that work with larger organizations such as research, academic and health institutions.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

None. The Board meets four times a year in March, June, September and December.

Planning and Partnership Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Fisheries Renewal BC.

What is the Program About?

Fisheries Renewal BC recognizes that effective local and cross-sectoral partnerships are essential to encourage fisheries economic development at the local level. The Planning and Partnerships Program is designed to bring together groups and individuals with a shared interest in renewing the fisheries and to assist them in developing effective working partnerships.

Who Can Apply?

Applications will be invited from labour and businesses, First Nations, local communities, fishing interest groups (including industry) and non-profit societies interested in developing partnerships that will benefit the fisheries. Successful applicants will include partnerships that share Fisheries Renewal BC's strategic priorities and work within its key investment areas.

What Projects can be Funded?

Funding is available for cooperative efforts in the seafood sector including workshops, regional initiatives and strategic planning initiatives; and feasibility studies and risk assessments that could result in broad-based benefits to the seafood sector.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Grants are available up to $10,000.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

None.

Population Health Fund

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Health Canada, Population and Public Health Branch.

What is the Program About?

The Population Health Fund recognizes that many factors, in addition to the health care system itself, exert a strong influence on health. These factors, called the determinants of health, include income and social status; social support networks; education; employment and working conditions; physical and social environments; personal health practices and coping skills; healthy child development; biology and genetic endowment; health services; gender; and culture. Health Canada's population health approach incorporates a life-cycle framework that consists of three life stages: childhood and adolescence, early-to mid adulthood and later life.

The Population Health Fund has three objectives:

- to develop, implement, evaluate and disseminate models for applying the population health approach;
- to increase the knowledge base for future program and policy development; and
- to increase partnerships and develop intersectoral collaboration.

Who Can Apply?

Voluntary, non-profit, non-governmental organizations.

What Projects can be Funded?

Time-limited projects that achieve the objectives of the program are eligible. Proposals are solicited on a variety of topics and it is critical to consult with the Branch before beginning to develop a funding proposal.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

There is no maximum, but the amount of money available is limited.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

There are no regular deadlines. Proposals are submitted in response to solicitations, which may take place at any time of the year.

Programme Action - Environnement

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Ministère de l'Environnement du Québec (MENV) (Quebec Department of the Environment).

What is the Program About?

The program has three components. The first one targets environmental organizations, while the two others are for accredited Brundtland green schools and college institutions, respectively. Only the first component is covered in this guide.

Who Can Apply?

Any private non-profit organization whose primary mandate and objectives are directly related to environmental protection, environmental education or sustainable development. The organization must have been legally incorporated for at least two years and have its head office in Quebec.

What Projects can be Funded?

Feasibility studies, knowledge acquisition and development plans; pilot projects on reducing the consumption of natural resources; projects or studies on the maintenance of biodiversity, energy conservation, air quality and climate change, drinking water quality, watercourse protection and agricultural pollution; and educational activities or the production of educational materials related to the environment.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The maximum financial assistance provided to projects with a larger geographical scope is $40,000, while local or regional projects receive up to $15,000. The first installment represents 80% of the assistance provided to approved projects. The second installment (20%) is contingent on the receipt of a final report outlining project achievements and deliverables. Projects are to be less than one year in duration and must be completed by March 1st of each year.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

In 2001, the deadline for submissions was March 12.

Programme agroenvironnemental de soutien à la stratégie phytosanitaire

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food (MAPAQ).

What is the Program About?

To support strategic actions contributing to the achievement of the objectives of the Stratégie phytosanitaire by the year 2003, specifically a 50 percent reduction in the use of agricultural pesticides and the application of integrated pest management to 70 percent of cultivated lands.

Who Can Apply?

The applicant must belong to or be associated with: a production club, a technical training club or an agri-environmental club; a recognized producers' association; a para-public or private research organization or centre.

What Projects can be Funded?

Any technology transfer or development project aimed at supporting the following actions: developing environmental management models for crop pests; accelerating the transfer of technology in farm enterprises by developing promotional and awareness tools. A project must have a great deal of potential to reduce the use of pesticides and to reduce environmental contamination.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

$30,000 for one year and $50,000 for two years. The one-year duration is for transfer activities, while development activities can last 1 to 2 years.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

February 1, April 1 and September 1 of each year.

Programme d'aide à l'aménagement des ravages de cerfs de Virginie (PAAR)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Wildlife Foundation.

What is the Program About?

To conserve mixed and coniferous stands used as cover by deer and various other animal species. To maintain such stands by selective cutting designed to sustain or enhance growth. To make the owners of private woodlots aware of the potential of their land as wildlife habitat and help them develop this potential.

Who Can Apply?

Owners of private woodlots within selected deer yards. Owners must apply through forestry consultants accredited with the regional forestry agencies managing the private woodlot development assistance program.

What Projects can be Funded?

The schedule of rates and forestry operations eligible for PAAR is reviewed annually. In the interests of enhanced soil protection, regeneration and reserve food supplies for deer, most eligible work has to be done during the winter months.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Maximum funding per owner depends on the agency.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Reviewed annually.

Programme d'aide à la recherche et au développement en environnement (PARDE)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Department of the Environment (MENV).

What is the Program About?

The purpose of PARDE is to generate scientific foundations for environmental quality and sustainable development-related action in keeping with the priorities set by the provincial Department of the Environment, and to provide financial support for some technological R&D projects.

Who Can Apply?

Universities and affiliated scientists, CEGEPs, research centres, private laboratories, associations, municipalities, consulting firms and companies.

What Projects can be Funded?

This program is used to fund R&D projects geared to environmental progress in accordance with MENV's priorities that primarily foster and support the development of strategic environmental knowledge for MENV and, to a lesser extent, lead to technological innovation. Environmental R&D priorities focus on the following topics: water management, waste and soil management, climatic changes, and conservation of biodiversity.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The maximum government assistance available under PARDE, in the form of a grant, is $200,000 per project. This financial assistance is for eligible R&D expenses. The maximum duration of a project is three years. Since the program has an annual budget of roughly $800,000, requests for proposals by invitation are preferred.

Programme d'aide aux projets de formation et de sensibilisation aux habitats et aux moyens de les protéger et de les mettre en valeur

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Wildlife Foundation (FFQ).

What is the Program About?

To provide training and information on technical means of protecting and enhancing habitats, and to make the Quebec public and key groups more aware of wildlife habitats and of the importance of protecting and enhancing them.

Who Can Apply?

Any public or private agency and any association or corporation, whether for-profit or non-profit.

What Projects can be Funded?

Training projects concerning methods, namely projects which disseminate technical information on methods used to protect, improve or restore habitats and projects which publicize model activities. Habitat awareness projects, namely projects which publicize one or more Quebec habitat(s), its/their components and related problems, and the importance of protecting, restoring and improving such habitats.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The maximum for one project is $50,000. FFQ assumes up to 50 and 20 percent of costs respectively for training projects and habitat awareness projects.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

The deadline is January 10 of each year. Potential applicants should contact an FFQ coordinator prior to submitting a project in order to determine whether it is eligible.

Programme d'aide relatif aux priorités en environnement (PAPE)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Department of the Environment (MENV).

What is the Program About?

To support projects that are consistent with the Department's priorities which are climate change, conservation of biological diversity, water management, agricultural pollution and sustainable development

Who Can Apply?

Any private, non-profit organization whose mandate and objectives are consistent with the Department's priorities. The organization must have been legally incorporated for at least two years and have its head office in Quebec.

What Projects can be Funded?

Environmental protection and restoration projects, production of environmental educational materials or activities that aim at changing behaviours (consumption levels and habits) in favour of sustainable development.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The government financial assistance provided under PAPE in the form of a grant cannot exceed $100,000 per project. The maximum duration of a project is two years. The maximum amount for a one-year project is $50,000. This amount cannot equal more than 90% of the total cost and the community's contribution to the project must equal at least 10% of the total project cost.

Programme d'amélioration de la qualité des habitats aquatiques (AQHA)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Wildlife foundation (FFQ).

What is the Program About?

To improve the overall quality and wildlife productivity of aquatic habitats, specifically the number or size of specimens of each species present; to enhance the use of wildlife capability; and to increase participation by local organizations.

Who Can Apply?

Only public or private organizations and associations or corporations, either profit or not-for-profit, who are legally registered (patent letters, charter, etc.) may apply for financial assistance.

What Projects can be Funded?

Stream clean-up; shoreline stabilization; creation and restoration of spawning grounds; construction of deflectors and ditches; construction and restoration of digger logs; creation of aquatic and riparian shelters; construction of fish ladders; and construction of obstacles to the migration of competitive species.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Maximum of $50,000 per project or 50% of projects total cost.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

The deadlines are November 1 and March 1 of each year. Potential applicants should contact an FFQ coordinator prior to submitting a project in order to determine whether it is eligible.

Programme de mise en valeur des ressources du milieu forestier (Volet II)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Department of Natural Resources (MRN).

What is the Program About?

To foster regional development and job creation by promoting partnership between the government, regional administrations and forest industries. To facilitate community participation in decision making with respect to the management and development of local resources.

Who Can Apply?

Local stakeholders, in partnership with the municipalities.

What Projects can be Funded?

Wildlife-related, recreational, silvicultural, educational or environmental activities.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Varies, may be as much as 90% of the project's value.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

None. Potential applicants, however, should check with regional Forêts Québec offices to determine when and to whom applications for funding should be submitted.

Programme de soutien aux projets d'acquisition de connaissances

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Wildlife Foundation (FFQ).

What is the Program About?

To develop new mechanisms and techniques for the protection and enhancement of wildlife habitats and to assess and improve existing mechanisms and techniques. Projects must concern habitats; have an original, innovative or critical aspect; lead to a practical application; and promote the participation of local organizations.

Who Can Apply?

Any public or private agency and any association or corporation, whether for-profit or non-profit.

What Projects can be Funded?

Testing of new approaches and techniques of habitat management; measurement and comparison of the effectiveness of various protection or management techniques; identification and analysis of factors limiting the advancement of management or protection projects; and development of methods to assess the cost-benefit ratio of wildlife enhancement initiatives.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The maximum amount per project is $50,000. The proportion of FFQ participation cannot exceed 50 percent of the total cost of a project.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

The deadline for the submission of applications for financial assistance is January 10. Potential applicants should contact an FFQ coordinator prior to submitting a project in order to determine whether it is eligible.

Programme de soutien aux projets de protection des habitats

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Wildlife Foundation (FFQ).

What is the Program About?

To protect, by acquiring land or conservation easements or by means of private stewardship, lands which constitute particularly productive, diversified or threatened wildlife habitats, or which could become particularly productive following wildlife enhancement initiatives. To provide financial and technical support to organizations that play an active role in the protection of wildlife habitats.

Who Can Apply?

Municipal governments and non-profit organizations that can acquire and own real property or sign protection agreements.

What Projects can be Funded?

As a general rule, only activities on private land are eligible and must be conducted on threatened wetland, shoreline or island environments of recognized wildlife value. The drafting and production of a preliminary protection project proposal and the protection activities themselves are eligible.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Varies depending on the quality and state of the habitat, of pressures, of incompatible development it supports, of the cost of the intervention, of the financial and human ramification and of the level of protection.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

There are no deadlines for protection projects. However, when requests for funding exceed $25,000, the request should be submitted prior to 1st September, 1st January or 1st April. Potential applicants should contact FFQ coordinator prior to submitting a project in order to determine whether it is eligible.

Programme de travaux compensatoires (PTC)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec Department of Public Security (MSP).

What is the Program About?

To contribute to the recovery of fines in a humane manner. To avoid the automatic incarceration of disadvantaged individuals who are unable to pay their fines. To help build up the accountability of clients. To encourage community participation in the administration of justice.

Who Can Apply?

MSP delegates to referring agencies on a contract basis the performance of program operating activities. These agencies in turn recruit receiving organizations. Receiving organizations must be accredited by a referring agency. The conditions of accreditation are as follows. An organization must:

- be a non-profit organization;
- be based in Quebec;
- have a charter;
- be active in the local community; and
- adhere to the Program's objectives and requirements.

What Projects can be Funded?

Any unpaid employment project that enables offenders to work, within a prescribed time frame, a number of specified hours, in accordance with the terms and conditions agreed to with the referring agency.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

None. One hour of work compensates for $10 in unpaid fine for amounts of $500 or less.

Programme Faune - Nature

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Société de la faune et des parcs du Québec (Quebec Wildlife and Parks Corporation).

What is the Program About?

To fund projects involving wildlife, wildlife habitats and natural environments that are designed and implemented by non-profit organizations drawing on community resources and support.

Who Can Apply?

Any legally incorporated non-profit organization with its chief place of business in Quebec that does not receive most of its funding from the federal or Quebec government.

What Projects can be Funded?

Only projects in keeping with the Corporation's strategic directions will be considered. Eligible projects comprise those involving the conservation, development or use of wildlife, wildlife habitat and natural environments; the creation of material on wildlife or the natural environment for education, public awareness or information purposes; and activities related to wildlife, knowledge acquisition, before-profit, research and studies.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The maximum amount of funding granted under the program is 75% of eligible expenses, for a maximum of $15,000 per project per year. Projects must be less than a year in duration.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

In 2002, the deadline for applications will probably be in February (to be confirmed).

Statutory Funding Program for National Groups

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec's Department of the Environment (MENV).

What is the Program About?

The Program seeks to provide some financial stability to the groups that contribute to the environmental cause or sustainable development in Quebec in a way other than through the funding of specific projects.

Who Can Apply?

A non-profit organization (NPO), legally incorporated under Part III of Quebec's Companies Act or other legislation governing NPOs. An organization whose primary mandate as set out in its charter deals with environmental action or sustainable development. Must have at least 25 individual subscribing members or three affiliated organizations in at least eight of Quebec's administrative regions as of the end of the organization's last fiscal year. Must have its head office in Quebec.

What Projects can be Funded?

Eligible expenses include the ordinary operating expenditures of an environmental organization: wages, benefits, fees and contracts, office or equipment rental, travel and accommodations, materials and supplies, administrative costs, purchase of computers or any other computer equipment, use of an Internet website, publication of a magazine or newsletter as well as the regular communication activities of the organization, and other specific recurring operations-related charges identified in the memorandum of understanding.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Available statutory funding will be divided up among the recognized national groups. Maximum statutory funding (by way of direct subsidy or services) to a recognized organization from any government source is $90,000 per year. Statutory funding from the Department of the Environment may never exceed $60,000 per year. This funding is granted for a period of two years.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

The deadline for receiving applications and documents for the 2000-2001 fiscal year was January 26, 2001.

Strategic Investment Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Fisheries Renewal BC.

What is the Program About?

The Strategic Investment Program invests in areas of importance to the seafood and fisheries sector as a whole so that the industry will be better situated to take advantage of new opportunities. Whether through developing new markets, the sharing of technical information, or investing in areas that link to provincial priorities, this program will lay the groundwork for a revitalized industry in conjunction with current participants. By taking a strategic approach, Fisheries Renewal BC can focus attention on structural issues in the industry.

Who Can Apply?

Strategic Investment projects will be delivered by Fisheries Renewal BC through partners at local, regional, and provincial levels. Successful proponents will have the proven ability to deliver on the activities of this program in projects that will benefit the fish, the communities, and the people who depend on the fishery resource.

What Projects can be Funded?

This program will support a wide range of creative, innovative, and strategic activities that contribute to the corporation's key investment areas and support Fisheries Renewal BC's objectives. Activities that will be considered include: marketing and market analysis; research and development; shellfish development; fisheries development in all sectors; technology transfer; finfish aquaculture green technologies; environmental initiatives such as selective fishing and stewardship certification; regional fisheries economic development; and capacity development in the industry.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Proponents must contribute 25% of total project costs, in cash or in-kind. No upper limit has been set on funding requests; each proposal will be considered on its merits. Funds from federal and provincial funding sources are eligible as co-funding contributions.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Stretch your science, Stages 1, 2 and 3

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Quebec's Department of Culture and Communications (MCC).

What is the Program About?

Through this program, the Department wants to encourage organizations to: make basic knowledge in science and technology – as well as the work of researchers in these areas – more accessible; impart knowledge that leads to an understanding of the building approaches in science and technology; disseminate science and technology developments, practical applications and impacts; demystify and promote science and technology, with a particular focus on women and young people.

Who Can Apply?

The following are eligible for stages 1, 2 and 3: private, non-profit and legally incorporated organizations that have their main place of business in Quebec; post-secondary institutions and their research centres and institutes; professional orders governed by the Quebec Professional Code and Quebec unions.

What Projects can be Funded?

The support given is intended to foster the creation and enhancement of products designed to develop scientific and technical culture. These products must be targeted at the public or the priority client groups identified by the Department: school-age children, girls and women, and must highlight the interrelationships between science, technology and society.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

For organizations with a gross annual revenue of less than $300,000, the Department's maximum contribution is 75% of the total project cost. For organizations whose gross annual revenue is between $300,000 and $1,000,000, the Department's maximum contribution is 65% of the total project cost. For organizations whose gross annual revenue is $1,000,000 or more, the Department's maximum contribution is 50% of the total project cost.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Organizations must submit their applications no later than April 2, 2002.

Student Employment and Experience Development (S.E.E.D.) Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

New Brunswick Department of Training and Employment Development.

What is the Program About?

The S.E.E.D. program will provide wage subsidies to employers to hire students for summer jobs. These jobs are meant to help them finance their post-secondary education and provide them with work experience. Groups doing a project may apply to the program to have students do some of the required labour. Eligible students are those in grade twelve, college or university. Students must be attending a post-secondary institution in the fall.

Who Can Apply?

Non-profit organizations, municipalities and government departments in New Brunswick.

What Projects can be Funded?

Any summer project or employment opportunity that will provide students with the money needed to help them finance their post-secondary education and provide them with the experience needed to find work after graduation. The program is not restricted to environmental projects.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Employers will be reimbursed $6.00 per hour for each position approved, plus the employer's share of benefits, with the exception of Workers Compensation. Wages may change each year. Employers must have the funds up front to pay workers and will be reimbursed upon submitting a claim.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

It is usually the end of February. Call to check for specific dates.

Student Summer Job Action (SSJA)

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Human Resources Development Canada (HRDC).

What is the Program About?

The program helps create summer work experiences for secondary and post-secondary students. A partnership program in private, public and not-for-profit groups, SSJA helps students find summer work through wage subsidies to employers, interest-free loans to students, promotional activities and information and through operating summer employment offices. Components of SSJA include:

- Summer Career Placements - wage subsidies to private, public and not-for-profit employers to create career-related summer jobs for students.
- Student Business Loans - loans for students to start their own summer business.
- Partners in Promoting Summer Employment - a joint effort between the Government of Canada and business associations to promote student hiring in their communities.
- HRDC Offices for Students - provide services to employers and students. These offices, which are generally open from May to August, offer group information sessions on such matters as looking for a job, writing a resume and getting ready for an interview. Both employers and students can also obtain information on wage levels, labour laws, federal and provincial programs, and health and safety in the workplace.

Who Can Apply?

Businesses, organizations (including employer, professional and labour associations and non-profit organizations), public health and educational institutions, band/tribal councils and municipal governments.

What Projects can be Funded?

Activities must provide appropriate work experience to students in the light of their career aspirations.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Toyota Evergreen Learning Grounds Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Evergreen and Toyota Canada Inc.

What is the Program About?

Bringing teachers, students and neighbours together to transform traditionally barren asphalt and turf school grounds into natural outdoor classrooms. By planting trees, shrubs and wildflowers, planning meadows or ponds and creating murals, sculptures, vegetable gardens and other theme areas, the learning opportunities literally come alive. These outdoor classrooms provide students with a healthy and safe place to play, learn and develop a genuine respect for nature and each other.

Who Can Apply?

Grade schools across Canada.

What Projects can be Funded?

School ground naturalization initiatives. The grant is available for the purchase of native trees, shrubs and wildflowers, native plant and design expertise, the purchase of soil amendments (i.e. soil, compost, mulch), garden tools (i.e. hoses, shovels, trowels) and gardening or other resource books.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Urban Issues Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

The Samuel and Saidye Bronfman Family Foundation.

What is the Program About?

The program supports projects that unite urban conservation with community development. The well-being of our cities depends upon the health of our urban communities. Their success, in turn, hinges on their ability to adopt comprehensive and self-directed approaches to development, among which heritage conservation of the built and natural environment plays an indispensable role.

Who Can Apply?

Registered charitable organizations.

What Projects can be Funded?

The program promotes urban heritage conservation by communities and supports activities to increase:

- community awareness of the decision-making processes that influence and change urban environments;
- knowledge of how changes to the physical and natural environments affect social, economic and political development of the community and its surroundings;
- community understanding of how social, economic and political changes affect the physical and natural environment; and
- the citizen capabilities to develop and implement urban-conservation policies that result in the future well-being of their communities.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Up to $30,000 annually for one to three years.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

The program is offered every three years. The next Call for Proposals will begin in the Autumn of 2001. Proposals should include a brief letter describing the project and its objectives; an implementation plan; a detailed budget; a list of other funding sources approached and an indication of the status of each request; and the names and qualifications of those individuals responsible for the project. Groups must ensure that their proposal involves at least one partner with a current Revenue Canada charitable organization number.

Urban Salmon Habitat Program

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Fisheries Renewal BC; BC Fisheries and Ministry of Water, Land and Air Protection.

What is the Program About?

The prime purpose of the Urban Salmon Habitat Program (USHP) is to protect and restore salmonid habitats in urban areas in the BC portion of the Georgia Basin. Community stewardship projects encourage community involvement in the protection, enhancement, and restoration of urban watersheds. In addition, community stewardship groups can provide input at the planning stage of urban, agricultural, and industrial development in order to prevent environmental damage, protect salmonid habitats, provide public education, and encourage supportive actions by local governments.

Who Can Apply?

Any non-profit group of concerned citizens, including: community groups; schools and other educational institutions; and First Nations.

What Projects can be Funded?

Eligible activities: assessment and mapping of salmonid habitats; public awareness; education projects; community-based watershed planning; restoration of urban salmonid streams; monitoring and evaluation projects.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

Funding will be a maximum of 80% of that year's total costs to a maximum of $30,000. Community groups must provide a minimum of 20% of each year's total costs, (volunteer labour, donations, and contributions in-kind can be attributed to this 20%).

What is the Deadline for Applying?

All project proposals must be received by the end of January to be considered for funding in the next fiscal year.

Youth Internship Canada

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Human Resources Development Canada (HRDC).

What is the Program About?

To provide funding to employers who create constructive working experiences for unemployed or underemployed individuals less than 30 years of age. Internships enable young Canadians to acquire work experience on the labour market in key sectors such as science and technology, and international trade and development. This initiative also responds to the needs of First Nations and Inuit youth.

Who Can Apply?

Businesses, organizations (including employer, professional and labour associations and non-profit organizations), public health and educational institutions, band/tribal councils and municipal governments.

What Projects can be Funded?

Activities must address local community needs, enable interns to acquire relevant skills and experience, and provide long-term employment opportunities.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The maximum amount of funding is between $10,000 and $15,000 per eligible participant. Agreements are normally for a period of 52 weeks.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

Youth Service Canada

Who is the Program Sponsor?

Human Resources Development Canada (HRDC).

What is the Program About?

The primary focus of the YSC program is to provide funding to organizations that create community service projects for youth, aged 15 up to and including 30 years of age who face greater barriers to entering the labour market through participation in community service projects. YSC projects challenge young people to invest their time, energy and expertise in their own communities. Through meaningful service projects designed and implemented by experienced community-based groups, young people acquire valuable job and life skills while strengthening their sense of accomplishment and their attachment to their community.

Who Can Apply?

Businesses, organizations, public health and individuals, educational institutions, band/tribal councils, municipal governments and eligible federal and comparable provincial Crown Corporations.

What Projects can be Funded?

There are three broad areas for project development:

- Community Development and Learning: includes projects in the area of education; science and technology; arts and culture; health care; child care; community safety and crime prevention; and urban and social services.
- Sustainable Development/Environment: includes projects in environmental and conservation work such as reforestation, control of land erosion/pollution, and recycling;
- Tulu (Finding the Path that You Work On): includes projects to enhance positive attitudes, self-esteem, self-reliance, responsibility, and leadership.

What is the Maximum Funding Available?

The program may provide up to $10,000 per participant (youth worker), per year.

What is the Deadline for Applying?

There are no deadlines. Interested groups should contact their nearest Human Resources Centre for more information on how to apply.
