2006 PERSONAL TAX CREDITS RETURN

Complete this TD1 form if you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, Employment Insurance benefits, or any other remuneration, or if you wish to increase the amount of tax deducted at source. Be sure to sign and date it on the back page and give it to your employer or payer, who will use it to determine the amount of your tax deductions.

If you do not complete a TD1 form, your new employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

Complete this form based on the best estimate of your circumstances. You do not have to complete a new TD1 form every year, unless there is a change in your entitlement to personal tax credits.

You can get the forms and publications mentioned on this form from our Web site at www.cra.gc.ca/forms or by calling 1-800-959-2221.

— Deduction for living in a prescribed zone
If you live in the Northwest Territories, Nunavut, Yukon, or another prescribed northern zone for more than six months in a row beginning or ending in 2006, you can claim:
<ul> <li>$7.50 for each day that you live in the prescribed northern zone, or</li> <li>$15 for each day that you live in the prescribed northern zone if, during that time, you live in a dwelling that you</li> </ul> maintain, and you are the only person living in that dwelling who is claiming this deduction.  Employees living in a prescribed intermediate zone can claim 50% of the total of the above amounts.
For more information, get Form T2222, Northern Residents Deductions, and the publication T4039, Northern Residents Deductions – Places in Prescribed Zones.
— Total income less than total claim amount
Will your total income for the year from all employers and payers be less than your total claim amount on line 12? Yes No
If yes, your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.
— Additional tax to be deducted ————————————————————————————————————
You may want to have more tax deducted from each payment, especially if you receive other income, including non-employment income such as CPP or QPP benefits, or Old Age Security pension. By doing this, you may not have to pay as much tax when you file your income tax return.
To choose this option, state the amount of additional tax you want to have deducted from each payment. To change this deduction later, you will have to complete a new TD1 form, Personal Tax Credits Return .
— Reduction in tax deductions ————————————————————————————————————
You can ask to have less tax deducted if on your income tax return you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, and charitable donations). To make this request, complete Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office.
Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
— Non-residents
If you are a non-resident of Canada, tick this box and answer the question below. If you are unsure of your residency status, call the International Tax Services Office at 1-800-267-5177 .
