Notes: (1) Family income is the aggregate gross income, in whatever form received, of all members of the family, or of an individual, where applicable, excluding:
earnings of children or funds for the tuition of children in regular attendance at recognized institutions for learning such as scholarships, bursaries and contributions from non-resident family members, living-out or travelling allowances of a family head, earnings of a working spouse, up to $900 per annum, i.e., include earnings over $900 per annum • income, from any source other than social assistance payments, of a one-parent family, up to $900. per annum, i.e., include income over $900 per annum, • earnings, in excess of $75 per month, of all members of the family other than the family head or spouse (this will include persons related by blood, marriage or adoption or other persons who form part of the family), capital gains, such as insurance settlements, inheritances, disability awards, sale of effects, and family allowances and Child Tax Benefit.
Note (1a): Amounts received under the Post-Living Differential (PLD) are included in the determination of gross family income Note (1b): Twenty-five percent (25%) of gross family income limits the shelter charge only. It does not impact on garage/trailer charges or utility charges. (2) Income amounts must be supported by current relevant documentation.
(3) If gross family income is less than $35,000, occupant may be entitled to a $75. phasing limit.
