A Guide to Family Procedures in the Superior Court of Justice

Revised July 2004

This guide does not provide legal advice. It is recommended that all parties in the Superior Court of Justice seek legal advice where possible.

Part 6: Uncontested Divorce General Application

The steps to obtain a divorce where the case is uncontested (not defended or disputed) are described below. If it is likely that your case may be defended or disputed, you should refer to the Applications Guide. At any time in this process if the case is defended or disputed, refer to the Applications Guide for the next steps in the case.

Some Things You Need to Know Before You Begin

An application for uncontested divorce may be brought in three ways:

- A Simple Application: A simple application deals only with a request for divorce. The steps for a simple application are found in the "Simple Application" guide.
- A General Application: A general application deals with a request for divorce and other claims. The steps for this type of claim are found in this guide.
- 3. A Joint Application: A joint application is brought by both spouses jointly, and must be on consent of both parties. A joint application may deal with claims in addition to divorce, as long as both parties consent to all claims. The steps for a joint application are found in the "Joint Application" guide.

Where to Start Your Case

Before you begin your divorce application, you should check to make sure that you are bringing the application in the right court.

Generally, you should start your case in the court:

- In the municipality where you live; or
- In the municipality where the child(ren) live(s), if you are asking for custody or access to the child(ren).

Court staff must refuse your application if you are in the wrong court.

Central Registry of Divorce Proceedings

Whenever a party applies for a divorce anywhere in Canada, the Central Registry of Divorce Proceedings at the federal Department of Justice must be notified. This is done when you complete a Registration of Divorce Proceeding form. This is not a court form but is available at the court office.

The Central Registry of Divorce Proceedings will check its database to see if the same parties have registered any other divorce applications. If the check comes up clear, the Central Registry of Divorce Proceedings will issue a Clearance Certificate to the court.

The court cannot grant a divorce until the Clearance Certificate has been filed.

Marriage Certificate

In order to obtain a divorce, your original marriage certificate must be filed with the court. This can either be done at the beginning when you file the Application or during the second stage when you pick up the remaining forms for completion.

If you do not have your marriage certificate, you can order one from the government of the province where you were married.

In Ontario, you order it from the Office of the Registrar General in Thunder Bay. An application for the certificate is available at the court and may be available from the Family Law Information Centre, city hall, municipal office or a legal aid clinic. There is a fee charged for the certificate and it can take several weeks to obtain. For information, call toll-free 1-800-461-2156 or, within Toronto, (416) 325-8305. You must file your certificate with the court before your Divorce Order is granted.

If you are unable to obtain your marriage certificate, there is a box on page 1 of the Affidavit for Divorce – Form 36, which you can select and provide details.

If you were previously married outside of Canada, you will also have to provide proof of any previous divorce or the death of your previous spouse.

The Divorce Order

Once the judge has an opportunity to review your claim, he or she, if satisfied with the material, will grant you a Divorce Order.

You will need to provide the court with two stamped envelopes in order to receive a copy of your order. One envelope should be addressed to you and the other should be addressed to the respondent. After the judge has signed the Divorce Order, the court will mail a copy to you and the respondent.

The Certificate of Divorce

Your Divorce Order will state that the divorce takes effect on the 31st day after the date on which the order was made. A Certificate of Divorce will be issued as proof that a divorce is effective as of a particular date.

Either party can request the Certificate of Divorce from the court after the required time has elapsed. There is a fee for the certificate, which can be paid by cash, certified cheque or money order, payable to the "Minister of Finance."

Once the request for the certificate is made, court staff will check the file to make sure the required time has passed and that there has been no appeal of the Order. If everything is in order, the certificate will be issued.

Speak to court staff about the easiest way to obtain your Certificate of Divorce.

Steps to Complete a General Application

Step 1: Pick up the forms you need.

All of the forms that you will need can be picked up at the court office.

If you are making an application, you need:

- An Application (General) Form 8
- An Affidavit of Service Form 6B
- A Registration of Divorce Proceeding Form (This is not a court form, but is available at the court office)
- A Table of Contents page for the Continuing Record (This is not a court form, but is available at the court office).

If you are claiming support but are not claming property or exclusive possession of the matrimonial home and its contents, you need:

 A Financial Statement (Support Claims) – Form 13

If you are claiming property or exclusive possession of the matrimonial home and its contents, whether or not you are also claiming support, you need:

 A Financial Statement (Property and Support Claims) – Form 13.1

In either of these cases, you may also need:

- A Direction to Canada Customs and Revenue Agency – Form 13A (if you cannot easily obtain your income tax returns and Notice of Assessments for the past 3 years)
- A Support Deduction Order Information Form (SDOIF) (This is not a court form but is available at the court office)

If you are making a claim in relation to property you need:

 A Net Family Property Statement – Form 13B

If you have had previous family court files you need:

A Summary of Court Cases – Form 8E

Refer to the Financial Statements Guide for more information.

Step 2: Fill in the forms.

Fill in all forms carefully, follow all of the instructions on the forms and include all the information asked for.

Need help completing the forms? Go to the end of this guide for samples.

Step 3: Get a court file number and pay any applicable fees.

- 1. Take your forms to the court office.
- 2. At the court office, staff will:
  - Give your case a court file number.
  - Put a court seal on the Application.
  - Collect any fee for filing your Application. You may pay this fee by cash, cheque or money order payable to the "Minister of Finance." You can find out more about fees at the court office.
  - Court staff will put the following documents in the court file:
    - Registration of Divorce Proceeding Form
    - Your Marriage Certificate

- 3. You will then put the court file number in the upper right-hand corner of every page of all of the forms.
- Fill in the name, date of the document and date of filing of the documents in the Table of Contents.
- 5. You will need to make two copies of your completed Application – Form 8, including any attachments, and the updated Table of Contents page. One copy is for the respondent and one copy is for your files. The originals will be filed with the court in the Continuing Record.

Step 4: Serve the respondent with the documents.

You must arrange to provide the respondent with a copy of:

- Your completed Application, including attachments
- · Any other completed forms
- The Table of Contents

You should also serve a blank Answer – Form 10, and if applicable, a blank Financial Statement (Support Claims) – Form 13 or a blank Financial Statement (Property and Support Claims) – Form 13.1 for the respondent to complete.

These documents cannot be faxed or sent to the respondent through regular mail. They must be served by "special service", i.e., either handed personally to the respondent or the respondent's lawyer or mailed with an Acknowledgment of Service Card – Form 6.

Ordinarily, you should not hand the documents to the respondent yourself. You may be able to get a friend or relative to serve the documents for you or you can hire someone to serve the respondent for you; names of these people can be found in the Yellow Pages under "Process Servers." If you do not have a lawyer or cannot find someone to serve the documents for you, and you fear for your safety, talk to court staff and they will arrange to serve the respondent.

After the respondent has been served with your documents, the person who served them must complete an Affidavit of Service – Form 6B before a commissioner for taking Affidavits.

Refer to the General Information Sheet – "Serving Documents" for more information.

Step 5: File your documents at the court office and pick up the rest of the forms.

After the respondent has been served, and the Affidavit of Service has been completed, you must go back to the court office to file the documents.

At this time, you will prepare the Continuing Record. Most of the documents served and filed in the case will go into the Continuing Record. The court office may have a sample Continuing Record to help you. The court office will provide the materials needed to prepare the Continuing Record to parties who are not represented by a lawyer.

File all of the original documents in the Continuing Record. File the Affidavit of Service in the court file, not in the Continuing Record.

Complete the Table of Contents page and insert it at the front of the Continuing Record.

Refer to the General Information Sheet – "Filing Documents" for more information.

You should now pick up the following forms for the next stage in the process:

- An Affidavit for Divorce Form 36
- A Divorce Order Form 25A

Next Steps

The respondent will have an opportunity to review your application and must file an Answer if he or she wishes to oppose the divorce and to participate further.

If no Answer is served on you or filed at the court by the respondent within 30 days of having been served (60 days if outside Canada or the United States), you can then proceed to Step 6 to apply to the court for a Divorce Order.

If you receive an Answer and the claim is contested, you will need to refer to "Next Steps" in the Applications Guide as well as the complete Case Conferences Guide.

Step 6: Complete the second set of forms.

Fill in all forms carefully, follow all of the instructions on the forms and include all the information asked for.

There are samples of the forms at the end of this guide highlighting some of the important points about the forms; however, you may ask the Family Law Information Centre staff for information about completing the Affidavit for Divorce and Divorce Order.

Make copies of your forms as follows:

- 1 copy of your completed Affidavit for Divorce – Form 36, including attachments
- 4 copies of your completed Divorce Order – Form 25A (5 copies if your claim includes support)

One copy of the Affidavit of Divorce and draft Divorce Order are for you and the other copies of the draft Divorce Order are for the court.

Need help completing the forms? Go to the end of this guide for samples.

Step 7: File your documents with the court and pay any applicable fees.

File the following documents at the court office:

- The original Affidavit of Divorce
- The copies of the Divorce Order
- Two stamped addressed envelopes (see page 2)
- Your original Marriage Certificate (if not filed earlier)

Pay any applicable fees. You can find out more about fees at the court office.

Step 8: Obtain the Divorce Order.

Your file will be sent to a judge to be reviewed. If the judge is satisfied with the material, he or she will grant you a Divorce Order. Neither you nor the respondent is required to attend court to get the Divorce Order unless the court orders otherwise.

If the judge decides to grant the Divorce Order, the court office will sign the Order and send one copy to you and one to the respondent.

•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	J

If the judge needs more information in order to grant the Divorce Order, the court office will contact you.

Remember that the Certificate of Divorce is the proof that the divorce has been granted. The Certificate of Divorce is not sent automatically and must be requested. Further information about this topic is found at the beginning of the guide.

Sample Forms

This section contains sample forms that parties will need to fill out when obtaining an Uncontested Divorce – General Application with Other Claims.

You may wish to visit the Family Law Information Centre to obtain information about completing court forms.

Some tips on completing all forms:

- Be neat. These are court documents and the court will not take them if they are not neat or the court cannot read them. All court forms must be typed or printed.
- Fill in the name and address of the court where you are filing the application at the top of all court documents.
- Once court staff have provided a court file number, make sure it is on the upper right-hand corner of every page of all of your documents.
- 4. Make enough copies of your completed forms. In most cases you will need to make two copies: one to serve on the other party and one for your files. The original forms will be filed with the court in the Continuing Record.
- 5. When completing the forms, you are asked to fill in the address where documents can be served on you. If being served at your home address would put your physical safety at risk, speak to court or Family Law Information Centre staff about using an alternative address.

Registration of Divorce Proceeding Form – General Application with Other Claims

The Registration of Divorce Proceeding form only needs to be completed by one of the parties.

This form has 2 parts and is 3 pages in length. The party starting the case is to complete part 1 and file it with their divorce application.

This is not a court form but is available from the court office.

Once the form is completed and sent in, the Central Registry of Divorce Proceedings will check their database to see if the same parties have registered any other divorce applications. If the check comes up clear, the Central Registry of Divorce Proceedings will issue a Clearance Certificate to the court.

The court cannot grant a divorce until the Clearance Certificate has been filed.

Both the applicant and the respondent are required to update their Financial Statements at each new stage in the case. If the previous Financial Statement filed is more than 30 days old, a party must serve the other party and file with the court:

• A new Financial Statement (Support Claims) – Form 13 or Financial Statement (Property and Support Claims) – Form 13.1 (if applicable)

OR

• An Affidavit – Form 14A indicating either that there is no change from the last financial statement filed or that the changes are minor (include details of any changes).

Form 6B: Affidavit of Service – General Application with Other Claims

This form should be completed when any documents are served on the other party.

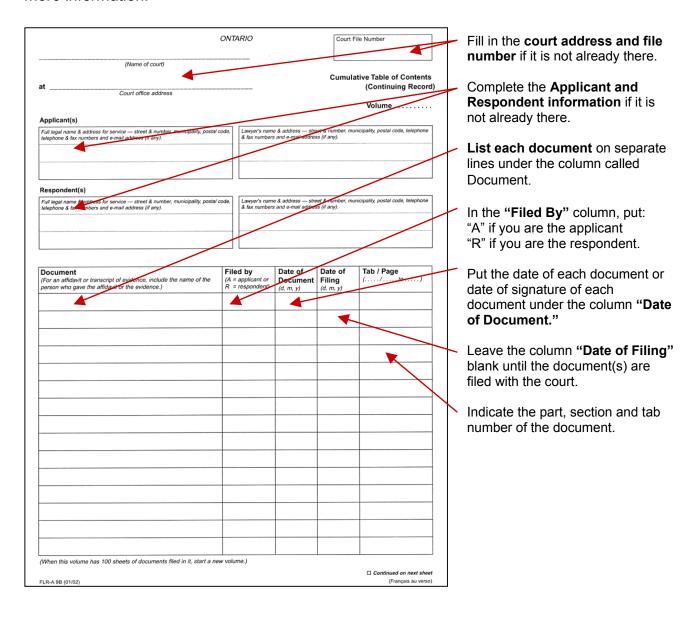

The person who served the documents must sign at the end of the Affidavit swearing or affirming that the affidavit is true. The Affidavit must be signed in front of a commissioner for taking affidavits. This can be done at a lawyer's office, at a legal aid clinic or at the court office. There may be a small fee for this service.

When completed, Form 6B must be filed in the court file, not in the Continuing Record.

Table of Contents (Continuing Record) – General Application with Other Claims

All forms and documents that are being served on the other party must be served with an updated Table of Contents. Refer to the General Information Sheet – "Filing Documents" for more information.

Form 36: Affidavit for Divorce – General Application with Other Claims

This form is to be completed by the party who started the case and must be filed with the Divorce Order – Form 25A.
