Arctic Québec, for superior caribou hunting. Nunavik, the land of the Inuit, is the region where we welcome you to hunt the expanding Leaf River herd of Québec-Labrador caribou. Hunts are staged out of Kuujuaq on Ungava Bay. Daily jet service from Montréal provides our guests with comfortable, reliable and efficient travel north. Floatplanes and Twin Engine Otters await to take you on the last leg of your journey, to your selected hunting camp. Arctic Adventures does it better. Outfitting Québec-Labrador caribou hunts requires careful planning and attention to detail. Arctic Adventures' hunts are organized to provide hunters with a memorable experience on the tundra. When you book a hunt with us, you know you will be hunting with a maximum of eight hunters in camp. You can expect to relax and enjoy five full days of exciting caribou hunting, trout fishing and northern adventure. Our chartered Single Otter enables us to move hunters if caribou migrations shift. Due to the superb locations of our hunting camps, our success rate for two mature bulls has been close to 100% over the past 10 years.

Club Explo-Sylva Outfitters has been organizing hunting and fishing trips in the Far North for over 15 years. Thanks to competent personnel, excellent facilities and, above all, strategic location at Caniapiscau—in the middle of the new caribou migration routes—guest hunters can expect a successful hunt. Seasoned hunters who want to be self-sufficient and take care of their game themselves should choose a Housekeeping Plan package that includes all the necessary equipment. For those who enjoy more comfort, a guided hunt with American Plan at the main lodge is the logical choice. If you intend to hunt caribou in the tundra of Québec's Far North, leave all the planning to Explo-Sylva's professionals. They will do their utmost to ensure a pleasant, safe and successful trip.

Hunt with the pros! Since 1972, the Humes have been involved in guiding and outfitting in northern Québec. No one knows the area better, and years of dedication providing quality fair-chase hunts for Québec-Labrador caribou have kept this outfit in a class of its own. Although there are 24 campsites strategically located throughout both the George River and Leaf River caribou migration routes, only eight are booked at a time (six hunters each), leaving the others as spare camps in case guests need to be moved to a more productive area. Scouts are available at some of the spare camps, and there are daily flights into the hunting area by private Cessna. Rest assured that Jack Hume Adventures will do everything possible to make your hunting or fishing trip a rewarding experience to remember. Their 80% repeat clientele, the highest in the business, is true proof of their dedication. For your safety and convenience, all guides speak English and have taken courses in CPR and first aid.

Seize the opportunity to hunt trophy-class caribou of the Hudson Bay Leaf River herd. Experience the awesome spectacle of trophy bulls as they migrate from their summering ground through the western areas of Hudson Bay. And as one of only three outfitters operating west of the 73rd meridian, Mirage gets 100% results. From the main lodge near the wintering areas of the Leaf River herd in LG-4, hunters are ferried to productive full-service camps strategically placed within the main migration corridors. We offer immediate floatplane mobility in the event of changing migrations. Our 100% success rate of two caribou per hunter is no accident. As we offer only two client group rotations per week, hunters will experience our "award-winning" services and understand why we are on our way to becoming the premier caribou outfitter in Northern Québec. Enjoy direct flight access from Montréal to our lodge in LG-4 or save big money and drive up on Québec's northernmost highway.

The majority of Boone and Crockett, Pope and Young, and Safari-Club scores come from Schefferville, where the outfitters boast superior accommodations and transportation (seaplane and aircraft), a higher number of mobile camps, and more experienced and skilled personnel. With Safari Caribou du Nouveau-Québec, you deal directly with the owner; there are no intermediaries, no extra or hidden costs. You can expect personalized treatment. Safari Caribou is co-owner of the V.N.Q. travel agency and flies Convair 580 planes between Montréal and Schefferville—so there's no better guarantee of top-quality air transportation! In most of our hunting camps there is excellent fishing as well, for some or all of the following species: Lake trout, speckled trout, landlocked salmon and northern pike. Roch St-Laurent, the owner of Safari Caribou du Nouveau-Québec, will be there to greet you in Schefferville and do everything to make this trip the best of your life!

Located on Anticosti Island, right in the middle of the magnificent Gulf of St. Lawrence, 800 km (500 mi.) east of Montréal, this territory covers more than 1,000 km² (400 sq. mi.) of the southeastern half of the island, including the famous Bell River hunting territory, open for hunting only in the last six weeks of the season. The whole area has an extremely high density of white-tailed deer, and virtually everyone bags the quota. A network of roads and trails provides easy access to all the best spots. The facilities are split between two locations, Chaloupe River and Bell River. Both offer American and European Plans, and six or seven days of hunting, with guide service for two, three, or four hunters. The lodges and cottages are all equipped with electricity, hot and cold running water, and showers. The meals, served in the lodges, are of a quality usually associated with fine French cuisine.

Black Bear Lodge is located at the northern boundary of the deer habitat, where only the biggest survive, in an area never hunted before. Animals weighing over 300 pounds are common and, given the lack of hunting pressure and numerous logging operations that have been conducted, their numbers have grown incredibly. The hunt can be conducted from miradors, via spot-and-stock (using binoculars) or, in the middle of rutting season, calling and antler-rattling. This enormous region is also teeming with small game. Hunters arrive a day before the hunt and, accompanied by their guide, tour the area they'll be exploring the following day. If you want to bag the biggest deer of your life and stay in five-star accommodations, just call us!

Caesar's Lodge is located 485 km (300 mi.) from Montréal and 240 km (150 mi.) from Mont-Laurier on the banks of César Lake. It is the kind of place that fills city dwellers with delight, because there's absolutely no trace of civilization—only wilderness, as our ancestors must have experienced it. More than 390 km² (150 sq. mi.) of this wild wonderland belongs exclusively to Caesar's Lodge, not including our trophy camps! Caesar's Lodge consists of the lodge itself and a dozen fully equipped, cozy cottages (with hot showers and flush toilets) that can each accommodate 2 to 12 persons, plus 50 additional outpost cabins for absolute privacy and trophy fishing. All outpost cabins boast beds and mattresses, kitchenware, propane refrigerator, propane stove, propane lighting, and wood stove, and come with or without indoor plumbing. We have great walleye and trophy pike fishing (plus trout fishing at the main lodge) and excellent bear and moose hunting.

Come moose hunting at Club Trout Lake, a rich territory that maximizes your chances of harvesting a moose. Club Trout Lake territory covers 437 km² (169 sq. mi.) of exclusive hunting territory and each hunting party gets its own exclusive hunting area. Made up of mixed maturing forest, it offers excellent cover and abundant food for moose. Our area is harvested according to controlled forestry practices, ensuring sustainable yield and good conservation practices for a large moose population estimated at 188 heads. In 2005, 38 groups bagged just as many moose. In 2006, each group will have the opportunity to participate in a draw that allows bagging a female. Every year new forestry roads offer up unexplored hunting grounds. While black bear hunting at Club Trout Lake, you'll discover an abundant resource that is moderately exploited in a vast territory stretching over 1,608 km² (621 sq. mi.). An agreement with Zec Kipawa, our neighbor, allows us to offer an ever-greater territory to our customers. Due to recent timber cutting and the new undergrowth producing plenty of bear feed, the population has increased greatly while the number of hunters remains limited. All services, cottages, outpost camps, guide and equipment are available for your hunting party.

AN UNBELIEVABLE EXPERIENCE. Gesti-Faune Corporate Lodges have hunting rights on huge tracts of private and public woodlands including the Laurentians Wildlife Reserve (2 million acres of protected pristine territory). In this area, the black bear population has exploded over the past few years. Government biologists are trying to control the population by giving out some special permits allowing hunters to harvest a second bear. You can actually see this for yourself on the Outdoor Channel where Scott Anderson, host of BackLand Experiences, featured a back-to-back special on trophy bear hunting in January 2006.

Bring along your spouse and other non-hunters! Gesti-Faune has a solid reputation for fine dining. You can take a look at our award-winning book Gastronomy and the Forest, which won the "Best Cookbook in the World All Languages" award at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards. The prestigious Manoir Brulé lodge has classy bedrooms with private bathroom, hot and cold running water as well as around-the-clock electricity. Being only 90 minutes from Québec City, you can complement your trip by spending a couple of extra days visiting one of the oldest and most beautiful cities in North America.

Enjoy fishing at our newly developed location on Rapides-des-Joachims Island in the Ottawa Reservoir, only 3 hours north of the Thousand Islands and west of Montréal. Or hunt for spring bear in some of the best areas in Québec. Baiting starts in early spring and continues until the end of June, with sites checked daily. Baiting with pastries, meat, and a few special ingredients really brings in the bears! Guests are given as much bait as they need to ensure a successful hunt. As this is only our second year of hunting in this newly developed area of Québec, the number of trophy bears harvested should be very high. Our lodge is easy to reach, and you can drive right to the door of our beautiful new cottages, which are fully equipped for housekeeping.

This exclusive territory covers 272 km² (105 sq. mi.) and shelters a good population of moose and bear. If bear ranks as your top priority, we invite you to visit us in the spring. In the fall, moose hunters can also be rewarded with a trophy to be proud of. Whether you decide to stay in a well-equipped remote cabin or a cottage at the main lodge, equipped with electricity, indoor toilets, shower and separate rooms, you're sure to have an exciting outdoor experience.
