

Newfoundland and Labrador Centre For Applied Health Research

Hold the Date:

2007 NLCAHR Stakeholder Forum

The Newfoundland and Labrador Centre for Applied Health Research will be holding its annual Stakeholder Forum on Thursday, March 8 2007 at the Fairmont Newfoundland Hotel.

This all-day session will be an opportunity to discuss revisions to NLCAHR's strategic plan and programs, to discuss research priorities for the next three to five years, and to share information on current and prospective research interests and activities.

There will be no registration fee and lunch will be served. Please hold this date and look for an invitation in January.

Research Affinity Groups

NLCAHR coordinates a number of Research Affinity Groups that bring researchers with similar interests together to discuss current and prospective research activities.

Our current Affinity Groups are:

- Rural, Northern and Aboriginal Health
- Applied Genetics
- Quantitative Research
- Women's Health/Gender and Health
- Qualitative Research (a new group starting in early 2007)

Meetings are generally held twice per year at the NLCAHR offices. To learn more about any of these groups, to suggest a new group, or to add your name to our mailing list, contact Annette McGrath: amcgrath@mun.ca

Please help us meet your research communications needs by completing the NLCAHR communications survey.
