

PREMIER'S ATHLETIC AWARDS

The Premier's Athletic Awards recognize the top female and male athletes from each sport participating in the 2004/2005 BC Athlete Assistance Program. Past award recipients include Paralympian Marni Abbott (Wheelchair Basketball) and Olympians Diane Cummins (Athletics) and Daniel Igali (Wrestling).

The BC Athlete Assistance Program, administered by the Sport Branch, provides financial support to athletes who demonstrate the potential and commitment to represent British Columbia and Canada in athletic competition. The program helps athletes reach their athletic goals while pursuing their educational and career goals. Eligible athletes are those striving to participate in major multi-sport Games competitions (Olympics, Paralympics, Commonwealth, Pan American, Canada Games).

A Message from the Premier

Welcome to the 2005 annual Premier's Athletic Awards.

Today we recognize the achievements of 82 athletes in 43 sport disciplines who participated in the 2004/2005 B.C. Athlete Assistance Program.

These athletes were selected for this program because of their potential and desire to represent our province or country at major sporting events in Canada and around the world. The awards give us an opportunity to celebrate their accomplishments, born out of dedication, hard work and exceptional talent.

But more than that, they give us the opportunity to celebrate the true spirit of sport that drives athletes like these to always reach higher and fills those of us who watch their achievements with pride, admiration and wonder.

Our government is proud to fund the B.C. Athlete Assistance program, as well as other programs such as the national Own the Podium and Game Plan BC. We recognize that it is only through sustained assistance at every level of development that we will see Canada achieve its podium potential in 2010 and beyond. We also recognize that achievement in sport translates into achievement in life, and that our athletes and their accomplishments have the power to inspire us as individuals and bring us together as a society.

On behalf of a proud province, congratulations to today's award recipients for your accomplishments and thank you for sharing your success with all of us.

Sincerely,
Gordon Campbell
Premier

A Message from the Minister

As minister responsible for sport in B.C., I'm pleased to join Premier Gordon Campbell in welcoming you to the 2005 Premier's Athletic Awards.

Through programs like the B.C. Athlete Assistance Program, we are providing the support athletes need to achieve new levels of excellence in sport while they continue to pursue their career and educational goals.

Because of their talent and dedication, these athletes were selected by their Provincial Sport Organizations for participation in the 2004/2005 B.C. Athlete Assistance Program. Today, they will be honoured for their achievements under this program.

These athletes join an impressive list of past recipients, many of whom have gone on to win medals for Canada at World events such as the Olympic and Paralympic Games, including Paralympian Marni Abbott (Basketball) and Olympians Daniel Igali (Wrestling), Kelly Law (Curling) and Ross MacDonald (Sailing).

I'd like to thank the sport organizations, coaches and families who share in these awards through their commitment to the athletes honoured here today.

Thank you to today's award recipients for your dedication and contribution to amateur sport in B.C. I trust the accomplishments we celebrate today are just the beginning of many honours you will earn in future.

Sincerely,
Olga Ilich
Minister
