
INFORMATION FOR TRANSFER AND ELIMINATION OF REGISTERED OFFICE BY AGENT AND TRANSFER OF RECORDS OFFICE BY AGENT

Thank you for your request on how to transfer or eliminate a company's registered office or transfer a company's records office under sections 39, 40 and 41 of the Business Corporations Act.

Note: These instructions must be read in conjunction with the applicable section of the Business Corporations Act (see Appendix A).

PART A TRANSFER OF REGISTERED OFFICE BY AGENT under section 39 of the Business Corporations Act

An applicant agent who is NOT a director or officer for the company, but who is authorized by the company to maintain the registered office of the company at the person's residence or place of business, may apply to the registrar to transfer the location of the registered office of the company to the British Columbia residence of a director or officer of the company.

Note: If the applicant agent is unable to locate the British Columbia residence of a director or officer, the applicant agent can apply to the court under section 40 of the Business Corporations Act to have the registered office of the company eliminated.

See instructions in Part B of this package on how to apply to eliminate the registered office.

STEP ONE

At least 21 days before submitting an application to the registrar for filing to transfer the registered office of the company, the applicant agent must provide to the director or officer of the company a notice in writing advising they will make an application to the registrar unless, within 21 days after the date of the notice, the company files with the registrar a notice of change of address under section 35 to transfer the location of the registered office.

The applicant agent must also specify in the written notice, the British Columbia residence address of the director or officer as the address to which the location of the registered office is to be transferred by the application made to the registrar.

Note: Section 39(5) of the Business Corporations Act states that an applicant agent who is unable to ensure receipt by the director or officer of the written notice may apply to the court for an order of substituted service of that notice and may serve that notice in accordance with any order made in response to that application.

If, within the 21 days the company files a notice of change of address for the registered office, then the applicant agent does not need to make the application to the registrar. The process is stopped here.

If the notice of change of address is not filed by the company, move to Step 2 below.

STEP 2

If the company fails to file a notice of change of address, the applicant agent can proceed to submit for filing with the registrar an Application to Transfer the Registered Office (Form 3). An affidavit must be provided concurrently with the application that specifies the requirements outlined in section 39(4) of the Business Corporations Act (see Appendix A).

Note: Section 39(6) of the Business Corporations Act states a director or officer who has received a written notice from the applicant agent advising of the proposed transfer of the registered office may apply to the court for an order that the location of the registered office not be transferred to the residence of the director or office.

STEP 3

When the registrar receives and accepts the application and affidavit for filing along with the appropriate fees (see Part D, Fees), and provided the court does not order otherwise, the registered office will be transferred to the residence address specified in the application at the beginning of the day following the date on which the application and affidavit are filed.

The registrar will provide confirmation of the transfer of registered office to the applicant agent and to the company at the new registered office address.

PART B
ELIMINATION OF REGISTERED OFFICE

under section 40 of the
Business Corporations Act

STEP 1

If the applicant agent is unable to locate the British Columbia residence of any of the directors or officers for the company, the applicant agent may apply to the court to eliminate the registered office of the company.

The application to the court must be accompanied by an affidavit of the applicant agent as to the steps taken to locate the directors and officers of the company.

The court may, if satisfied that no director or officer can, after reasonable efforts, be located, make the order it considers appropriate, including an order that the registered office of the company be eliminated on the terms and conditions that the court considers appropriate.

If the court makes an order that the registered office of the company be eliminated, the order is to set out the manner in which records may be served on, and mailed, delivered, sent, provided and furnished to the company.

STEP 2

If the court makes any order that the registered office be eliminated, the applicant agent must promptly file with the registrar a Notice of Elimination of Registered Office (Form 4) concurrently with a copy of the entered court order.

STEP 3

When the registrar receives and accepts the application and the court order for filing along with the appropriate fees (see Part D, Fees) the registered office of the company is eliminated at the beginning of the day following the date on which the notice and court order are filed.

The registrar will provide confirmation of the elimination of the registered office to the company and deliver the confirmation in the manner set out in the court order.

PART C
TRANSFER OF RECORDS OFFICE BY AGENT

under section 41 of the
Business Corporations Act

An applicant agent who is NOT a director or officer for the company, but who is authorized by the company to maintain the records office of the company at the person's residence or place of business, may apply to the court to transfer the location of the records office of the company to the British Columbia residence of a director or officer of the company.

If the applicant agent is unable to locate the British Columbia residence of a director or officer, the applicant agent will not be able to proceed with the transfer of the records office.

If the applicant agent is able to locate the British Columbia residence of a director or officer, then the process continues. Proceed to Step 1.

STEP 1

At least 21 days before filing the application with the court to transfer the records office of the company, the applicant agent must provide to the director or officer of the company a notice in writing advising they will make an application to the court unless, within 21 days after the date of the notice, the company files with the registrar a notice of change of address under section 35 to transfer the location of the records office.

The applicant agent must also specify in the written notice, the British Columbia residence address of the director or officer as the address to which the location of the records office is to be transferred by the application made to the court.

If, within the 21 days the company files a notice of change of address for the records office, then the applicant agent does not need to make the application to the court. The process is stopped here.

If the notice of change of address is not submitted for filing by the company, move to Step 2 below.

STEP 2

If the company fails to file a notice of change of address, the applicant agent may apply to the court to transfer the location of the records office to the residence of the director or officer of the company who was provided the written notice in Step 1.

The application to the court must be accompanied by an affidavit of the applicant agent that specifies the requirements outlined in section 41(4) of the Business Corporations Act (see Appendix A).

Note: Section 41(5) of the Business Corporations Act states a director or officer who receives the notice referred to in subsection (2) may apply to the court for an order that the location of the records office not be transferred to the residence of the director or officer.

STEP 3

If the court makes an order that the records office be transferred, the applicant agent must promptly submit to the registrar for filing a Notice of Transfer of Records (Form 5) concurrently with a copy of the entered court order.

STEP 4

When the registrar receives and accepts the application and the court order for filing along with the appropriate fees (see Part D, Fees) the transfer of the records office takes effect when the application and court order are filed.

The registrar will provide confirmation of the transfer of the records office to the company at its registered office address.

BUSINESS CORPORATIONS ACT (RSBC 2002) Chapter 57

Part 2 – Incorporation

Division 4 – Company Offices

Section 39 – Transfer of registered office by agent

Section 40 – Elimination of registered office

Section 41 – Transfer of records office by agent

Transfer of registered office by agent

- 39 (1) In this section, “applicant agent” means a person
- (a) who is not a director or officer of the company, and
 - (b) who is authorized by the company to maintain the registered office of the company at the person’s residence or place of business.
- (2) An applicant agent who maintains the registered office of a company at the person’s residence or place of business may apply to the registrar, in an application to transfer registered office in the form established by the registrar, to transfer the location of the registered office to the British Columbia residence of a director or officer of the company.
- (3) At least 21 days before submitting an application under subsection (2) to the registrar for filing, the applicant agent must, subject to subsection (5), provide to the director or officer referred to in subsection (2) a notice in writing
- (a) advising that the applicant agent will make an application under this section unless, within 21 days after the date of the notice, the company files with the registrar a notice of change of address under section 35 to transfer the location of its registered office, and
 - (b) specifying the British Columbia residence address of the director or officer as the address to which the location of the registered office is to be transferred by the application.
- (4) An applicant agent must provide to the registrar, concurrently with submitting the application to the registrar for filing, an affidavit of the applicant agent
- (a) confirming that subsection (3) has been complied with,
 - (b) proposing that the registered office be located at the residence address specified, under subsection (3) (b), in the notice referred to in that subsection,
 - (c) describing that residence address as a mailing address and as a delivery address,
 - (d) providing the reasons for the applicant agent’s belief that the proposed location, as described, is the residence of the director or officer referred to in the application, and
 - (e) providing proof
 - (i) that the director or officer referred to in the application received the notice referred to in subsection (3), or
 - (ii) in a case to which subsection (5) applies, that the applicant agent complied with the court order made under that subsection.
- (5) An applicant agent who is unable to ensure receipt by the director or officer of the notice referred to in subsection (3) may apply to the court for an order of substituted service of that notice and may serve that notice in accordance with any order made in response to that application.
- (6) A director or officer who receives the notice referred to in subsection (3) may apply to the court for an order that the location of the registered office not be transferred to the residence of the director or officer.
- (7) The registered office of the company is transferred to the residence address specified in the application under subsection (2) at the beginning of the day following the date on which the application is filed with the registrar.

- (7.1) If a company to which subsection (7) applies has a notice of articles, the company's notice of articles is, at the time that its registered office is transferred, altered to reflect that transfer.
- (8) After the registered office of a company is transferred under this section, the registrar must
- (a) furnish to the company,
 - (i) if the company has a notice of articles, a certified copy of the notice of articles as altered, or
 - (ii) in any other case, confirmation of the transfer of the registered office, and
 - (b) furnish a copy of the notice of articles or the confirmation, as the case may be, to the applicant agent.

Elimination of registered office

- 40 (1) In this section, “applicant agent” has the same meaning as in section 39 (1).
- (2) If an applicant agent for a company is unable to locate any of the directors or officers of the company, the applicant agent may apply to the court to eliminate the registered office of the company.
- (3) An application under subsection (2) must be accompanied by an affidavit of the applicant agent as to the steps taken to locate the directors and officers of the company.
- (4) On an application under subsection (2), the court
- (a) may, if satisfied that no director or officer can, after reasonable efforts, be located, make the order it considers appropriate, including an order that the registered office of the company be eliminated on the terms and conditions that the court considers appropriate, and
 - (b) must, if the court makes an order that the registered office of the company be eliminated under paragraph (a) of this subsection, set out, by order, the manner in which records may be served on, and mailed, delivered, sent, provided and furnished to, the company.
- (5) If the court orders that the registered office be eliminated under subsection (4), the applicant agent must promptly file with the registrar a notice of elimination of registered office in the form established by the registrar and a copy of the entered order.
- (6) The registered office of a company is eliminated at the beginning of the day following the date on which the notice of elimination of registered office is filed with the registrar.
- (7) If a company to which subsection (6) applies has a notice of articles, the company's notice of articles is, at the time that its registered office is eliminated, altered to reflect that elimination.
- (8) After the registered office of a company is eliminated, the registrar must furnish to the company,
- (a) if the company has a notice of articles, a certified copy of the notice of articles as altered, or
 - (b) in any other case, confirmation of the elimination of the registered office.
- (9) The service of records on and the mailing, delivering, sending, providing or furnishing of records to a company that has had its registered office eliminated under this section may be effected in the manner ordered by the court under subsection (4) (b), and any reference in this Act to serving a record on, or mailing, by ordinary or registered mail, delivering, sending, providing or furnishing a record to, the registered office of a company is, if that company has had its registered office eliminated under this section, deemed to be a reference to the manner ordered by the court under subsection (4) (b).

Transfer of records office by agent

- 41 (1) In this section, “applicant agent” means a person
- (a) who is not a director or officer of the company, and
 - (b) who is authorized by the company to maintain the records office of the company at the person's residence or place of business.

- (2) An applicant agent who maintains the records office of a company at the person's residence or place of business may apply to the court to transfer the location of the records office to the British Columbia residence of a director or officer of the company if, at least 21 days before filing the application with the court, the applicant agent provides to that director or officer a notice in writing
 - (a) advising that the applicant agent will make an application under this section unless, within 21 days after the date of the notice, the company files with the registrar a notice of change of address under section 35 to transfer the location of its records office, and
 - (b) specifying the British Columbia residence address of the director or officer as the address to which the location of the records office is to be transferred by the application.
- (3) Unless, within 21 days after the date of the notice referred to in subsection (2) of this section, the company files with the registrar a notice of change of address under section 35 to transfer the location of its records office, the applicant agent may apply to the court to transfer the location of the records office to the residence of the director or officer of the company to whom the notice referred to in subsection (2) of this section was provided.
- (4) An application under subsection (3) must be accompanied by an affidavit of the applicant agent
 - (a) confirming that subsection (2) has been complied with,
 - (b) proposing that the records office be located at the residence address specified, under subsection (2) (b), in the notice referred to in that subsection,
 - (c) describing that residence address as a mailing address and as a delivery address,
 - (d) providing the reasons for the applicant agent's belief that the proposed location, as described, is the residence of the director or officer referred to in the application, and
 - (e) providing proof that the director or officer referred to in the application received the notice referred to in subsection (2).
- (5) A director or officer who receives the notice referred to in subsection (2) may apply to the court for an order that the location of the records office not be transferred to the residence of the director or officer.
- (6) If, on an application under subsection (3), the court orders that the records office be transferred, the applicant agent must promptly submit to the registrar for filing,
 - (a) a notice of transfer of records in the form established by the registrar to confirm that the records kept at the company's records office have been physically transferred to the new location of the records office ordered by the court, and
 - (b) a copy of the entered order.
- (7) A transfer of the records office of a company under this section takes effect when the notice of transfer of records referred to in subsection (6) is filed with the registrar.
- (8) If the company to which subsection (7) applies has a notice of articles, the company's notice of articles is, at the time that the transfer of its records office takes effect, altered to reflect that transfer.
- (9) After the records office of a company is transferred under this section, the registrar must furnish to the company,
 - (a) if the company has a notice of articles, a certified copy of the notice of articles as altered, or
 - (b) in any other case, confirmation of the transfer of the records office.
