

Livestock Watering FACTSHEET

BRITISH COLUMBIA
Ministry of Agriculture and Lands

Order No. 590.306-5
January 2006

The Stockman's Guide to RANGE LIVESTOCK WATERING from Surface Water Sources

This publication contains excellent information which may be of assistance to you. It is only available directly from the publisher for a fee. For the current price, and to obtain a copy, please contact the publisher directly at the following address.

Prairie Agricultural Machinery Institute (PAMI)
Box 1900
Humbolt, Saskatchewan S0K 2A0
Toll Free: 1-800 567-7264 or (306) 682-5033

The Stockman's Guide to Range Livestock Watering from Surface Water Sources

Table of Contents

- Introduction
- Herd and Range Management
- What about water quality?
- Why should I change my watering system?
- What can I do to develop an alternative watering system?
- What do I need to know when designing an alternative watering system?
- What are the alternatives?
- Access Ramps
- Livestock Powered Pumping Systems
- Solar Powered Pumping System
- Slingpump systems
- Gravity Flow Water Reservoir
- Water Hauling
- Pipelines
- Windmills
- Hydraulic Ram Pumps
- Appendix I – Case Study
- Appendix II – Equipment Suppliers

This book is approximately 36 pages in length.