The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991
S.S. 1991 Chapter T-1.1
(S.S. 2000, c.30)
Sections 2, 3 & 4

Interpretation

2 In this Act:

- (a) “document” means a document that is required by an Act to be laid before the Assembly;
- (b) “preparer” means the department, agency, board or commission of the Government of Saskatchewan or Crown corporation that, or the person who, is required by an Act to prepare and submit a document to the presenter;
- (c) “presenter” means the Lieutenant Governor in Council, member of the Executive Council or other person who is required by an Act to lay a document before the Assembly.

Submission of document

3(1) Subject to subsection (2), a preparer shall submit the document, which the preparer is required to prepare and submit, to the presenter at least 30 days before the document must be laid before the Assembly in accordance with subsection 4(1).

(2) Where an Act requires a document to be submitted within a period shorter than the period mentioned in subsection (1), the preparer shall submit the document to the presenter within that shorter period.

Presenting of document

4(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (6), a presenter shall lay a document before the Assembly in accordance with the following rules:

- (a) if the period with respect to which the document is prepared ends after March 31, 1999 and on or before March 31, 2000, the document is to be laid within 210 days after the end of the period;
- (b) if the period with respect to which the document is prepared ends after March 31, 2000 and on or before March 31, 2001, the document is to be laid within 180 days after the end of the period;
- (c) if the period with respect to which the document is prepared ends after March 31, 2001 and on or before March 31, 2002, the document is to be laid within 150 days after the end of the period;
- (d) if the period with respect to which the document is prepared ends after March 31, 2002, the document is to be laid within 120 days after the end of the period.

(2) Where the presenter is the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the President of the Executive Council or a member of the Executive Council designated by the President of the Executive Council shall lay the document before the Assembly.

(3) If the Assembly is not sitting when a document is required to be laid before the Assembly in accordance with subsection (1), the presenter shall submit the document to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

(4) When the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly receives a document pursuant to subsection (3), the Clerk shall, as soon as possible:

(a) subject to subsection (5), cause a copy of the document to be delivered to each member of the Assembly; and

(b) make the document available for public inspection during normal business hours of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

(5) The requirement in subsection (4) to deliver a copy of a document to the members of the Assembly does not apply in the period that:

(a) commences on the day an Assembly is dissolved; and

(b) ends on the day fixed for making the return to the writ for the general election held pursuant to The Election Act, 1996 that follows the dissolution mentioned in clause (a).

(6) If a document is submitted to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly in accordance with subsection (3), the document is deemed to have been laid before the Assembly.

STANDARD TABLING PROVISION

The following Acts require an annual report and financial statements to be prepared and submitted to the minister responsible for the Act. The minister is required to table the annual report and financial statements in the Legislative Assembly.

Standard provision example:

“In every fiscal year, the board shall, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, prepare and submit to the minister: a report respecting its business and affairs during the previous fiscal year; and a financial statement showing its business during the previous fiscal year in any form that may be required by Treasury Board. The minister shall, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, lay before the Legislative Assembly the reports and statements received by the minister”.

CROWN CORPORATIONS

The Crown Corporations Act, 1993 is of broad application to most Crown Corporations, select provisions of that Act are reproduced here. Following this is a list of Legislation which specifically require certain Crown Corporations to table a report or statement.

Crown Corporations Act, 1993

After the creation of a CIC Crown corporation, the member of the Executive Council responsible for the CIC Crown corporation shall, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, lay before the Legislative Assembly a report setting out: (a) the name of the CIC Crown corporation; (b) the objects and purposes of the CIC Crown corporation; and (c) the location of the CIC Crown corporation's head office. S.S. 1993, c.C-50.101, s.12(3).

After the creation of a Treasury Board Crown corporation, the member of the Executive Council responsible for the Treasury Board Crown corporation shall, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, lay before the Legislative Assembly a report setting out: (a) the name of the Treasury Board Crown corporation; (b) the objects and purposes of the Treasury Board Crown corporation; and (c) the location of the Treasury Board Crown corporation's head office. S.S. 1993, c.C-50.101, s.15(3).

The member of the Executive Council responsible for a Crown corporation or designated subsidiary Crown corporation that acquires securities pursuant to this section shall, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, lay before the Legislative Assembly a copy of any contract pursuant to which the shares, bonds, debentures or other securities were acquired, and any member of the Executive Council who acquires any shares, bonds, debentures or other securities pursuant to this section shall, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, lay before the Legislative Assembly a copy of any contract pursuant to which the shares, bonds, debentures or other securities were acquired. S.S. 1993, c.C-50.101, s.29(6) and (7).

Where, in the opinion of the member of the Executive Council responsible for laying the contract before the Legislative Assembly, complying with subsection (6) or (7) would be detrimental to the commercial interests of the Crown including any Crown corporation or designated subsidiary Crown corporation, the member of the Executive Council is not required to comply with subsection (6) or (7), as the case may be. S.S. 2000, c.39, s.29(7.1)

Where a Crown corporation or any designated subsidiary Crown corporation incorporates a body corporate, the minister responsible for the Crown corporation or the designated subsidiary Crown corporation shall, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, lay before the Legislative Assembly a report outlining the name of the body corporate and the reasons for its incorporation. S.S. 1993, c.C-50.101, s.30(3).

34(1) Subject to subsection (2), every Crown corporation and every designated subsidiary Crown corporation in each fiscal year shall, within 90 days of the end of its preceding fiscal year, submit to the member of the Executive Council responsible for the Crown corporation or designated subsidiary Crown corporation, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act,

1991: (a) a report on its business for its preceding fiscal year; and (b) a financial statement showing its business for its preceding fiscal year in any form that may be required by Treasury Board.

(2) Notwithstanding The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, CIC shall submit to the minister the report and financial statement required pursuant to subsection (1) on or before the April 30 following its fiscal year end.

(3) The member of the Executive Council mentioned in subsection (1), in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, shall lay before the Legislative Assembly each report and statement received by him or her pursuant to subsection (1). S.S. 1993, c.C-50.101, s.34.

35(1) Where a person is required by this Act to lay a report or document before the Legislative Assembly in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, and the Legislative Assembly is not in session when the person received the report or document, the person required to lay the report or document shall submit the report or document to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly within 15 days of the day the report or document was received.

(2) When the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly receives a report or document pursuant to this section, the clerk shall, as soon as is possible: (a) subject to subsection (5), cause a copy of the report or document to be delivered to each member of the Legislative Assembly who is a member of the Standing Committee of the Legislative Assembly on Crown Corporations; and (b) make the report or document available for public inspection during normal business hours of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

(3) If a person required to lay a report or document before the Legislative Assembly submits the report or document to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly pursuant to this section, the person is deemed to have laid the report or document before the Legislative Assembly in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the Legislative Assembly is not in session where it: (a) is prorogued; or (b) is adjourned for an indefinite period or to a day more than 15 days after the day the person required to lay a report or document receives the report or document.

(5) The requirement in clause (2)(a) to deliver a copy of a report or document to the members of the Legislative Assembly who are members of the Standing Committee of the Legislative Assembly on Crown Corporations does not apply in the period that: (a) commences on the day a Legislative Assembly is dissolved; and (b) ends on the first sitting day of the first session of the Legislative Assembly held after the general election held pursuant to The Election Act, 1996 that follows the dissolution mentioned in clause (a). ### Balanced Budget Act

Interim report and other items to be incorporated annually in the estimates and/or the public accounts

The minister (of Finance) shall, after each general election, present a four-year financial plan and the debt management plan to the Legislative Assembly at the same time that the minister presents to the Legislative Assembly the budget estimates for the first fiscal year covered by the four-year financial plan. In each fiscal year covered by a four-year financial plan, the minister shall present to the Lieutenant Governor in Council an interim report that contains a revised forecast of expenses and revenues for the fiscal year in which the interim report is presented and sets out differences between the revised forecast and the forecast for the fiscal year as set out in the budget estimates for that fiscal year. Notwithstanding The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, the minister shall lay an interim report before the Legislative Assembly on or before the November 30 of the fiscal year to which the interim report relates.

If a major, unanticipated, identifiable event or set of circumstances has had a dramatic impact on expenses or revenues in a fiscal year, the minister shall present to the Legislative Assembly a special report identifying the event of circumstances and the financial implications of the event or circumstances. Notwithstanding The Tabling of Documents Act, 1991, the minister shall lay a special report before the Legislative Assembly on or before the October 31 of the fiscal year following the fiscal year to which the special report relates.

The minister shall prepare an annual report for each fiscal year covered by a four-year financial plan that includes a revised forecast of revenues and expenses for the remaining fiscal years covered by the four-year financial plan. The minister shall present the annual report to the Legislative Assembly at the same time that the minister presents the budget estimates for the fiscal year following the fiscal year to which the annual update report relates. If the accounting practices or policies of the Government of Saskatchewan change significantly, the minister shall note the change in the next annual update report that is presented to the Legislative Assembly following the change, and shall not use the change for the purpose of determining whether the objectives set forth in the four-year financial plan have been met, but, for that purpose, shall use the accounting practices and policies as they existed when the four-year financial plan was presented to the Legislative Assembly.

If the Legislature is not in session when the minister is required to lay before the Legislative Assembly a special report or an interim report, the minister shall submit the report to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly. On receipt of a special report or an interim report pursuant to subsection 7(1) of The Balanced Budget Act the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly shall deliver copies of the special report or interim report to all members of the Legislative Assembly and make the special report or interim report available for public inspection during normal business hours of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly. Where the minister submits a special report or an interim report to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly pursuant to subsection 7(1), the minister is deemed to have laid the special report or interim report before the Legislative Assembly in accordance with the Act. S.S. 1995, c.B-0.01, s.3, 4, 6, 7 and 8.

Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act - Rules and Procedures of the Legislative Assembly

The management of the Library, including regulation of admission, Library hours, and security and preservation of the collection, is the responsibility of the Legislative Librarian, subject to such special orders as the Legislative Librarian may receive from the Assembly, and the Legislative Librarian shall make an Annual Report to the Assembly through the Speaker. A catalogue of books belonging to the Library shall be kept, and pertinent statistics relative to the collection and its utilization shall be maintained and reported in the Legislative Librarian's Annual Report. Rules and Procedures of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan, Rule 150 and 151. S.S. 1979, c.L-11.1, s.68.4.
