

ASSESSMENT APPROACHES FOR THE FOLLOWING LEVELS OF CONFLICT:

MILD CONFLICT	MODERATE CONFLICT	SEVERE CONFLICT
Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assess existing arrangements and what they do positively or negatively then seek assistance where needed. Be child focused. Community / Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The community may get involved with education programs. Professionals may seek training on impact of divorce. Establish and maintain support groups for parents and children. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Train front line workers on assessment of conflict level and develop awareness of available services (mediators, mental health workers, teachers, social workers). Support parent and child education programs. 	Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assess existing arrangements and what they do positively or negatively then seek assistance where needed. Be child focused Community / Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establish and maintain support groups for children and parents. Support education programs for children and parents. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Support education programs for children and parents. Develop intake processes, assessment capacities and referral. 	Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assess need for mental health or police assistance. Community / Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide professional training for front line workers on impact of danger or violence and high conflict on children. Support mobile crisis / mental health services. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Support crisis intervention services. Develop specialized education for parents and children experiencing high conflict.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION APPROACHES FOR THE FOLLOWING LEVELS OF CONFLICT

MILD CONFLICT	MODERATE CONFLICT	SEVERE CONFLICT
Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Seek out information and initiate conflict resolution. Community / Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support parenting skills workbook. • Make available resources on effective communication, parenting and conflict resolution. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop model workbook and parenting plans. 	Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Seek out information and initiate conflict resolution. Community/Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support parenting skills workbook. • Make available resources on divorce and separation. • Counseling. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop model workbook and parenting plans. • Support parent and child education. • Support mediation. 	Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Seek out information and initiate conflict resolution Community/Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make available resources on divorce and separation. • Counseling Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case management. • Parenting plans. • Support special services for families with violence.

ENFORCEMENT APPROACHES FOR THE FOLLOWING LEVELS OF CONFLICT:

MILD CONFLICT	MODERATE CONFLICT	SEVERE CONFLICT
Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maintain parenting arrangements. • Promote activities to spend time with children when exercising access. Community/Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consider roles of community centres. Government	Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maintain parenting arrangements. • Establish protocols for communication and conflict resolution. Community/Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consider roles of community centres. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide appropriate remedies. • Review process to keep the orders up to date. 	Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maintaining parenting arrangements. • Seek out third party help (i.e. anger management). Community / Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consider roles of community centres. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Remedies • Review process for custody and access orders. • Supervised access services. • Manage abduction with civil and criminal remedies including guidelines for charging.

PREVENTION APPROACHES FOR THE FOLLOWING LEVELS OF CONFLICT:

MILD CONFLICT	MODERATE CONFLICT	SEVERE CONFLICT
Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflect on parenting skills with an impartial party. • Participate in education programs and support groups. Community / Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parenting Kit and education. • Reconciliation counseling. • Mentoring leaders in the community. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prevention and Support grants to assist communities to focus on child and family issues. 	Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflect on parenting skills with an impartial party. • Participate in education programs and support groups. Community / Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parenting Kit and education. • Reconciliation counseling. • Mentoring leaders in the community. Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support such as the Farm Stress Line. 	Individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflect on parenting skills with an impartial party. • Participate in education programs and support groups. Community / Organizations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parenting Kit and education. • Reconciliation counseling. • Mentoring leaders in the community. Government Support such as the Farm Stress Line.