

HEALTH BURSARIES

Don't miss the deadline! Apply today!

Every year the Saskatchewan Government offers bursaries to selected Saskatchewan students studying health professions that are in short supply. In exchange, students agree to work in Saskatchewan's publicly funded health system after graduation.

Bursary application deadline is May 5, 2006 for students studying to be:

- Registered Nurses
- Registered Psychiatric Nurses
- Licensed Practical Nurses
- Primary Care Nurse Practitioners
- Nurse Educators
- Advanced Nurses
- Pharmacists
- Nuclear Medicine Technologists
- Medical Radiation and Medical Laboratory Technologists
- MRI Technologists
- Combined Laboratory and X-ray Technicians
- Cytologists
- Physical, Occupational and Respiratory Therapists
- Prosthetists and Orthotists
- Speech Language Pathologists (Graduate Degree)
- Audiologists
- Public Health Inspectors
- Psychologists (Clinical) (Graduate Degree)
- Dieticians/Nutritionists
- Ultrasonographers
- Dental Therapists
- Social Workers (Clinical) (Graduate Degree)

Skilled health providers are important to Saskatchewan's future. That is why we invest $5 million a year in bursaries, as part of our retention and recruitment strategy outlined in our Action Plan for Saskatchewan Health Care.

Note: Different deadlines apply for other disciplines.
