CHAPTER J-2

An Act respecting Judges' Orders in Matters not in Court

Short title

1 This Act may be cited as The Judges' Orders Enforcement Act.

Jurisdiction of judge

2(1) Unless otherwise provided by the statute under which he acts, where jurisdiction is given to a judge as persona designata, he shall, in addition to the powers conferred by that statute, have the same jurisdiction as to proceedings generally and as to costs and otherwise and for enforcing his orders as in matters under his ordinary jurisdiction as a judge of the court to which he belongs.

(2) A judge acting as persona designata has the same immunity from legal liability as he has when exercising his ordinary jurisdiction as a judge of the court.

(3) All orders made by a judge so acting may be issued as if they were made in matters in court, or they may simply be signed by the judge.

R.S.S. 1978, c.J-2, s.2.

Filing orders

3 Every order made by a judge of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench for Saskatchewan acting as persona designata may be filed in the office of the local registrar of the Court of Queen's Bench at the judicial centre nearest to which the matter is heard, and, upon being so filed, is an order of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench for Saskatchewan and may be enforced as such.

1979-80, c.92, s.42.

Fees on filing

4 The same fees shall be payable on every order filed under section 3 as are payable upon the issue of an order made by the judge in the exercise of his ordinary jurisdiction.

R.S.S. 1978, c.J-2, s.4.

Entry of orders

5 Every order filed under section 3 shall be entered in the same manner as a judgment of the court in which the order is so filed.

R.S.S. 1978, c.J-2, s.5.

Appeal

6(1) No appeal lies from an order made by a judge acting as persona designata unless an appeal is expressly authorized by the Act giving the jurisdiction, or unless special leave is granted by the judge or, in the event of his refusal, by a judge of the Court of Appeal.

(2) Subject to the Act authorizing the appeal, the procedure on the appeal shall be the same as is or may be provided on an appeal from a final order, judgment or decision in a civil action of the court to which the judge making the order belongs, given, pronounced or made at or after the trial of the action.

R.S.S. 1978, c.J-2, s.6; 1979-80, c.92, s.42.
