

Did You Know?

The restaurant and foodservices industry is very important to Saskatchewan. Continued prosperity means working together to build fair and respectful workplaces.

Under Labour Standards, employers and employees have rights and responsibilities relating to:

- annual and public holidays
- payment of wages
- overtime
- transportation home
- uniforms
- minimum call-out
- work schedules and rest periods
- meal breaks
- discharging and laying off employees
- leaves for new parents

The Restaurant and Foodservices Industry package has information about these topics and occupational health and safety.
