

YOUR KEY TO STUDYING AND WORKING IN CANADA

THE CENTRE FOR CANADIAN STUDIES Canada College St. Petersburg State University

invites applications for the

2005/6 Canadian Studies Program

► The Centre enjoys the support of:

- The Consulate General of Canada in St. Petersburg
- The International Council for Canadian Studies
- The Russian Association for Canadian Studies

► All tuition at the Centre is carried out by leading specialists in Canadian Studies from St. Petersburg and teaching staff from Canada.

The Canadian Studies program consists of a series of general lectures in Canadian Studies covering topics such as the history, geography, economy and politics of Canada. Also included are specialized lecture courses on the indigenous peoples of Canada and their culture. Cultural diversity in Canada is also addressed, along with practical classes in English and French. We provide our students with a unique opportunity to spend a period of study in Canada with grant support.

Various events are organized at the Centre, including talks by prominent political and cultural figures from Canada, screenings of Canadian films and academic conferences and seminars.

Graduates receive a certificate awarded jointly by Canada College, St. Petersburg State University and the Consulate General of Canada in St. Petersburg.

Tuition takes place over one academic year – from October 2005 to May 2006. Classes are held at the Faculty of Philology, St. Petersburg State University, 11 Universitetskaya Naberezhnaya, Room 210. Fees are payable for tuition.

We offer native English and French speakers the opportunity to teach language classes in exchange for free Russian tuition.

For enquiries about tuition fees and other matters please contact the Centre by email: canada@list.ru. Further information can be found on our website: <http://www.phil.pu.ru/depts/31.htm>