Canadian Environmental Assessment Act Comprehensive Study Newfoundland LNG Limited - LNG Transshipment & Storage Terminal

Consultation on the Proposed Scope of the Project and the Availability of Participant Funding

Newfoundland LNG Limited proposes to construct, operate and eventually decommission a Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) Transshipment and Storage Terminal at Grassy Point, at the head of Placentia Bay, Newfoundland and Labrador. The development proposal includes a marine terminal comprised of three jetties, a tug berth, eight LNG storage tanks, and supporting infrastructure including an access road, office facilities, security fencing, and utilities such as water and power. The proposed facility will provide LNG to markets in the northeastern United States and Canada.

The project is subject to a comprehensive study under the Canadian Environmental Assessment Act. Transport Canada and Fisheries and Oceans Canada, as the federal responsible authorities for the project assessment, now invite the public to comment on the proposed scope of the project, the factors to be considered and the ability of the comprehensive study to address issues relating to the project.

Written submissions received by Transport Canada by April 27, 2007 will be considered. Interested persons may submit their comments in the official language of their choice to:
