

ELECTIONS

Newfoundland Labrador

ENUMERATION WORKERS REQUIRED

The Chief Electoral Office has started work on an Enumeration of all eligible voters in the province. Beginning early in May, enumerators will go door-to-door to every residence in the province, gathering the names, addresses and birthdates of all eligible voters.

BETWEEN 1700 AND 1900 WORKERS ARE REQUIRED.

Good writing and communication skills are essential.

Applicants who are hired will be given Enumeration training and will be working in the Electoral Districts where they reside.

Application forms are available at the office of Elections Newfoundland and Labrador and can be obtained by mail, fax or on the internet.
