

STORAGE TANK SYSTEM REGISTRATION

Owner name		Owner address
Operator name if different from storage tank owner
Landowner name if different that storage tank owner
Type of facility
Storage tank system location if different than "Owner address" unless system is intended to be in place for less than 60 days whereupon the system may be registered as having one or multiple temporary unspecified locations
Storage tank system capacity or combined storage tank capacity if there are more than one in the storage tank system
Type of petroleum product or allied petroleum product stored
Year of installation of each storage tank in the system
Type of storage tank material for each storage tank in the system
Type of piping material
Corrosion protection provided (if applicable)
Type of pump(s)		Type of leak detection
Internal lining (if any)		Type of secondary containment
Number of location of monitoring wells		Type of overfill protection
Type of volatile organic compound (VOC) emission control
Manufacturer of each storage tank in the system
Full Registration for aboveground storage tank systems must also include
Type of diking		Type of storage tank, whether horizontal or vertical	