

is sipping 40-year old brandy in a luxury tent still considered roughing it?

Like your travel experiences with a bit of a twist? Look inside.
www.canada.travel/discover

Canada
keep exploring when down-filled duvets and heirloom china are what you see, life's not that rough.

But at second glance, you'll find yourself in an ultra-luxurious resort that just happens to be off the beaten path. This is one of the happy surprises you'll experience in Canada. Read on and learn that here, it's more about living the life than seeing the sights. From the luxurious to the unique to the slightly unexpected, you're sure to find just what you're looking for. To get the latest on these and other Canadian travel experiences, go to www.canada.travel/discover

ARCHITECTURE CAN TEACH YOU ABOUT A CITY. IT SHOWS AN APPRECIATION FOR ANTIQUITY, AND A READINESS TO SEIZE WHAT IS NEW, AND WHAT IS UNHEARD OF. WITH THE ROM, I WANT TO SHOW THAT THIS IS A VIBRANT PLACE, AND A CONTEMPORARY ONE. I WANT TO SHOW THAT TORONTO IS SHAPING THE IMAGE OF WHAT A 21ST CENTURY CITY SHOULD BE.

DANIEL LIBESKIND

Be part of Toronto's cultural renaissance as the Royal Ontario Museum unveils the Michael Lee-Chin Crystal (June 2nd), for the opening of the Luminato Festival, celebrating Toronto's artistic and creative spirit running June 1st - 10th. Hotel rates from $110 US.

 Toronto unlimited
www.torontotourism.com

let your creative spirit loose. everybody else is.

How do you get the creative juices flowing in Canada's largest city? With Luminato (June 1 - 10), Toronto's pre-eminent cultural festival designed to get 3 million souls in touch with their inner artist. Events are diverse: take in the world premiere of a reading of Leonard Cohen's latest book of poetry, recited to the sounds of an original score by Philip Glass, check out the interactive light sculpture that flashes and swivels to the beat of your heart, and more. www.torontotourism.com

Le Grand Mobile, Copyright Veilhan/ADAGP Paris, 2005

safari, Canadian style.

The Clayoquot Wilderness Resorts & Spa, located in the Clayoquot Sound UNESCO Biosphere reserve, is an amazing blend of nature and luxury. A visit to British Columbia allows you to escape into the wilderness, without forsaking a pampered lifestyle. www.wildretreat.com

Canadian Golf Tourism Alliance

1 tiny island
+ 2 big stars = some seriously good golf.

Prince Edward Island may only be 40 miles across at its widest point, but that doesn't seem to keep the heavy hitters away. On July 29 & 30, PEI's Making the Connection Legends of Golf will host Vijay Singh and Mike Weir in a head-to-head showdown on one of the island's most challenging courses.

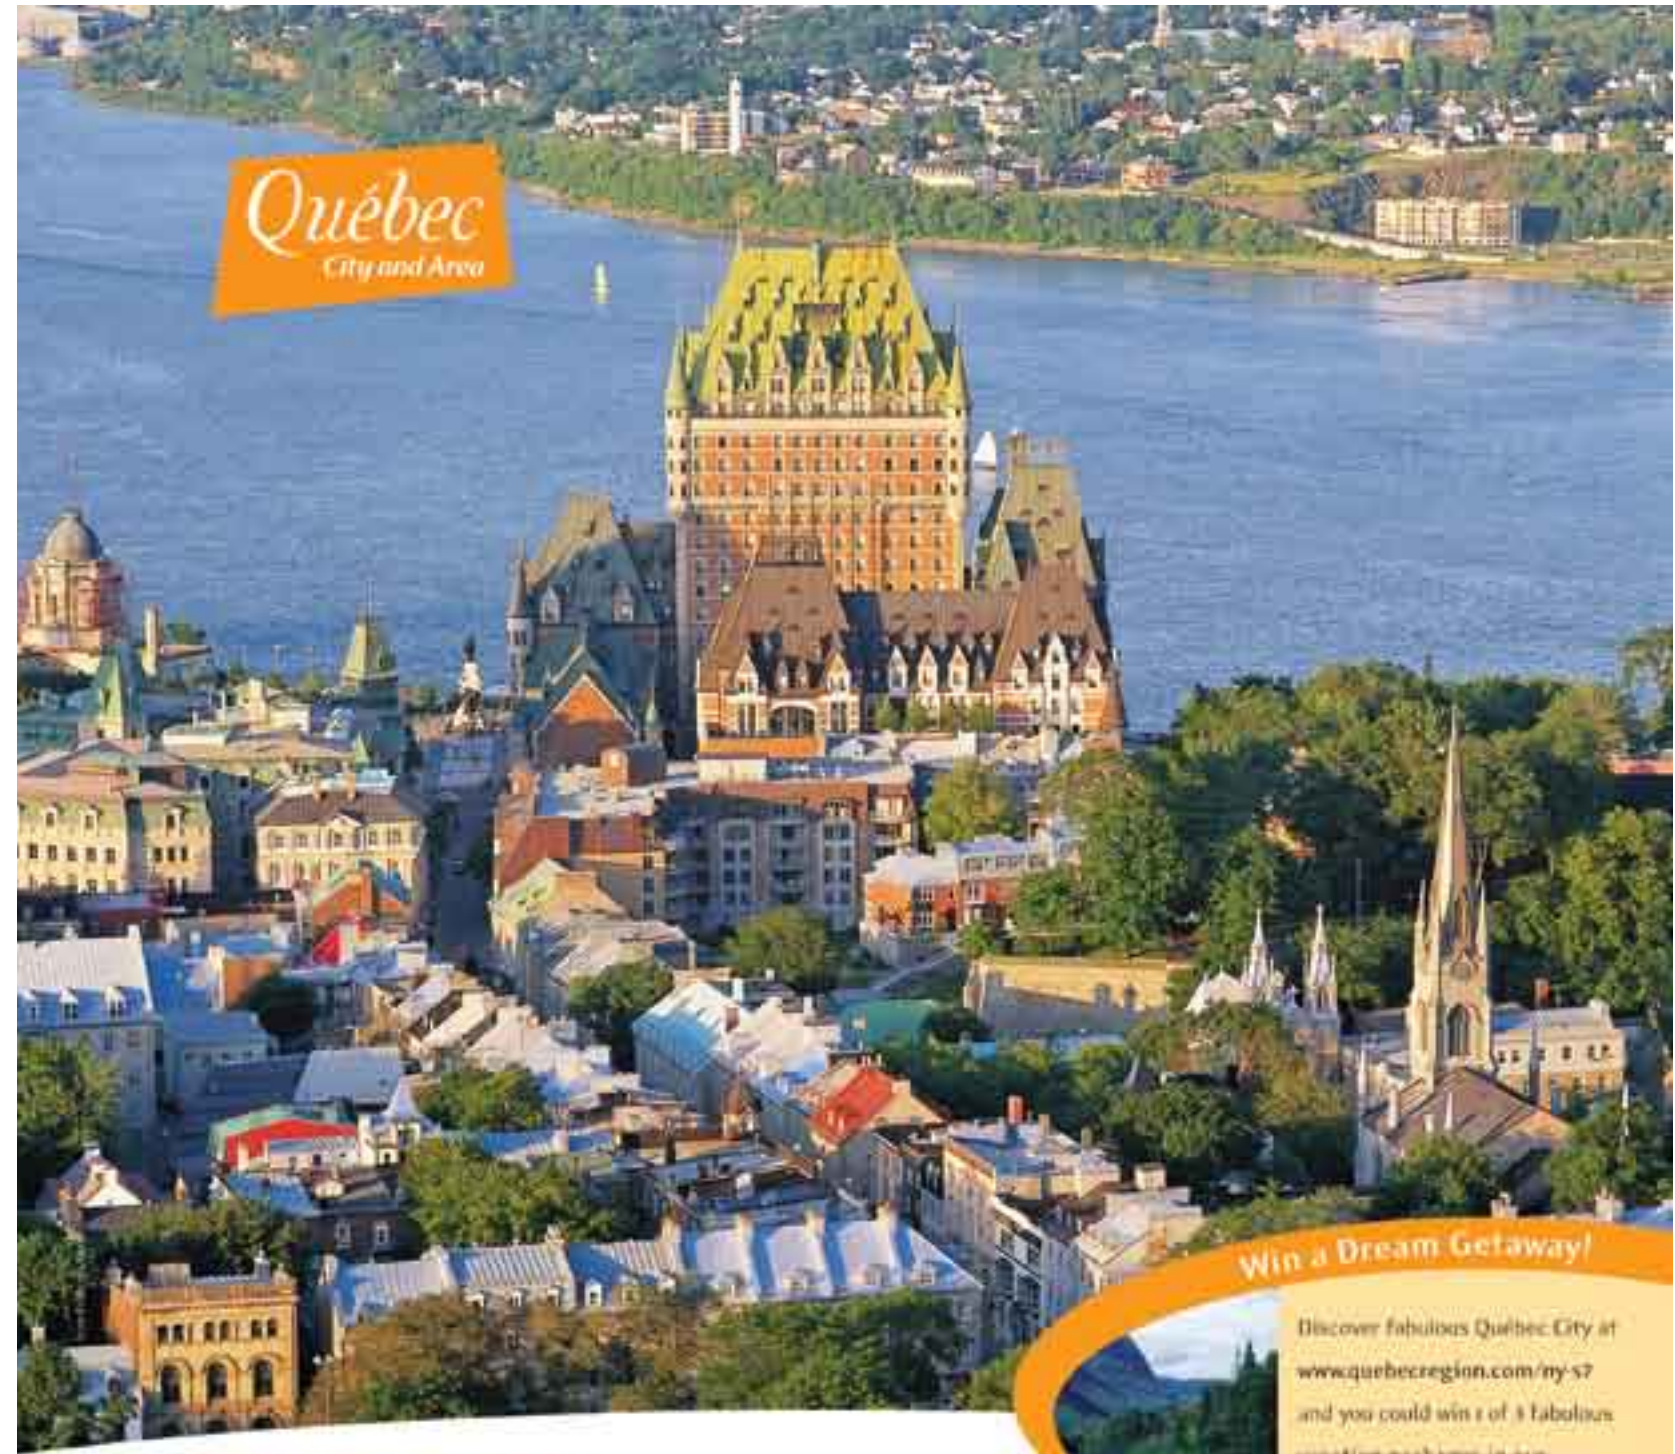

www.gentleisland.com

get a little old-world ambiance, new-world style.

Centuries-old buildings. Narrow cobblestone streets. Chic little boutiques and cafés. This old-world flare comes to you courtesy of Ottawa, Ontario as well as Montréal and Québec City in the province of Québec. In each of these cities, all it takes is a short stroll from the historic neighborhoods to find yourself surrounded by the vibrancy of a modern cityscape. Old-world and new-world: time spent in any of these cities, and you've got the best of both.

www.bonjourquebec.com
www.ottawatourism.com

Québec
City and Area

Win a Dream Getaway!

Discover fabulous Québec City at www.quebecregion.com/ny-s7 and you could win 1 of 3 fabulous vacation packages in our Getaway Contest.

Need more ideas? Request our 2007 summer brochure! Call 1-877-BONJOUR, ext. 744

Your EuroStyle Destination

Warm and friendly Québec City is a taste of Europe close to home. Historic buildings and delightful inns line the cobblestone streets. Galleries, boutiques, and charming little restaurants abound in the old quarter, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. For nature buffs a multitude of year-round outdoor activities awaits in the mountains and forests just minutes from town. And in 2008 the city's 400th anniversary celebrations get into full swing!

www.quebecregion.com/ny-s7
1-877-BONJOUR, ext. 744

Over 400 miles from the ocean, but there I was, covered head to toe in seaweed.

Was I amazed to find a therapeutic algae wrap 3000 feet above sea level? Maybe at first. Then again, I could've chosen the wild rose body wrap. Even the air tasted different in the mountains. The lakes were this impossible shade of blue. The hotels were like castles. And one of the guest books had a great entry from 1925 by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Keep exploring at GoCanadianRockies.com where surfers go to get away from it all—and from each other.

What's the big deal about surfing in Canada's Atlantic Ocean? For starters, the waves are world class. But here's the clincher: the breaks are yours to own—sometimes you won't see another surfer for miles. And with who-knows-how-many empty points and coves just waiting to be tested, you may find you don't mind a little alone time. www.novascotia.com

Fairmont Banff Lake Louise

the arias and the altitude:
they'll both take your breath away.

The town of Banff in Alberta's Rocky Mountains is one of the best places in the world to get your culture fix. That's because the Banff Summer Arts Festival (May through September) offers the latest in dance, music, opera, the visual arts and more. www.banfflakelouise.com maybe the diamonds won't be the highlight of this adventure.

You'd think your fondest memories of a diamond-hunting trip in Canada's Northwest Territories would be of the rocks themselves. Well, you might have to think again. The diamond-hunt includes a private ski plane, a luxury wilderness lodge, champagne dinners and the secluded prospector's camp. The stones might be in for more than a little competition.

www.canada.travel/luxury

niagara: home to a world wonder, and a whole bunch of smaller ones, too.

Niagara-on-the-Lake is only 20 minutes from the thundering falls, but it might as well be worlds away. Here you can stroll heritage streets, indulge in memorable meals, tour dozens of prize-winning wineries and get in some retail therapy. Of course, the Shaw Festival should be at the top of any serious culture buff's can't-be-missed list. The Shaw, an annual celebration of plays by George Bernard Shaw and his contemporaries—including Wilde, Coward, Chekhov, Ibsen and Brecht—has long been recognized as one of North America's finest cultural attractions.

www.niagaraonthelake.com

Shaw Festival/David Cooper

Niagara Falls Ontario Canada...
ONE WONDER AFTER ANOTHER

NIAGARA FALLS
 NIAGARA FALLS TOURISM

For more information on Niagara Falls, Canada and the surrounding area please contact us at

Niagara Falls Tourism
 5400 Robinson Street
 Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada L2G 2A6
 T 905-356-6061 Toll Free 1-800-563-2557
 Email info@niagarafallstourism.com

PLEASE VISIT OUR WEBSITE AT WWW.NIAGARAFALLSTOURISM.COM/SPRING time may stand still, but you won't.

Over thousands of years, British Columbia's Queen Charlotte Islands have developed flora and fauna not found anywhere else. But with so much to see and do, you'll be on a slightly more condensed timeline. Cruise this archipelago of 150 islands to see whales, eagles and sea lions, then head ashore to walk old-growth rainforests, take a dip in the hot springs and commune with ancient Haida totem poles. www.hellobc.com walk in Viking footsteps—no headgear required.

Looking for history? Head for the Rock. On Newfoundland's northern tip, you'll find the L'Anse aux Meadows National Historic Site, the oldest European settlement in North America. From this UNESCO World Heritage site you can retrace the steps of the Norsemen who explored the island a thousand years ago. www.newfoundlandandlabrador.com

Newfoundland and Labrador Tourism stand on the ocean floor—literally.

Twice a day, every day, New Brunswick's Bay of Fundy fills with 100 billion tons of water and then empties again just a few hours later. That way, you get the best of both worlds: beachcombing for amethysts at low tide then riding the tidal bore when the waters rush back in.

www.tourismnewbrunswick.ca

New Brunswick Tourism and Parks

what's the sum total of water, malt, hops and yeast?

Visit Montréal's Mondial de la Bière Beer Fest (May 30 - June 3) and you just might think the answer is ambrosia. At Canada's largest beer festival, you can sample the very latest craft brews as well as imports you won't find anywhere else. www.bonjourquebec.com

Discover
Québec's must-see attractions!

A good reason to visit Québec this summer
www.quebecmusts.com

SATO Société des Attraction Touristiques de Québec

Canada Economic Development for Qualified Regions / Développement économique Canada pour les régions éligibles

Canada

It's a bit of London, with a dash of Paris.

And just a 1 1/2 hour flight from Boston.

Escape to Ottawa, Canada's impressive, yet intimate capital city, for a little European romance a lot closer to home. Just a 1 1/2 hour flight north of Boston, Ottawa is an urban, yet unspoiled setting where you'll hear English and French spoken in the streets, discover national sights around every corner and enjoy culture in comfort. Stroll hand-in-hand along the Rideau Canal, explore our funky ByWard Market district, then head out for fine dining and a night on the town. Visit us online or call for details on our very affordable getaway packages.

Ottawa
ONTARIO CANADA

1-888-OTTAWA-8

WWW.OTTAWATOURISM.CA

Ottawa Tourism

how about Luncheon at La Fournaise, then a quick bite at the café?

When Renoir's most beautiful landscape paintings check in for an extended stay at the National Gallery of Canada in Ottawa (June 8 - September 9), you'll have a chance to soak in the fields of Chatou, the streets of Algiers and the hillsides of Guernsey—all without the jetlag.

www.ottawatourism.ca

feel like you're floating on air—or water anyway.

No treading water necessary in Saskatchewan's Little Manitou Lake. Instead, you can just kick back and relax. Literally. Little Manitou has a higher mineral density than the Dead Sea, so you'll float without the slightest effort. And if that's not intriguing enough, there are all those healing properties the water is reputed to have. www.sasktourism.com what's that sound?

it's Oscar buzz.

If you want the heads-up on which films are going to be in the hunt for the famous gold statue next year, you've got to head to the Toronto International Film Festival (September 6-15). This 10-day movie marathon is considered the unofficial launch pad for award-worthy films. But it's not all about the art. Hundreds of festival parties – official and otherwise – give you a chance to see a constellation's worth of stars in their natural habitat.
www.torontotourism.com

Ontario Tourism

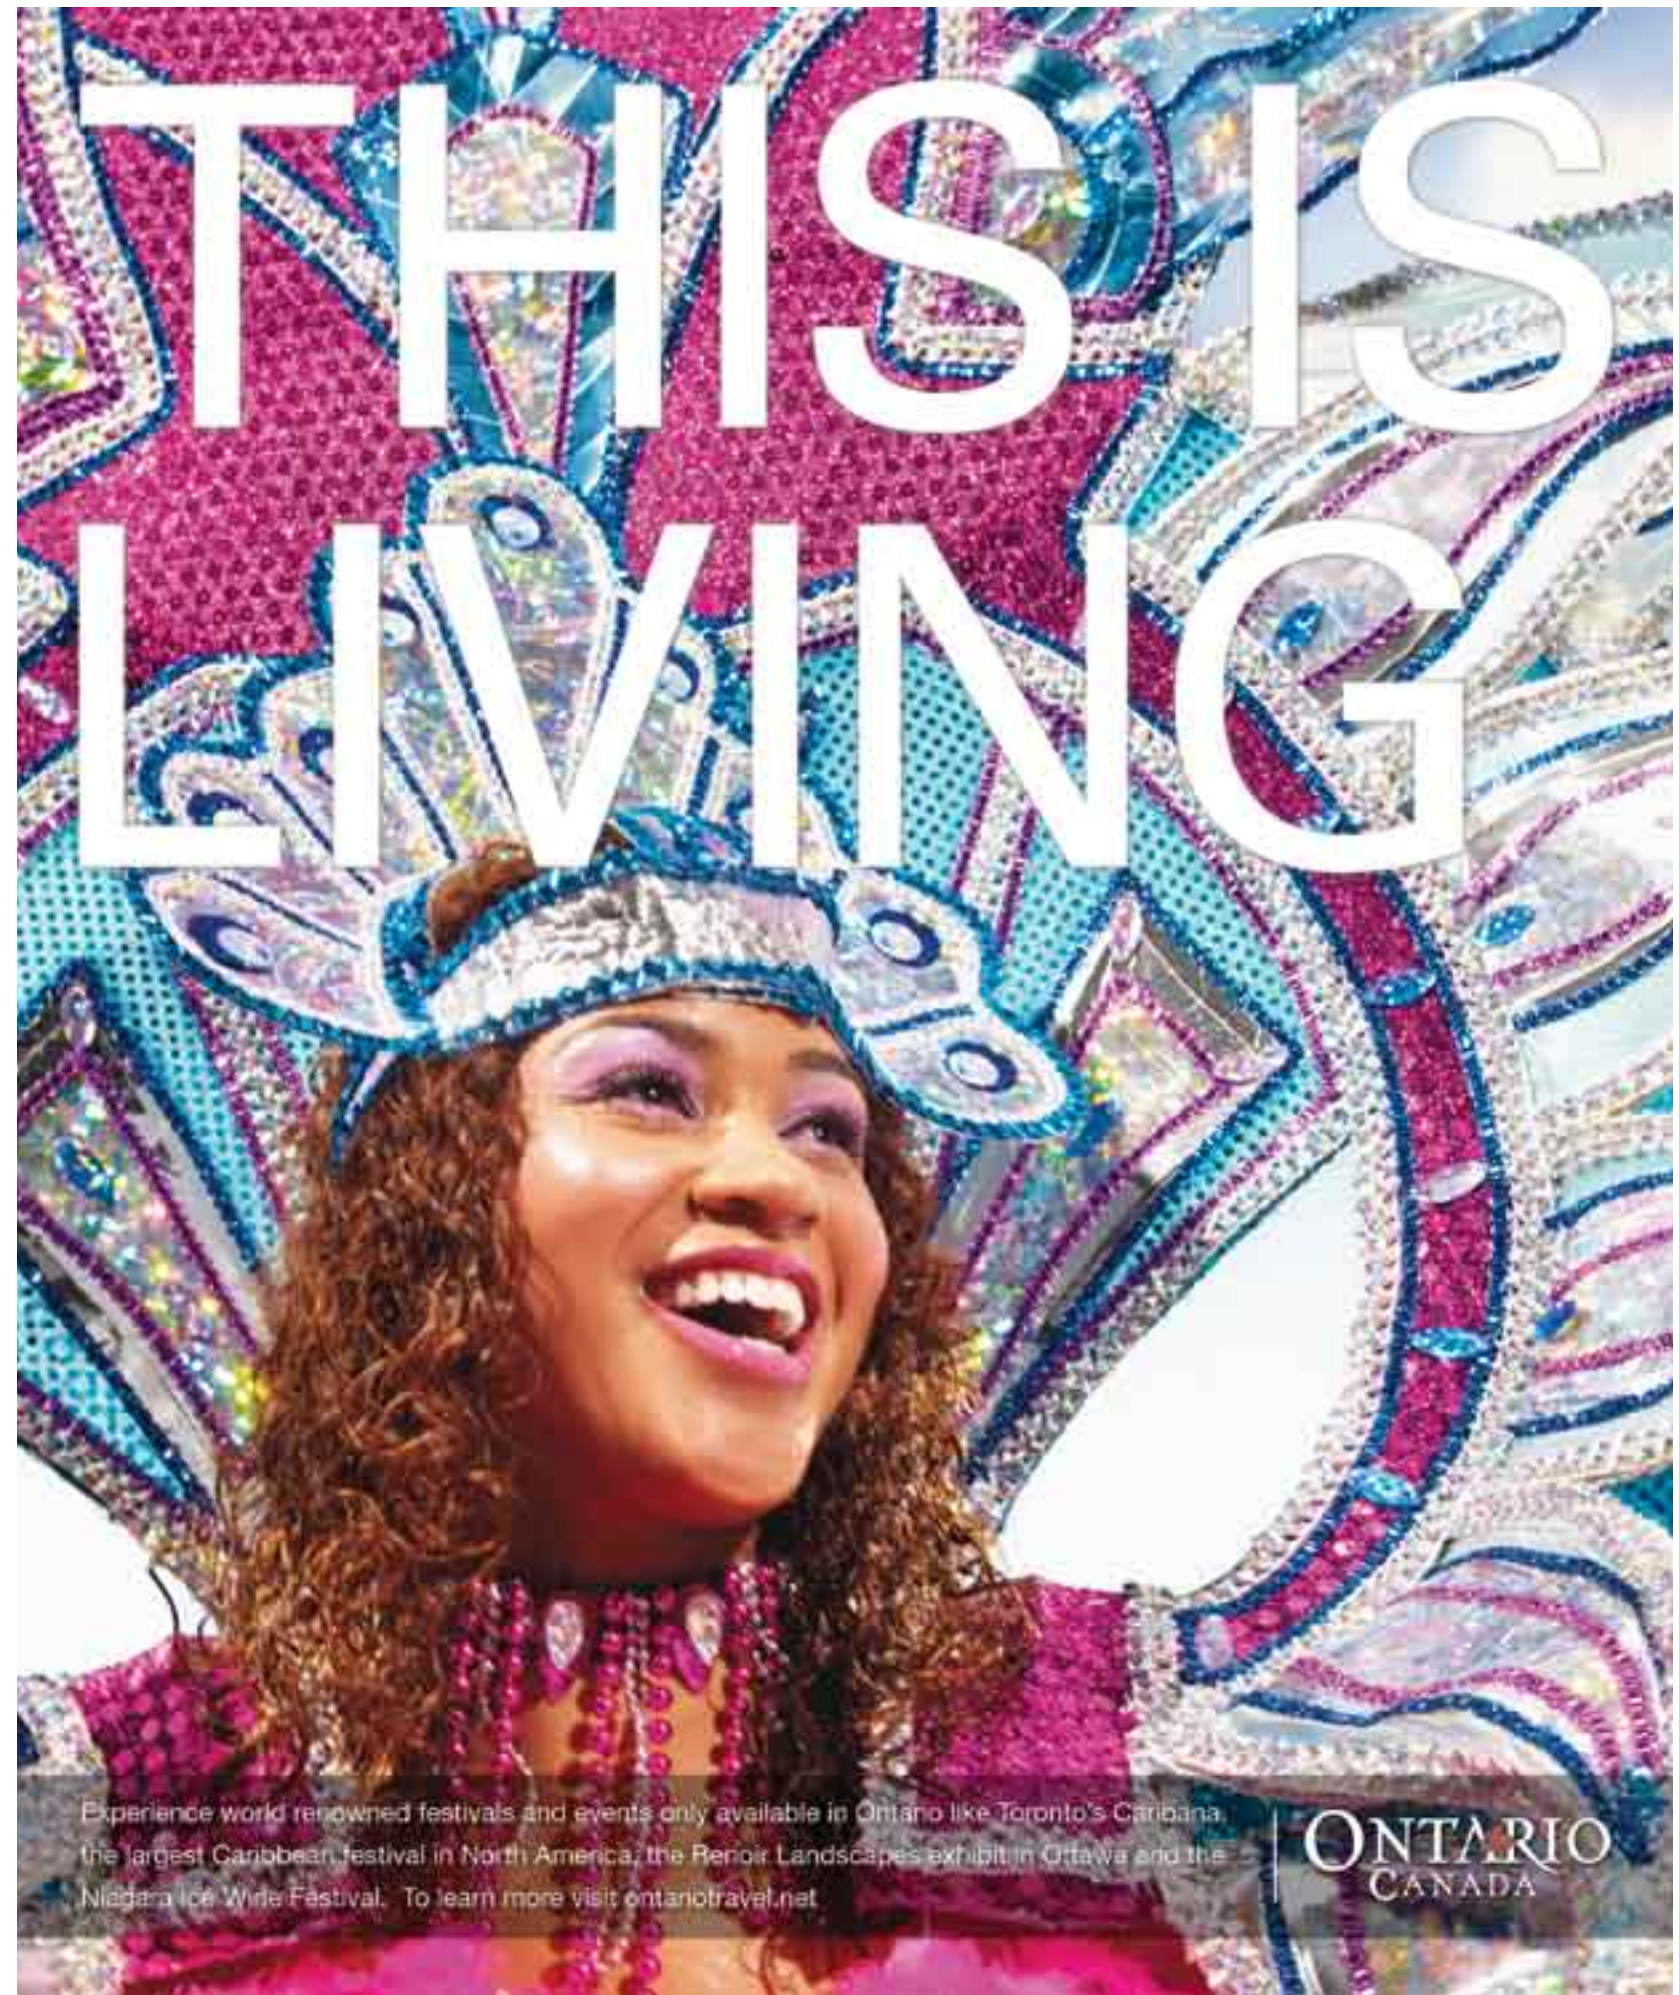

get here in no time. feel like you could stay forever.

There are many ways to arrive in Canada – by rail, by ferry, by cruise ship or by road. Flying is the most direct route, and below are approximate flight times from Boston and New York to Major Canadian cities. For more information on flights to Canada from other U.S. cities, contact your travel agent today.

Flying time from	Boston	New York
Vancouver	7-8 hours	7-8 hours
Calgary	5-6 hours	5-6 hours
Toronto	1-2 hours	1-2 hours
Ottawa	1-2 hours	1-2 hours
Montréal	1 hour	1 hour
Halifax	1 hour	1 hour
Charlottetown	3.5 hours	3.5 hours
Saint John, New Brunswick	3 hours	3 hours
St. John's, Newfoundland	4 hours	4 hours do I need a passport?

Visit www.canada.travel/discover to get the most current information on document requirements for entry into Canada and back into the U.S.

Experience world renowned festivals and events only available in Ontario like Toronto's Caribana, the largest Caribbean festival in North America; the Renoir Landscapes exhibit in Ottawa and the Niihau Ice Wine Festival. To learn more visit ontariotravel.net

ONTARIO
CANADA

Fairmont
HOTELS & RESORTS

CELEBRATING A CENTURY OF DISTINCTION

$50

RECEIVE UP TO A $50 FOOD & BEVERAGE CREDIT PER NIGHT IF YOU PAY WITH ANY AMERICAN EXPRESS CARD AND BOOK BEFORE JUNE 30, 2007

The best of summer can be found in Quebec.

There's only one way to experience the best of summer—with Fairmont Hotels & Resorts' unbelievable Only One Way Summer rates. Our spectacular destinations in the province of Quebec await to tempt each of your senses. Book an Only One Way Summer rate for a minimum of two nights before June 30, 2007 and if you pay with any American Express® Card, you will receive up to a $50 food and beverage credit per night.

Fairmont Le Manoir Richelieu, Charlevoix	from $159 USD per night
Fairmont Le Château Montebello	from $175 USD per night
Fairmont The Queen Elizabeth, Montréal	from $175 USD per night
Fairmont Tremblant	from $179 USD per night
Fairmont Le Château Frontenac, Québec City	from $199 USD per night

For reservations or information, please call 1 877 256 7700, contact your travel professional, or visit www.fairmont.com/summer.

* Book before June 30, 2007 and stay between May 1 and September 3, 2007 for a minimum of two consecutive nights at the Only One Way rate and pay with any American Express Card at any of the participating hotels to receive up to a $50 food and beverage credit, per room, per night, subject to availability at time of reservation. Breakfast and taxes are not included. Stay must be charged to any American Express Card. See the $50 credit per night will be applied at time of check-out. Food and beverage credit is issued per night and in the currency of the host hotel. Offer not valid with any other offer, promotional discount. For full terms & conditions and a listing of participating hotels, please visit www.fairmont.com/summer © 2007 American Express Travel Related Services Company, Inc.