Looking for a Government of Canada publication? Chances are, we have it!

Canadian Government Publishing is the official publisher of the Government of Canada and the administrator of Crown copyright and licensing. We are part of the Publishing and Depository Services Program, which:

- has the largest listing of Government of Canada titles spanning more than two decades,
- produces publications in various formats, including print, CD-ROM, diskette, Braille and large print, on behalf of Government of Canada departments,
- manages a database of over 120,000 free and priced government publications,
- negotiates and manages co-publishing arrangements with private sector publishers,
- operates a central warehouse and distribution facility,
- operates a Customer Service Desk that accepts orders via the telephone, Internet, e-mail, fax and mail,
- manages a network of hundreds of bookstores and distributors in Canada and abroad, and
- acquires, catalogues and distributes Canadian government publications to a network of over 800 libraries in Canada and abroad.

Introducing the Government of Canada publications web site...

Since the last edition of Hot Picks, we have made it much easier for you to access Government of Canada publications through our web site at publications.gc.ca. This "single window" web site helps you locate and/or order both free and priced publications authored by Government of Canada departments. The site's features include:

- On-line catalogue: Unprecedented consolidation of over 120,000 free and priced publications.
- Easy access: To a variety of print and electronic publications.
- Browse and search: Powerful searching capabilities by title, subject, author, department, ISBN, ISSN and catalogue number.
- Specialized lists: Of recent releases, popular titles, subscriptions and standing orders.
- Shopping cart functionality: For ordering available titles and paying by credit card.
- Other options for ordering/locating: Find the bookstore or library nearest you that carries Government of Canada publications.
- Useful information: On titles that cannot be ordered through us.
- Special-needs services: A home page that enables users with special needs – visually impaired and others – to use the site.
- Crown copyright information: Including an application form for copyright clearance of Government of Canada works.
- Services for specific groups: Dedicated sections for bookstores, libraries and author departments.
- Canadian content: Direct access to the Canada Site, representing a valuable source of Canadian content.
- Contact information: For knowledgeable bilingual information officers who can provide personal support via the telephone.

About this catalogue

This catalogue includes some of our new releases and a selection of popular backlist titles. Each publication is produced or sponsored by a department, agency, commission, or a scientific or social research organization.

Shipping and handling

Please see the order form for our current shipping and handling fees. Contact us if you need to verify fees prior to sending your order or if other shipment options are required. Shipping and handling fees are subject to change without notice.

Returns policy

All sales are final, but if the product is damaged, defective or incorrect, please advise us within 7 days of receipt and we'll replace it.

Prices

Prices are subject to change without notice. Contact us for information on bulk discounts.

Subscription products

A set number of issues are sent out to customers over a set period of time (usually a year). Subscription fees are prepaid and shipping and handling are included in the price.

Standing Order products

This product generally consists of a base volume and amendment service. When purchasing the product, customers receive the base volume. Customers may also choose to purchase any modifications that were previously issued for that product. To receive future modifications, customers must ask to be placed on the mailing list for the amendment service (i.e. revisions, updates, new directives). Unless otherwise specified under special arrangement, customers on the mailing list will be notified of new modifications being distributed for their product. Price and frequency can vary depending on the product and the frequency of amendments. We recommend that customers sign up for the amendment service in order to keep the base volume's information up to date. It is the customers' responsibility to watch for notices and place their order thereby ensuring their document is maintained and up to date.
