

National Victims of Crime Awareness Week – DoJ Symposium
 “It’s Time to Listen”
 Participant Survey

Your feedback is important. This survey takes less than 5 minutes and will help the Department of Justice plan future events. Your responses are anonymous and confidential.
 Thank you in advance for your participation.
 Please return this survey by fax at: 613-952-1110

Self identification:

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Victims Service Provider/NGO | <input type="checkbox"/> Media |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Criminal Justice Professional | <input type="checkbox"/> PLEI Representative |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Municipal/provincial/federal government representative | <input type="checkbox"/> Interested Citizen |

How did you find out about this event?

- | | | |
|------------------------------------|---|---------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Newspaper | <input type="checkbox"/> Word of Mouth | <input type="checkbox"/> Television |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Radio | <input type="checkbox"/> Email/Newsletter | <input type="checkbox"/> Other: _____ |

What was your level of knowledge when you came to the event today?

Basic			Intermediate				Expert
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Please indicate the extent to which you agree with the following statements about the overall event:	Strongly disagree			Strongly Agree		N/A
	1	2	3	4	5
By attending this event, I have learned (more) about victims of crime issues.
By attending this event, I have learned (more) about legislation regarding victims of crime.
By attending this event, I have learned (more) about services that are available for victims of crime.
By attending this event, I better understand the role victims play in the criminal justice system.
This event was a good opportunity to learn about best practices/responses/solutions to victims of crime issues.
The theme of the conference (“It’s Time to Listen”) was appropriate.
The event gave me an opportunity to connect and network with other people concerned about victims of crime issues.
I plan on following up with at least one of the people that I met at this event.
I am better equipped to serve the needs of victims.

National Victims of Crime Awareness Week – DoJ Symposium
 “It’s Time to Listen”
 Participant Survey

Please rate the following aspects of the event (please rate all that apply):

Event Component	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	N/A
	Unsatisfactory			Satisfactory				Excellent
Venue
Information Materials
Speakers (overall)
Discussions (overall)
Networking
Opening Ceremony
Victims Panel

Please indicate the extent to which you agree with the following statements about the Final Plenary (Internet Crime – Meeting the Needs of Child Victims and their Families) :	Strongly disagree			Strongly Agree		N/A
	1	2	3	4	5
By attending this plenary, I have learned (more) about victims of crime issues.
By attending this plenary, I have learned (more) about legislation regarding victims of crime.
By attending this plenary, I have learned (more) about services that are available for victims of crime.
By attending this plenary, I better understand the role victims play in the criminal justice system.
This plenary was a good opportunity to learn about best practices/responses/solutions to victims of crime issues.
I am better equipped to serve the needs of victims.

We welcome any other comments you have about the event and workshops, including suggestions for future events.
