

QUICK REFERENCE

BIOMETRICS FIELD TRIAL FOR HONG KONG – SEATTLE

ARRIVAL IN CANADA

VANCOUVER INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Follow “Customs and Immigration” signs and make your way to the Customs/Immigration area. There, you will speak with a Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) officer who will verify your identification (valid passport) and visa. The officer will scan your fingerprints by asking you to position one or more fingers on a fingerprint reader.

PACIFIC HIGHWAY AND DOUGLAS LAND BORDER

Present yourself to a CBSA officer who will verify your identification (valid passport) and visa. The officer will scan your fingerprints by asking you to position one or more fingers on a fingerprint reader.

IMPORTANT

If you have received your visa by mail, a CBSA officer will scan your fingerprints (all 10 fingers) once you arrive in Canada. It is important to note that the procedure may take some time and may slightly delay your onward travel.
