

DESCRIPTION

The Hunter's Point Settlement occupies an undivided portion of the township of Atwater, alongside lake Hunter's Point.

It covers approximately 4 hectares.

LOCATION

The settlement is located 37 kilometres northeast of the city of Timiscaming, near lake Hunter's Point.

LAND TITLE HISTORY

1985 and before

Occupation by the Indians.

The Hunter's Point Settlement does not have Indian reserve status. The Algonquins view the territory as an ancestral meeting place. They occupy approximately a 4 hectare area (10 acres) for their own usage.

CHRONOLOGY OF BOUNDARY SURVEYS

Settlement boundaries have never been defined. The territory is merely occupied by the Indians.