

PERSPECTIVES

ON LABOUR AND INCOME

Subject index: 1989 - 2007

This index lists articles published in Perspectives on Labour and Income (Catalogue no. 75-001-XPE) since its inception (Summer 1989) up to and including the latest issue. For further information, call Henry Pold (613) 951-4608. The online publication date is shown in parentheses.

ABSENCE FROM WORK

Working at home: An update	Autumn 2007 (June 2007)	Measuring housing affordability	Winter 2006 (November 2006)
Trends and seasonality in absenteeism	Autumn 2007 (June 2007)	Shifts in spending patterns of older Canadians	Spring 2006 (December 2005)
Increased work stoppages	Autumn 2006 (August 2006)	Out-of-pocket spending on prescription drugs	Winter 2005 (September 2005)
Is the workplace becoming safer?	Autumn 2006 (July 2006)	Spenders and savers	Summer 2005 (March 2005)
On sick leave	Summer 2006 (April 2006)	Saving for postsecondary education	Autumn 2004 (July 2004)
The labour market in the week of September 11	Winter 2001 (October 2001)	Shifts in consumer spending	Autumn 2004 (June 2004)
Time lost due to industrial disputes	Autumn 2001 (August 2001)	Fighting the odds	Spring 2004 (December 2003)
Missing work in 1998—industry differences	Autumn 1999	Who pays for domestic help?	Autumn 2003 (August 2003)
Work absences: New data, new insights	Spring 1998	Falling behind	Autumn 2002 (July 2002)
Work absence rates, 1995	Autumn 1996	Update on gambling	Spring 2000
Work absences and compensation	Autumn 1996	The gambling industry: Raising the stakes	Winter 1998
Missing work	Spring 1995	The RRSP Home Buyers' Plan	Summer 1998
Absences from work revisited	Spring 1992	Spending patterns of couples without children	Summer 1994
Taking their leave	Autumn 1989	Tracking down discretionary income	Spring 1991
On maternity leave	Summer 1989	Consumer spending in urban and rural Canada	Autumn 1990

BENEFITS

Benefits of the job	Summer 2003 (May 2003)	Where the money goes: Spending patterns in Canada and the U.S.	Autumn 1990
Health-related insurance for the self-employed	Summer 2003 (May 2003)
Benefiting from extended parental leave	Summer 2003 (March 2003)
New maternity and parental benefits	Summer 2003 (March 2003)
Taking stock of equity compensation	Summer 2003 (March 2003)
On non-wage labour income	Winter 1991
The price of labour	Autumn 1990

CONSUMER SPENDING

Spending patterns in Canada and the U.S.	(September 2007)	Earnings of temporary versus permanent employees	Spring 2005 (January 2005)
Payday loans	Summer 2007 (April 2007)

EARNINGS

Economic integration of immigrants' children	(October 2007)
Earnings instability	Winter 2006 (October 2006)
Education and earnings	Autumn 2006 (June 2006)
Does it pay to go back to school?	Summer 2006 (March 2006)
Who gains from computer use?	Autumn 2005 (July 2005)
Escaping low earnings	Summer 2005 (April 2005)

Statistics Canada
Statistique Canada

Canada

Low-paid workers: How many live in low-income families?	Winter 2004 (October 2004)	Barriers to job-related training	Summer 2002 (March 2002)
Minimum wage workers	Summer 2004 (March 2004)	Liberal arts degrees and the labour market	Autumn 2001 (July 2001)
Cumulative earnings among young workers	Winter 2002 (November 2002)	Employment and earnings of postsecondary graduates	Autumn 2001
Earnings over time	Winter 2002 (November 2002)	Overqualified? Recent graduates, employer needs	Spring 2001
Union wage premium	Winter 2002 (September 2002)	The school-to-work transition	Spring 2000
The male-female wage gap	Spring 2002 (December 2001)	Paying off student loans	Spring 1999
Employment and earnings of postsecondary graduates	Autumn 2001	Facing the future: Adults who go back to school after high school...	Autumn 1997
Overqualified? Recent graduates, employer needs	Spring 2001	Employment prospects for high school graduates	Summer 1997
Provincial earnings differences	Summer 2000	Employment prospects for high school graduates	Autumn 1995
Earnings of lawyers	Spring 2000	Labour market outcomes for university co-op graduates	Autumn 1995
Earnings of physicians	Winter 1999	Work experience	Summer 1995
Women's earnings/men's earnings	Winter 1999	Youths—waiting it out	Spring 1994
Earnings mobility of Canadians, 1982-1992	Summer 1999	Labour market outcomes for high school leavers	Winter 1993
Northern earnings and income	Spring 1997	School, work and dropping out	Summer 1993
Do earnings rise until retirement?	Summer 1996	Women in academia—a growing minority	Spring 1993
Are service jobs low-paying?	Spring 1996	A degree of change	Winter 1992
Women as main wage-earners	Winter 1995	Juggling school and work	Spring 1992
Employment prospects for high school graduates	Autumn 1995	Lifelong learning: Who goes back to school?	Winter 1991
Labour market outcomes for university co-op graduates	Autumn 1995	Overview of literacy skills in Canada	Winter 1990
Recent trends in earnings	Autumn 1995	Male-female earnings gap among recent university graduates	Summer 1990
Adults living solo	Winter 1994	The graduates of '82: where are they?	Spring 1990
A recession for whom?	Winter 1993
A note on wage trends among unionized workers	Autumn 1993	FAMILIES
Seven decades of wage changes	Summer 1993	Balancing career and care	Winter 2006 (November 2006)
The changing profile of dual-earner families	Summer 1992	Education and income of lone parents	Spring 2006 (December 2005)
On non-wage labour income	Winter 1991	Low-paid workers: How many live in low-income families?	Winter 2004 (October 2004)
Are jobs in large firms better jobs?	Autumn 1991	The sandwich generation	Winter 2004 (September 2004)
Visible minorities in the Canadian labour force	Summer 1991	Family wealth across the generations	Winter 2003 (October 2003)
Women's earnings and family incomes	Summer 1991	Family spending power	Winter 2002 (October 2002)
Recent trends in wages	Winter 1990	Families on the financial edge	Autumn 2002 (July 2002)
The price of labour	Autumn 1990	Low income intensity: urban and rural families	Autumn 2001 (June 2001)
Male-female earnings gap among recent university graduates	Summer 1990	Experiencing low income for several years	Summer 2001 (March 2001)
The graduates of '82: where are they?	Spring 1990	Part-time by choice	Spring 2001 (November 2000)
Wives as primary breadwinners	Spring 1990	Working together—self-employed couples	Winter 1999
Working for minimum wage	Winter 1989	Employment after childbirth	Autumn 1999
Unionization and women in the service sector	Autumn 1989	Family income: 25 years of stability and change	Spring 1999
Bilingualism and earnings	Summer 1989	Family income inequality, 1970-1995	Winter 1998
		Couples working shift	Autumn 1998
EDUCATION		Retirement patterns of working couples	Autumn 1998
Education and earnings	Autumn 2006 (June 2006)	Income after separation—people without children	Summer 1998
Does it pay to go back to school?	Summer 2006 (March 2006)	Stay-at-home dads	Spring 1998
Who gets student loans?	Summer 2006 (March 2006)	Intergenerational equity in Canada	Autumn 1997
Education and income of lone parents	Spring 2006 (December 2005)
The rising profile of women academics	Spring 2005 (February 2005)
Immigrants: Settling for less?	Autumn 2004 (June 2004)

Family income after separation	Summer 1997	Fighting the odds	Spring 2004
Transfer payments to families with children	Autumn 1996		(December 2003)
Dual-pensioner families	Autumn 1996	Sources of workplace stress	Autumn 2003
The many faces of unemployment	Spring 1996		(June 2003)
Women as main wage-earners	Winter 1995	Long working hours and health	Spring 2000
Families and moonlighting	Summer 1995	You wear it well: Health of older workers	Autumn 1996
Hours of working couples	Summer 1995	A job to die for	Summer 1996
Work and low income	Summer 1995	Tired workers	Summer 1995
Adults living solo	Winter 1994	Perceptions of workplace hazards	Spring 1994
High income families	Winter 1994	Defining and measuring employment equity	Winter 1993
Left behind: Lone mothers in the labour market	Summer 1994	Back injuries at work, 1982-1990	Autumn 1992
Spending patterns of couples without children	Summer 1994	Under the influence	Autumn 1990
Balancing work and family responsibilities	Spring 1994	Disabled workers	Winter 1989
Family facts (charts)	Spring 1994
Employed parents and the division of housework	Autumn 1993
		HIGH TECHNOLOGY
Female lone parents in the labour market	Spring 1993	Life after high tech	Autumn 2007
Alimony and child support	Summer 1992		(July 2007)
The changing profile of dual-earner families	Summer 1992	Who gains from computer use?	Autumn 2005
Marriage, money and retirement	Winter 1991		(July 2005)
Family income inequality in the 1980s	Autumn 1991	High-tech—two years after the boom	Winter 2003
Who's looking after the kids? Child care arrangements of working mothers	Summer 1991		(November 2003)
Women's earnings and family incomes	Summer 1991	Information technology workers	Autumn 2003
Tracking down discretionary income	Spring 1991		(July 2003)
Government transfer payments and family income	Autumn 1990	Working smarter	Winter 2002
Where the money goes: Spending patterns in Canada and the U.S.	Autumn 1990	Better jobs in the new economy?	Autumn 2002
Work and relative poverty	Summer 1990		(July 2002)
Wives as primary breadwinners	Spring 1990	High-tech boom and bust	Summer 2002
			(April 2002)
		Working with computers	Summer 2001
			(May 2001)
		The booming market for programmers	Summer 1998
		Computers in the workplace	Summer 1997
		The future of data dissemination	Summer 1996
		Computers in the workplace	Summer 1991
		Measuring Canada's international competitiveness	Summer 1990
		High technology at work	Spring 1990
		IMMIGRANTS
		Immigrants: Settling for less?	Autumn 2004
			(June 2004)
		Low income among immigrants and visible minorities	Summer 2004
			(April 2004)
		Knowledge workers on the move	Summer 2000
		Canada's newest workers	Spring 1995
		Defining and measuring employment equity	Winter 1993
		The census: One hundred years ago	Summer 1991
		Visible minorities in the Canadian labour force	Summer 1991
		Gail Cook Johnson speaks out on human resource issues	Spring 1991
		Immigrants in product fabricating	Winter 1989
		INCOME
		High-income Canadians	(September 2007)
		2002 income: an overview	Winter 2004
			(November 2004)
		Low-paid workers: How many live in low-income families?	Winter 2004
			(October 2004)
		Low income in census metropolitan areas	Summer 2004
			(May 2004)
HEALTH
Aging, health and work	Spring 2006
	(February 2006)
Disability in the workplace	Spring 2006
	(February 2006)
Job strain and retirement	Autumn 2005
	(July 2005)

Income replacement among recent widows	Summer 2004 (May 2004)	High-tech boom and bust	Summer 2002 (April 2002)
Low income among immigrants and visible minorities	Summer 2004 (April 2004)	Update on gambling	Spring 2000
Finances in the golden years	Winter 2003 (November 2003)	Missing work in 1998—industry differences	Autumn 1999
2000 income: An overview	Spring 2003 (January 2003)	Job stability	Winter 1998
Income and wealth	Winter 2002 (November 2002)	The gambling industry: Raising the stakes	Winter 1998
Families on the financial edge	Autumn 2002 (July 2002)	Sizing up employment in clothing manufacturing	Spring 1997
Housing: An income issue	Autumn 2002 (June 2002)	Work absence rates, 1995	Autumn 1996
1999 income: an overview	Winter 2001 (November 2001)	A sure bet industry	Autumn 1996
Low income intensity: urban and rural families	Autumn 2001 (June 2001)	Are service jobs low-paying?	Spring 1996
Experiencing low income for several years	Summer 2001 (March 2001)	Recent trends in earnings	Autumn 1995
Repeat users of employment insurance	Summer 2001 (April 2001)	Hiring difficulties in manufacturing	Summer 1995
Incomes of younger retired women: the past 30 years	Winter 2000 (December 2000)	Missing work	Spring 1995
Incomes of seniors	Winter 2000	The horseless carriage	Spring 1995
Income inequality within provinces	Winter 2000 (November 2000)	Three large urban areas in transition	Winter 1994
Family income: 25 years of stability and change	Spring 1999	A recession for whom?	Winter 1993
Income transition upon retirement	Winter 1998	A note on tracking employment in manufacturing	Summer 1993
Family income inequality, 1970-1995	Winter 1998	International employment trends by industry—a note	Summer 1993
Income after separation—people without children	Summer 1998	The renaissance of self-employment	Summer 1993
Family income after separation	Summer 1997	Are single industry towns diversifying? A look at fishing, mining and wood-based communities	Spring 1992
Northern earnings and income	Spring 1997	Immigrants in product fabricating	Winter 1989
Transfer payments to families with children	Autumn 1996	The Canadian auto industry, 1978-1986	Autumn 1989
Dual-pensioner families	Autumn 1996
Men retiring early: How are they doing?	Winter 1995	INTERNATIONAL COMPARISONS
Work and low income	Summer 1995	How Canada compares in the G8	Autumn 2005 (June 2005)
High income families	Winter 1994	The labour market: Up north, down south	Spring 2003 (December 2002)
Who gets UI?	Summer 1994	Recent trends in taxes internationally	Spring 2001 (January 2001)
Income facts (charts)	Autumn 1993	Taxes internationally	Autumn 2000
Investment income of Canadians	Summer 1993	Income taxes in Canada and the United States	Summer 2000
Facing retirement	Spring 1993	Knowledge workers on the move	Summer 2000
Alimony and child support	Summer 1992	Self-employment in Canada and the United States	Autumn 1999
Hard at work	Spring 1992	An international comparison of employee training	Spring 1998
Family income inequality in the 1980s	Autumn 1991	International survey on adult literacy	Summer 1996
Dependence on government transfer payments, 1971-1989	Summer 1991	The marginally literate workforce	Summer 1996
Women's earnings and family incomes	Summer 1991	International facts (charts)	Summer 1994
Work and relative poverty	Summer 1990	International employment trends by industry—a note	Summer 1993
		Gail Cook Johnson speaks out on human resource issues	Spring 1991
		Labour force participation: An international comparison	Winter 1990
		Training the work force: A challenge facing Canada in the '90s	Winter 1990
		Where the money goes: Spending patterns in Canada and the U.S.	Autumn 1990
		Dependency ratios: An international comparison	Summer 1990
		Measuring Canada's international competitiveness	Summer 1990
		The distribution of wealth in Canada and the United States	Spring 1990
INDUSTRIES
Fuelling the economy	Summer 2007 (May 2007)
Payday loans	Summer 2007 (April 2007)
Business support services	Summer 2005 (May 2005)
Better jobs in the new economy?	Autumn 2002 (July 2002)

INTERVIEWS

David Foot discusses career paths	Winter 1994
An interview with Laurence E. Coward	Winter 1993
Dian Cohen on the new economy	Summer 1993
Gail Cook Johnson speaks out on human resource issues	Spring 1991

LABOUR MARKET

Participation of older workers	Autumn 2007 (August 2007)
Labour inputs to non-profit organizations	Autumn 2007 (June 2007)
The Aboriginal labour force in Western Canada	Spring 2007 (January 2007)
The core-age labour force	Winter 2006 (September 2006)
Screening job applicants	Summer 2006 (May 2006)
Recent changes in employment by industry	Spring 2006 (January 2006)
Youth and the labour market	Winter 2005 (November 2005)
The labour market in 2004	Spring 2005 (February 2005)
The labour market in 2003	Spring 2004 (January 2004)
Precarious jobs: A new typology of employment	Winter 2003 (October 2003)
Quality of jobs added in 2002	Spring 2003 (February 2003)
2002—a good year in the labour market	Spring 2003 (January 2003)
The labour market: Up north, down south	Spring 2003 (December 2002)
The labour market: Year-end review 2001	Spring 2002 (January 2002)
The labour market in the week of September 11	Winter 2001 (October 2001)
Liberal arts degrees and the labour market	Autumn 2001 (July 2001)
Demography and the labour market	Spring 2001 (February 2001)
Help-wanted Index	Summer 2000
Seasonality in employment	Spring 1999
Labour force participation in the 1990s	Autumn 1998
Working overtime in today's labour market	Winter 1997
The labour market: Mid-year review	Autumn (1989 to 1997)
The labour market: Year-end review	Spring (1989 to 1997, 2001) (January 2001)
Employment and industrial development in the North	Spring 1997
Another measure of employment	Winter 1996
Greying of the workforce	Spring 1995
Dian Cohen on the new economy	Summer 1993
The labour force: into the '90s	Spring 1990
Job ads: A leading indicator?	Autumn 1989

LABOUR MOBILITY

Permanent layoff rates	Summer 2004 (March 2004)
After the layoff	Winter 2001 (October 2001)
Job stability	Winter 1998
An overview of permanent layoffs	Autumn 1997
Changes in job tenure	Winter 1996
Hiring difficulties in manufacturing	Summer 1995
Job-related moves	Winter 1992
Staying put: Job tenure among paid workers	Winter 1992
Workers on the move: Permanent layoffs	Autumn 1992
Workers on the move: Quits	Autumn 1992
Workers on the move: An overview of labour turnover	Summer 1992
Workers on the move: Hirings	Summer 1992

LITERACY

Literacy and employability	Summer 2007 (March 2007)
Literacy in the workplace	Summer 1999
International survey on adult literacy	Summer 1996
The marginally literate workforce	Summer 1996
Literacy in the workplace	Spring 1992
Gail Cook Johnson speaks out on human resource issues	Spring 1991
Overview of literacy skills in Canada	Winter 1990
Training the work force: A challenge facing Canada in the '90s	Winter 1990

MEN

Converging gender roles	Autumn 2006 (July 2006)
Men 55 and older: Work or retire?	Spring 2003 (December 2002)
Women's earnings/men's earnings	Winter 1999
Working past age 65	Summer 1999
Stay-at-home dads	Spring 1998
Do earnings rise until retirement?	Summer 1996
Men retiring early: How are they doing?	Winter 1995
Employed parents and the division of housework	Autumn 1993
Trading places: Men and women in non-traditional occupations, 1971-86	Summer 1990
Male-female earnings gap among recent university graduates	Summer 1990

OCCUPATIONS

On the road again	Spring 2006 (January 2006)
Employment trends in nursing	Winter 2004 (November 2004)
Health care professionals	Spring 2004 (December 2003)
Farmers leaving the field	Spring 2002 (February 2002)
Earnings of lawyers	Spring 2000
Earnings of physicians	Winter 1999

Work patterns of truck drivers	Winter 1999	RRSPs—new rules, new growth	Winter 1993
Private security and public policing	Spring 1999	C/QPP costs and private pensions	Autumn 1993
Computer programmers	Autumn 1998	Facing retirement	Spring 1993
The booming market for programmers	Summer 1998	Note on RRSP contributions and payouts	Spring 1993
The diversity of managers	Winter 1996	Employer-sponsored pension plans—who is covered?	Winter 1992
Work absence rates, 1995	Autumn 1996	RRSPs—not just for retirement	Winter 1992
Women in non-traditional occupations	Autumn 1995	Marriage, money and retirement	Winter 1991
Employer-supported training—it varies by occupation	Spring 1994	On non-wage labour income	Winter 1991
Unemployment—occupation makes a difference	Winter 1991	Women and RRSPs	Winter 1991
Trading places: Men and women in non-traditional occupations, 1971-86	Summer 1990	Are jobs in large firms better jobs?	Autumn 1991
		Retirement attitudes, plans and behaviour	Autumn 1991
		The pension carrot: Incentives to early retirement	Autumn 1991
		Women approaching retirement	Autumn 1991
		Dependence on government transfer payments, 1971-1989	Summer 1991
		RRSPs: Tax-assisted retirement savings	Winter 1990
		Taxes, transfers and regional disparities	Winter 1990
		Government transfer payments and family income	Autumn 1990
		The performance of trustee pension funds	Spring 1990
PENSIONS		PRODUCTIVITY
Public pensions and work	Autumn 2007 (August 2007)	GDP and employment growth	Summer 2007 (March 2007)
Early pensioners	Spring 2007 (February 2007)	Whither the workweek?	Autumn 2005 (June 2005)
Cracking the RRSP nest egg	Summer 2006 (April 2006)	Productivity and prosperity in the information age	Autumn 2003 (June 2003)
Using RRSPs before retirement	Spring 2005 (December 2004)	Exports, GDP and jobs	Winter 1999
Retirement plan awareness	Spring 2004 (January 2004)	Measuring productivity	Spring 1995
A C/QPP overview	Spring 2004 (January 2004)	About productivity	Spring 1993
Profiling RRSP contributors	Spring 2003 (January 2003)
Pensions: Immigrants and visible minorities	Autumn 2002 (June 2002)	REGIONAL ANALYSIS
Private pension savings, 1999	Spring 2002 (December 2001)	Is the workplace becoming safer?	Autumn 2006 (July 2006)
Who contributes to RRSPs? A re-examination	Autumn 2001 (July 2001)	Low income in census metropolitan areas	Summer 2004 (May 2004)
Pension coverage and retirement savings	Summer 2001	Income inequality within provinces	Winter 2000 (November 2000)
Incomes of younger retired women: the past 30 years	Winter 2000 (December 2000)	Rural roots	Autumn 2000
In for the long term: pension plans offered by employers	Winter 2000 (October 2000)	Provincial earnings differences	Summer 2000
Incomes of seniors	Winter 2000	Payroll taxes—structure and statutory parameters	Summer 2000
RRSPs in the 1990s	Spring 2000	Regional disparities and non-permanent employment	Winter 1997
Saving for retirement: RRSPs and RPPs	Summer 1999	Employment and industrial development in the North	Spring 1997
The RRSP Home Buyers' Plan	Summer 1998	Northern earnings and income	Spring 1997
RRSP contributions and withdrawals: An update	Spring 1998	A job to die for	Summer 1996
Tapping unused RRSP room	Spring 1998	Canada's unemployment mosaic in the 1990s	Spring 1996
Low incomes and RRSPs	Spring 1997	Full-year unemployment across the country	Autumn 1995
RRSP participation—the sooner the better	Spring 1997	Are single industry towns diversifying? A look at fishing, mining and wood-based communities	Spring 1992
RRSP withdrawals revisited	Winter 1996	Visible minorities in the Canadian labour force	Summer 1991
RRSP rollovers	Winter 1996	Taxes, transfers and regional disparities	Winter 1990
Dual-pensioner families	Autumn 1996	Consumer spending in urban and rural Canada	Autumn 1990
Pension fact or fiction?	Summer 1996	Shifting patterns of unemployment distribution since the 1960s	Autumn 1990
Men retiring early: How are they doing?	Winter 1995
RRSPs—unused opportunities	Winter 1995
Tax assistance for pensions and RRSPs	Winter 1995
Who's saving for retirement?	Winter 1995
Pension plan potpourri	Summer 1995
Greying of the workforce	Spring 1995
Update on RRSP contributions	Spring 1995
Greying of the workforce (charts)	Winter 1994
RRSP withdrawals	Spring 1994
An interview with Laurence E. Coward	Winter 1993

Bilingualism and earnings	Summer 1989	Housing costs of elderly families	Autumn 2004 (July 2004)
Canada's unemployment mosaic	Summer 1989	More seniors at work	Spring 2004 (February 2004)
RETIREMENT		Finances in the golden years	Winter 2003 (November 2003)
Early pensioners	Spring 2007 (February 2007)	Seniors at work	Summer 2002 (May 2002)
Defining retirement	Spring 2007 (February 2007)	Incomes of younger retired women: the past 30 years	Winter 2000 (December 2000)
Post-retirement employment	Winter 2005 (September 2005)	Incomes of seniors	Winter 2000
Job strain and retirement	Autumn 2005 (July 2005)	Working past age 65	Summer 1999
Retaining older workers	Winter 2004 (October 2004)	Dual-pensioner families	Autumn 1996
The near-retirement rate	Spring 2004 (February 2004)	TAXES
Finances in the golden years	Winter 2003 (November 2003)	Property taxes relative to income	Summer 2005 (March 2005)
The retirement wave	Spring 2003 (February 2003)	Housing costs of elderly families	Autumn 2004 (July 2004)
Men 55 and older: Work or retire?	Spring 2003 (December 2002)	Property taxes	Autumn 2003 (July 2003)
Older workers and the labour market	Spring 2003 (December 2002)	Recent trends in taxes internationally	Spring 2001 (January 2001)
Approaching retirement	Winter 2002 (September 2002)	Taxes internationally	Autumn 2000
Private pension savings, 1999	Spring 2002 (December 2001)	Payroll taxes—recent trends	Autumn 2000
Early retirement trends	Winter 2001 (September 2001)	Payroll taxes—structure and statutory parameters	Summer 2000
Demography and the labour market	Spring 2001 (February 2001)	Income taxes in Canada and the United States	Summer 2000
Incomes of younger retired women: the past 30 years	Winter 2000 (December 2000)	Family income inequality, 1970-1995	Winter 1998
Incomes of seniors	Winter 2000	The RRSP Home Buyers' Plan	Summer 1998
Working past age 65	Summer 1999	Family income inequality in the 1980s	Autumn 1991
Saving for retirement: RRSPs and RRP	Summer 1999	Taxes, transfers and regional disparities	Winter 1990
Income transition upon retirement	Winter 1998	Consumer spending in urban and rural Canada	Autumn 1990
Retirement patterns of working couples	Autumn 1998	Where the money goes: Spending patterns in Canada and the U.S.	Autumn 1990
Measuring the age of retirement	Summer 1997
RRSP rollovers	Winter 1996	TRAINING
Dual-pensioner families	Autumn 1996	Training through the ages	Winter 2006 (October 2006)
Do earnings rise until retirement?	Summer 1996	Working smarter	Winter 2002
Men retiring early: How are they doing?	Winter 1995	Barriers to job-related training	Summer 2002 (March 2002)
Greying of the workforce	Spring 1995	Literacy in the workplace	Summer 1999
Greying of the workforce (charts)	Winter 1994	An international comparison of employee training	Spring 1998
A note on the recession and early retirement	Winter 1993	Facing the future: Adults who go back to school	Autumn 1997
An interview with Laurence E. Coward	Winter 1993	A note on the self-initiated training of job-losers	Spring 1994
Facing retirement	Spring 1993	Employer-supported training—it varies by occupation	Spring 1994
Marriage, money and retirement	Winter 1991	Recent information on training	Spring 1994
Retirement attitudes, plans and behaviour	Autumn 1991	Studying on the job	Summer 1992
The pension carrot: Incentives to early retirement	Autumn 1991	Apprentices: Graduate and drop-out labour market performances	Spring 1991
Women approaching retirement	Autumn 1991	Gail Cook Johnson speaks out on human resource issues	Spring 1991
SENIORS		Training the work force: A challenge facing Canada in the '90s	Winter 1990
Shifts in spending patterns of older Canadians	Spring 2006 (December 2005)
Who's missing out on the GIS?	Winter 2005 (October 2005)

UNEMPLOYMENT

Canada's unemployment mosaic, 2000 to 2006	Spring 2007 (January 2007)
Unemployment since 1971	Summer 2006 (May 2006)
Looking, and looking, for work	Summer 2005 (May 2005)
Sidelined in the labour market	Summer 2004 (April 2004)
Seasonal work and Employment Insurance use	Winter 2003 (September 2003)
Trends in part-time job search	Winter 2001 (November 2001)
Repeat users of employment insurance	Summer 2001 (April 2001)
Unemployment kaleidoscope	Autumn 2000
Obtaining a job	Spring 1999
Looking for work	Autumn 1998
Employment Insurance in Canada: Policy changes	Summer 1998
The redistribution of overtime hours	Winter 1997
Facing the future: Adults who go back to school	Autumn 1997
Canada's unemployment mosaic in the 1990s	Spring 1996
The many faces of unemployment	Spring 1996
Who gets UI?	Summer 1994
A note on the self-initiated training of job-losers	Spring 1994
Alternative measures of unemployment	Winter 1992
A note on Canadian unemployment since 1921	Autumn 1992
Discouraged workers—where have they gone?	Autumn 1992
Unemployment—occupation makes a difference	Winter 1991
Then and now: The changing face of unemployment	Spring 1991
Shifting patterns of unemployment distribution since the 1960s	Autumn 1990
Time lost: An alternative view of unemployment	Spring 1990
Unemployment: A tale of two sources	Winter 1989
“Discouraged workers”	Autumn 1989
Canada's unemployment mosaic	Summer 1989

UNIONIZATION

Collective bargaining priorities	Autumn 2005 (August 2005)
Diverging trends in unionization	Summer 2005 (April 2005)
The union movement in transition	Autumn 2004 (August 2004)
Unionization and the grievance system	Autumn 2003 (August 2003)
Union wage premium	Winter 2002 (September 2002)
Unionization and fringe benefits	Autumn 2002 (August 2002)
Time lost due to industrial disputes	Autumn 2001 (August 2001)
Non-unionized but covered by collective agreement	Autumn 2000
Unionization—an update	Autumn 1999
Unionization in Canada: A retrospective	Summer 1999 (Supplement)
The rise of unionization among women	Winter 1998

A statistical portrait of the trade union movement	Winter 1997
Unionized workers	Spring 1996
A note on wage trends among unionized workers	Autumn 1993
Are jobs in large firms better jobs?	Autumn 1991
Working for minimum wage	Winter 1989
Unionization and women in the service sector	Autumn 1989

VOLUNTEERING

Labour inputs to non-profit organizations	Autumn 2007 (June 2007)
Volunteering on company time	Summer 2003 (April 2003)
Youth volunteering on the rise	Spring 2000
Seniors who volunteer	Autumn 1999
The gift of time	Summer 1990

WEALTH

Revisiting wealth inequality	Spring 2007 (December 2006)
Wealth inequality by province	Winter 2004 (September 2004)
Family wealth across the generations	Winter 2003 (October 2003)
Income and wealth	Winter 2002 (November 2002)
Wealth inequality	Spring 2002 (February 2002)
The distribution of wealth in Canada and the United States	Spring 1990

WOMEN

Wives as primary breadwinners	Autumn 2006 (August 2006)
Converging gender roles	Autumn 2006 (July 2006)
The rising profile of women academics	Spring 2005 (February 2005)
Income replacement among recent widows	Summer 2004 (May 2004)
The male-female wage gap	Spring 2002 (December 2001)
Incomes of younger retired women: the past 30 years	Winter 2000 (December 2000)
Women's earnings/men's earnings	Winter 1999
Employment after childbirth	Autumn 1999
Baby boom women—then and now	Autumn 1999
The rise of unionization among women	Winter 1998
Women entrepreneurs	Spring 1996
Women as main wage-earners	Winter 1995
Adult women's participation rate at a standstill	Autumn 1995
Women in non-traditional occupations	Autumn 1995
Baby boom women	Winter 1994
Work-related sexual harassment	Winter 1994
Declining female labour force participation	Summer 1994
Left behind: Lone mothers in the labour market	Summer 1994
Balancing work and family responsibilities	Spring 1994

