

Information Sheet for the Allowance or Allowance for the Survivor

This information sheet will help you complete the application for the Allowance or Allowance for the Survivor. The Allowance is a non-taxable monthly benefit paid to the spouse or common-law partner of someone who is receiving the Old Age Security pension and who qualifies for the Guaranteed Income Supplement. The Allowance for the Survivor is a non-taxable monthly benefit paid to a surviving spouse or common-law partner who has low income. Either benefit may be paid until you turn 65 years of age. It will then be replaced with an Old Age Security pension, if you qualify.

Qualifying for the Allowance or Allowance for the Survivor

To receive the Allowance or Allowance for the Survivor you must:

- be 60 to 64 years of age;
- have a legal residence status in Canada;
- meet the residence requirements;
- submit the necessary documents;
- complete and sign the application.

Also,

If you are applying for the Allowance, you must:

- be married to or living in a common-law relationship with someone who is receiving the Old Age Security pension and who qualifies for the Guaranteed Income Supplement; and
- not be separated from your spouse or common-law partner*.

If you are applying for the Allowance for the Survivor, you must:

- not have remarried or started living in a common-law relationship with a new partner; and
- not have been living apart from your common-law partner* at the time of death; and
- not have been divorced from your spouse at the time of death.

A common-law partner is a person of the opposite or same sex who has been living with you in a conjugal relationship for at least one year.*

Social Security Agreements

(Refer to question 13 on the application)

Canada has social security agreements with many countries that could help you meet the residence requirements to qualify. If you lived or worked in one or more of these countries, you may also qualify for benefits from these countries. It could also be the case if you are a surviving spouse or common-law partner and your deceased spouse or common-law partner lived or worked in another country. We will send you an application form if necessary.

When to apply

You can apply up to 12 months before your 60th birthday. If you have already reached age 60, send your application as soon as possible so you won't lose any payments.

Please note that we can pay your benefit back to a maximum of 11 months from the date we receive your application, but no earlier than the month after your 60th birthday.

Information Sheet for the Allowance or Allowance for the Survivor

Unable to apply

If, due to a medical condition, you were unable to apply earlier or to ask someone to apply on your behalf, please contact us to obtain a form called "Declaration of Incapacity". If you meet all of the eligibility requirements, filling out and returning this form may allow you to receive your pension with an earlier start date.

Payment outside of Canada

You can receive the Allowance or Allowance for the Survivor while you are outside of Canada, but only for 6 months after your departure. After that, your payments will be stopped and you will have to reapply if you return to live in Canada.

Documents Required

PROOF OF BIRTH (Refer to question 4 on the application)

You do not need to provide proof of birth with your application. However, the Old Age Security program has the right to request proof of birth at any time, when deemed necessary.

PROOF OF MARITAL STATUS (Refer to question 9 on the application)

If you are married, please provide us with your Marriage certificate. If you live in a common-law relationship, please contact us to find out what documents are required.

PROOF OF CANADIAN LEGAL RESIDENCE STATUS (Refer to question 10 on the application)

To be eligible for the Allowance, you must be a legal resident of Canada. You are considered to be a legal resident if you are a Canadian Citizen, a permanent resident (formerly called Landed Immigrant) or in Canada under a Minister's Permit on the day before your application is approved or the day before you leave Canada.

If you were born in Canada and have lived in Canada all your life, you do not need to prove your legal residence status.

If you were born in Canada and became a citizen of another country before February 15, 1977, you may have given up your Canadian citizenship. If you are not sure what your status is, please contact a Citizenship and Immigration office.

If you were born outside of Canada, a certified photocopy of one of the following documents is usually sufficient to confirm your Canadian citizenship or legal residence status:

- Canadian Citizen - Certificate of Canadian citizenship, naturalization certificate, or Canadian passport issued in 1970 or later;
- Permanent Resident (formerly known as Landed Immigrant) - Canadian immigration documents (for example IMM1000 - Record of Landing or Permanent Resident Card) or Canadian immigration stamp on your passport;
- Resident under a Minister's Permit - Minister's Permit.

PROOF OF RESIDENCE HISTORY (Refer to question 12 on the application)

If you have not lived in Canada all your life, you must send us certified photocopies of documents that prove your history of residence in Canada. You can use the following documents to prove when you entered, departed or returned to Canada:

- passports;
- immigration records (such as visas);
- customs declarations; or
- other approved documents that can prove your history of residence in Canada.

If you are a surviving spouse or common-law partner (Refer to question 13b on the application)

You must provide us with certified copies of the following documents:

- proof of your spouse's or common-law partner's date of death; and
- proof of your marriage or common-law union. (For common-law unions, contact us to find out what documents are required.)

If you have already provided these documents to the Old Age Security program or Canada Pension Plan, you do not have to provide them again.

Certified photocopies of original documents

It is better to send certified photocopies of documents rather than the originals. If you choose to send original documents, send them by registered mail. We will return the original documents to you.

We can only accept a photocopy of an original document if it is legible and if it is a certified true copy of the original. Our staff at any Service Canada Center will photocopy your documents and certify them free of charge. If you cannot visit a Service Canada Centre, you can ask one of the following people to certify your photocopy:

- Accountant
- Chief of First Nations Band
- Employee of a Service Canada Centre acting in an official capacity
- Funeral Director
- Justice of the Peace
- Lawyer, Magistrate, Notary
- Manager of Financial Institution
- Medical and Health Practitioners: Chiropractor, Dentist, Doctor, Pharmacist, Psychologist, Nurse Practitioner, Registered Nurse
- Member of Parliament or their staff
- Member of Provincial Legislature or their staff
- Minister of Religion
- Municipal Clerk
- Official of a federal government department or provincial government department, or one of its agencies
- Official of an Embassy, Consulate or High Commission
- Official of a country with which Canada has a reciprocal social security agreement
- Police Officer
- Postmaster
- Professional Engineer
- Social Worker
- Teacher

People who certify photocopies must compare the original document to the photocopy, state their official position or title, sign and print their name, give their telephone number and indicate the date they certified the document.

They must also write the following statement on the photocopy: This photocopy is a true copy of the original document which has not been altered in any way.

If a document has information on both sides, both sides must be copied and certified. You cannot certify photocopies of your own documents, and you cannot ask a relative to do it for you. Please write your Social Insurance Number on any photocopies that you send us.

Protection of personal information

The information requested is required under the Old Age Security Act (OAS). We may not be able to give you a benefit if you do not give us all the information we need. We will keep this information in the Personal Information Bank HRSDC PPU 116.
