Agri-Food Trade Service

Our support, knowledge and assistance

The Agri-Food Trade Service (ATS) assists companies with their exporting needs from initial inquiry through to successful foreign market entry.

Information is available online and services are provided through regional offices across the country that offer face-to-face support and centralized access to:

- Government export programs and services
- Trade commissioners abroad

We have your needs in mind

- Market and product-specific information
- Trade news and statistics
- Foreign market entry reports and analysis
- International regulatory information
- Export training and counselling
- Information on industry events in Canada and abroad

Information as you need and how you need it

Obtain answers to your questions 24 hours a day from the ATS website www.ats.agr.gc.ca — a service of Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada.
