

1999 - 2000 Landings

Northern Quebec

In 1999, total catches in Hudson Strait amounted to a little less than 2 metric tons, for a value of $4,000. So far, the only species fished commercially in Northern Quebec has been scallop.

For this particular sector, the Department of Fisheries and Oceans has no registered data for the year 2000.